LETTER ONE HUNDRED NINETEEN-EDITH TO VIC

Saturday night, 10:00 p.m.

12/2/44, In Uk's room on little table, wearing p.j. and blue bathrobe

Sweetheart darling,

While Uk is "strumming on the piano" before she goes to sleep, I'll write you a nice long letter. Gosh, that kid really plays beautifully and there are some pieces I could hear her play all night!

Today I received a telegram (EFM) and of course, was very very happy. Also, rec'd two letters from you. The air mail you wrote on 11/18 and 11/22 arrived. Sometimes V-mail is very fast and other times air mail is just as fast if not faster. However, in the test case you made on the 18th of Nov., your V-mail did arrive before your air mail.

Honey, you are wrong about Geo. Bender. He is a petty politician, but so what? They all are! However, it might interest you to know that Geo. Bender has voted for every liberal or progressive bill that Congress has ever tried to put through! Read your Reader's Scope magazine, Nov. issue. As a matter of fact, I sent it to you, in one of the packages I sent you a while back, so soon I hope you get it!

Gosh, is this letter messy. Forgive me darling! However, once again my tummy is "on the blink" and it has given me a headache and it makes me mad, cause I can't do all the letter writing I planned on doing. I merely wrote a short V mail to Shelton and Hay-
