BRYANT COLLEGE, PROVIDENCE, R. I.

FEBRUARY, 1946

CITY'S STUDENTS MEET

Five Institutions Represented

A short while ago a round table discussion was held by the students of colleges in the Providence area in order to discuss plans for the proposed National Student Organization. The colleges represented were: Rhode Island College of Pharmacy, Brown University, Pembroke, Rhode Island College of Education, and Bryant College. The Providence conference was a preliminary to the one held at Harvard University.

The students representing Bryant College were: Eileen Kingsley, James Moynihan, Eugene Spagnola, Robert DeZinno, Charles Wielgus, and Lorraine LeMay.

COUNCIL RECOGNIZES SORORITY

Patricia Byrne Named President

At a recent meeting the Student Council voted to approve the by-laws and constitution of a newly organized group to be the sister sorority of Phi Kappa Tau. The Council in so acting went by the ageless adage that "woman needs man, and man must have his mate." Now the cycle is complete in that no Bryant fraternity is sisterless.

The group has taken "Alpha Phi Kappa" for its recognized title. At one of its earliest meetings an election of officers resulted in the following installations: Patricia Byrnes, president; Barbara Perkins, vice president; Glorio Fusio, secretary; and Helen Surdant, treasurer.

BRIDGE MATCHES HELD

In an effort to promote fellowship between local college and university students and to develop a keen spirit of competition, the students of Bryant College, Brown University, Rhode Island College of Education, and Providence College are sponsoring bridge matches.

The matches are conducted team against team, using double boards. Charles Tessier, George Barlow, Fred Wolfert, and Louis Stachowicz, all members of Beta Sigma Chi; Charles Basilchuck, Arnold Cleveland, Ernest Ross, and James O'Brien of Tau Epsilon; and Bruce Benjamin and Zakar Kooharian are representing Bryant College.

REILLY ELECTED

Terrence Reilly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Reilly of 18 Wendell Street, Riverside, Rhode Island, has been elected president of the Beta Iota Beta fraternity. Mr. Reilly is a student in the Business Administration division, a member of the Newman Club and a Student Council representative.

Other officers elected were: Vice president, John Creem; secretary, Richard Freed; treasurer, Raymond Hughes; sergeant-at-arms, Francis Sullivan; historian, Robert Smith.

BRYANT FACILITIES EXPAND

New Building to Be Completed by September

Increasing needs for additional classrooms at Bryant will be satisfied with the inauguration of the September school year. At that time a new building, now under construction on Charles Field Street, between Eldridge and Harriet Halls, will be ready for occupancy. The 106 foot structure will be attached to Memorial Hall on the northwest corner. It will contain a study hall and three classrooms which will accommodate 180 to 200 students.

Like Memorial Hall the building will be constructed entirely of cinder-block, brick, and steel with asphalt floors. It is to have all modern, portable furniture and fluorescent lighting.

The basement has been excavated and actual construction will begin soon.

Returns From Chicago Conference

Bryant Delegates Attend Regional Conference At Harvard

Inspired by correspondence to the president of the Student Council from the Chicago Student Conference Committee and a visit by a delegation of Harvard University Students representing Douglas Cater, Chairman of the Harvard Student Council Committee on Student Activities, the Student Council representatives of the Providence Colleges and Universities held a preliminary round table discussion on the need for and character of a proposed national student organization in the United States.

Armed with information secured as a result of the Providence meeting, James Moynihan, Eugene Spagnola, Lorraine LeMay, Robert DeZinno, Eileen Kingsley and Charles Wielgus attended the New England Regional Conference which was held at Harvard University. Among the institutions represented at the Harvard Conference were Yale, Smith, Regis, M.I.T., Boston College, Suffolk Law, A.I.C., Harvard, Middlebury and many others.

The purpose of the conference was to facilitate the interchange of ideas pertaining to the character of the proposed organization. Information secured as a result of the meeting was forwarded to Miss Ruth Karstens who was vacationing at her home in Arlington Heights, Illinois. The appointment of Miss Karstens to represent the students of Bryant at the National Student Conference was made by the president of the Student Council. The selection was unanimously approved by the Council.

The following is Miss Karsten's report on the Chicago Student Conference held at the University of Chicago:

ANNUAL ST. PATRICK'S DANCE

The brothers of Phi Sigma Nu are to sponsor the annual St. Patrick's Day Dance at the Bryant Gym. The gym will be festively decorated in the traditional green of the day and a large attendance is hoped for. The orchestra for the evening has not been selected, but the usual danceable music is promised.

Mr. Russell Austin, chairman of the conference committee, declared that the principal duty of a national student organization would be that of serving student needs and interests. In sketching the events that led up to the Chicago Conference, Mr. Austin emphasized the work of the British National Organization of Students in bringing about the first session of the IUS.

The nine members of the steering committee elected were: Douglas Cater, Russell Austin, Al Houghton, Lada Halka, Charles Proctor, Joseph Malik, Kurt Farrar, Joyce Roberts, and John Simons. A report was submitted giving the attendance at the conference as follows:

ONLY THE RUSSIANS?

"Nature did not make all men equal by a long way, and those who are superior have a natural right to the advantage their superiority gives them . . . And as with man, so it is with nations. The most powerful nation, economically, industrially, and militarily, by exercise of its own power and by influence, will dominate the world. Ancient history presents a record of nation after nation, as each became predominant, mastering the greater part of their then-known world. Later history follows the same pattern until now the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics finds herself predominant among the nations of the earth . . ."

We Russians now are supreme . . . and it is up to us to remain supreme. We possess so-called secret weapons with powers of demolition and death so great that no nation or combination of nations dare attack us at the present time, and in the light of reason, why should we not forever hold this advantage?

All this silly dribble about . . . the atomic bomb . . . We should have enough on hand to blast every city in the world, and we should have carriers capable of delivering to any place on earth within a few hours and of returning without refueling. We have such a carrier now, and there is no reason why we should not have 100,000 of them if necessary. More power to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics . . ."

All this bears a painfully close resemblance to the master-race doctrine lately preached by Adolph Hitler. No, this statement did not appear in Pravda or Izvestia. It appeared recently in a letter to the Editor in one of Hartford's daily papers, which are of course, open to all points of view. The abbreviated version quoted above is given word for word, except for the substitution of "the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics" for "the United States of America."

Around the Kitchen Table

No obstacle is too great to surmount, or at least so it would appear, in the cafeteria and gym each hectic noonday. What with papers, straws, bags, bottles, and silverware strewn around, this scene of confusion nearer parallels one of Dali's surrealistic "coup de art" than a normal cafeteria.

Let's use the disposal cans for our refuse and enjoy a cafeteria more like Mother's Kitchen, than Hell's Kitchen.

Masquers

Hi Kids,

Golly, the plays were wonderful —no kidding. I knew you'd be wonderin' so I'll tell you a little about it.

"She Was Only a Farmer's Daughter," supposedly a drama, was really quite funny, 'cause you should have seen some of the characters—couldn't be more true-to-form. (Or should I say "farm?")

The comedy, "Are We Dressing," was a scream—How could it be otherwise? . . . I mean with such good casting and so hectic a plot.)

Miss Buckler and Ken Boungero, as you know, directed the production. They truly did a marvelous job. I just wish all who helped putting it over—the committees, the super-responsive audience, the cast—could know just how much we appreciated 'em. . . .

And as for something new: The Masquers, on March 19, is staging a musical comedy, written originally by Ray Stevens, a fellow around school who really knows his stuff. From what I've heard it should be loads of fun. Why don't you come up that night? I'd love to see you all. "Bud"

This change enables us to see ourselves as others see us, to imagine a Russian rather than an American saying this kind of thing. Had a Russian said it, it would have caused every American's gorge to rise. Perhaps such a statement by an American has an identical effect on a Russian. Most of us realize how extraordinarily difficult peacemaking is, because of the Russians. It would seem, however, that they are not the only ones who make it hard. Editor

NOTED COMMENTATOR TO SPEAK

Usually when speakers talk about economic trends the tendency is toward confusion rather than clarification. Unlike the majority of such speakers, Stuart Chase is noted for his analyzation of economic trends in language the layman can understand.

Mr. Chase is not only a noted commentator of economic and social problems but also author of numerous texts on these subjects. Among his works are "Democracy Under Pressure" and "Men and Machines."

Students of Bryant will be able to listen to a lecture entitled "Inflation or Deflation," given by Mr. Chase in the Auditorium on March 6.

AROUND THE CAMPUS

Phi Sigs Calendar

January activity of the fraternity was highlighted by the Pledgee Formal, held in conjunction with the sister sorority, Sigma Iota Chi. The event took place at the Wannamoisett Golf Club. Music for the supper dance was furnished by Carl Tatz and his orchestra.

Phi Sig has entered a new bowling team into competition and the new quintet, anchored by Frank Green and Joe Mandato promises to be an able entry in the current league meeting.

The Green and Gold hoopsters have shown improvement in every game to date, and a more successful finish in the current basketball season is anticipated.

Joint Meeting Held

A special joint meeting of Phi Kappa Tau and its sister sorority, Alpha Phi Kappa, was held in the French Room of the Crown Hotel. Presidents "Bob" Eickenfeldt and "Pat" Byrne of Phi Kappa Tau and Alpha Phi Kappa, respectively, presided. Following the adjournment of the meeting refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed.

At a regular meeting of the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity it was voted to celebrate the installation of the new officers with a banquet at the Sheraton Hotel. The past president is to receive a fraternity key for his hard work in furthering the interests of the fraternity.

The semi-annual pledgee banquet of Phi Kappa Tau was held at Oates Tavern, North Providence. Frank Lofazia was toastmaster. He spoke on "The Veteran's Attitude Toward Current Problems of Peace Making." Faculty Advisor, Mr. Dickerman welcomed the new pledgees into the fraternity and offered his help in problems confronting them. President "Bob" Eickenfeldt told of the history of the fraternity and its plans for future activities. Following a steak dinner there was dancing.

Sigma Holds Socials

A combination Christmas party and surprise birthday party for Miss Blaney was held at Top Hill. There was much suspense and delight as each girl received a gift from her Sigma sister.

After much planning and eager anticipation Sigma and Phi Sig gathered at the Wannamoisett Country Club for their joint pledgee dinner dance. After dinner, a few words of welcome from Pat Zinno, Claire Messenger, Mr. Vinal and Mrs. Robert Clifford, there was dancing to the music of Carl Tatz. Attractive black and gold programs were distributed.

The third degree was taken by the pledgees at a Valentine Party held at Top Hill. They received at this time their sorority pins.

Tau Epsilon Moves on

The annual Pledge Dance of Tau Epsilon was held last month at the Sheraton Hotel in conjunction with KDK. The committee in charge, Vin McDermitt, Frank Merola, and Don Thyar, are to be congratulated

ASSEMBLY NEWS

Miss Lauree McNamee, head of the Speech Department of the John Robert Powers School presented a very interesting lecture on Speech at the third of a series of lectures to be given at Bryant during the year.

Miss McNamee gave specific instances why all of us should become speech conscious, and what methods can be used in improving speech defects which we might have.

RAMBLERS EXCEL IN CITY LEAGUE

An athletic-minded group of Bryant Veterans have formed what may be the nucleus of a future Bryant Varsity Basketball Team.

This team is composed of the following players: Phil Thompson, Bob Shortelle, Albert Bernadine, Harry DeFazio, Sid Cohen, "Red" Michealowski, Bob Sweet, "Kid" Price and "Wee" Dinnie. Ernest Ross and John Berelli are the enterprising managers.

So far Bryant's East Side Ramblers have shown great promise by winning three out of their first four games.

The City League in which they play is composed of teams made up solely of veterans.

A great deal of discussion arose in regard to the racial question and had to be dropped because of the caucuses scheduled for 11:30. Caucuses 11:30 to 1:00 p. m.

Delegates from Connecticut and Rhode Island met in their individual regional group. Mr. Robert Smith of New Haven, Conn., was elected temporary chairman. It was decided that our district would have a regional meeting during the middle part of February.

Our group then joined the Massachusetts delegation in which we voiced ourselves that we would like to work together with all the New England delegates before the next delegate would be selected for the coming conference which is scheduled to be held sometime during the summer.

Plenary Session 2:30 p. m. Mandel Hall.

A motion was made and carried that the Chicago Student Conference favored the establishment of a National Organization of Students.

Names of the students placed on the executive committee were then read.

A World Youth Festival will be held in Praha, Czechoslovakia, for four weeks July-August, 1947. The Executive Committee met before leaving Chicago and discussed the raising of funds, the reports of the colleges, and some plans for the constitutional convention which is to be held some time this summer.
