Mr Gardner Jacobs
Bryn Mawr College
Bryn Mawr
Pa

Dear Mr Jacobs

Yesterday Arthur finds you and you staff on the tempo of Hitler I do not longer write as lyric as you can read if you in my dripping fingers is so full with long old time Prison the neighborhood is Funny Officer here and bought me a black dress for my mother I may and that I found for a season the German Republic regulations are quite difficult to bright information Better but I will certainly have many many years to spend under Hitler I received a letter from Julia last night and at the end of her letter he was on the Finals of some Tennis tournament in Pasadena. Mr Ben [illegible] are in Berlin give my [illegible] and the telephone [illegible]
Hearing from you [illegible]
[illegible]