With RAN, you've got connections!

Stephanie (Ragas) Ptak '83, Stacy Radziiewicz '88, Kendra Dagle '87, and Julia Zuo '04 MBA on the Boston harbor cruise Regional Alumni Network event in August.

Are you a Bryant graduate who is relocating and wants to make connections? Those connections may already be waiting for you.

Bryant’s Regional Alumni Networks (RAN) are up and running across the country and even in select international locations like London and Rome. In California this August, for example, Bryant alumni gathered at Sonny McClean’s in Santa Monica to watch a Red Sox/Yankees game. Alumni in North Carolina met at the home of Dana '92 and Robin Bradley for a traditional southern barbecue. In Colorado, alumni gathered at the Denver Press Club for a reception hosted by Patterson (MacDonald) Rosero '51 that included prospective students.

The Office of Alumni Relations is ramping up activities to reach more Bryant alumni. In high density areas such as the New England states, New York, and Florida, the University will host at least one major event each year as well as a number of smaller events. Regions
Alumni are invited to take part in a Bryant-guided tour to China during 2008 Summer Olympics

China's rich history dates back thousands of years. Next summer, Bryant alumni will embark on a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to see Tiananmen Square, The Great Wall, The Forbidden City, and enjoy many cultural and entertainment events, including the 2008 Summer Olympic Games in Beijing. Alumni will also visit other locations in China, including Xi'an, Guilin, and Yangshuo, and will be guided by staff of Bryant's own U.S.-China Institute throughout the visit.

The trip is scheduled for July 31 through August 11, 2008, and the Bryant alumni vacation package includes transportation and airfare, hotel accommodations, all meals, and entrance fees to various sites. High demand for accommodations and transportation due to the Olympic Games has resulted in our being unable to currently set final prices. We expect the total amount to be in the vicinity of $4,000 per person, double occupancy. A deposit of $500 is required by January 15, 2008. This deposit is non-refundable unless the trip is cancelled by Bryant University.

E-mail Robin Warde, director of alumni relations, at rwarde@bryant.edu for details.
REUNION at HOMECOMING 2007

To see more pictures of Reunion at Homecoming events, go to Bryant's alumni page, then click on "online community" and "photo gallery."

The Class of 1957 was inducted into the Loyal Guard at a special luncheon during Reunion at Homecoming. The 50th Reunion cochairs this year were Jacqueline (Ruest) Ericson, Bill Franks, Louise (Pacia) DelVecchio, Marsha (Glickman) Reiser, and Carolyn (Girelli) Skeffington.
Some members of the Class of 1982 gathered inside the tent for a group photo before launching their evening event. The 25th Reunion steering committee members included Sandy (Musumeci) Aldieri, Dave Cooley, Tom Foley, and Jennifer (Proud) Meams.

Alpha Theta Chi fraternity brothers from 1962 through 1970 gathered with letter sweaters, steins, and pins to exchange stories from their days on the East Side campus of Bryant. Seated (l-r) are Jim Serpa '64, Tony Lisa '62, '67, and Joe Alfred '66; standing (l-r) are Tony DeQuattro '67, '74 MBA, Jon Campeau '67, Samuel Disano '67, Maurice Clare '66, Charlie Andrade '65, and Louis Florio '64.

Former Director of Multicultural Student Services Berta Hysell was honored Reunion/Homecoming weekend at the 30th anniversary dinner for the Intercultural Center. Former students paid tribute to Berta for her years of dedication, and a scholarship for multicultural students has been established in her name.
Honor Roll of Donors

members of the Bryant community whose generous contributions made 2006-2007 a success! The support of our donors allows Bryant to continue to offer quality academic, cultural, and social programs and to provide scholarships to our deserving students.
There are a couple of reasons I give to Bryant. Even though I’m separated from the University through time and distance, it’s still my alma mater and I feel a responsibility to give back. It’s also interesting to me when Bryant can enhance its reputation through exposure in magazines and on National Public Radio because that increase in recognition for Bryant means that my degree is worth more.

If you have named Bryant University in your estate plan and would like to be listed as an 1863 Society member or if you would like more information about the 1863 Society, please contact Richard Lafleur at (401) 353-5661.

These pages recognize those who made gifts to Bryant University between July 1, 2006 and June 30, 2007. Despite making every effort to list all donors correctly, errors and omissions might have inadvertently occurred. If your name appears incorrectly, or your name does not appear, please contact the Office of Development at (877) 353-5667 so we can correct our records for future recognition issues. Thank you.

† Deceased
George Clifford Craig ’29, ’68H, ’75H and Ruth Fairbrother Craig Endowed Scholarship Fund: A Legacy Lives On

George Craig wore many hats at Bryant. As a student, he was president of his class and a Beta Sigma Chi fraternity brother. When he graduated in 1929, he stayed at his alma mater and worked for Bryant as a career counselor, bursar, an admission counselor, and, finally, Dean of Admission.

After he passed away, his dedication to Bryant was honored through the generosity of his sister-in-law, Helen Fairbrother Moroney. She donated $50,000 to create a scholarship in the name of George and his wife, Ruth. That’s a legacy of a passion for Bryant from which future generations can benefit in perpetuity.

Black & Gold Club:
Supporting athletics at Bryant

At Bryant, knowledge, character, success, and lifelong friendships are cultivated in the classroom and on the playing field. The Black & Gold Club is the annual giving program that supports Bryant University scholar-athletes. Members of the Black & Gold Club provide the financial resources that coaches need to grow their programs and give student-athletes the most positive sports experience possible.

Contributions to the Black & Gold Club touch the lives of more than 500 students in more than 22 athletic programs each year and directly contribute to the students’ success in the competitive arena and the classroom.

José C. Buenaga ’82:
Alumnus, entrepreneur, and philanthropist

José C. Buenaga ’82 of San Juan, Puerto Rico, always wanted to be an entrepreneur and had a strategy for achieving his goal. "I learned the basic skills of business at Bryant and used those skills to get jobs that taught me about finance, capital markets, marketing, and consulting." Obtaining this knowledge was part of the process that led up to Buenaga launching his own businesses – first Easy Money, a financial services company that he sold to Citibank in 2004, and most recently, Biohealth Technologies. Buenaga is also the cofounder of two nonprofit organizations for children with cancer.

He supports Bryant by funding a scholarship for undergraduate students and a graduate assistantship through the John H. Chafee Center for International Business.

The PricewaterhouseCoopers Partners Scholarship:
Alumni support their company, their alma mater, and students

The PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) Accounting Careers Leadership Institute is a week-long, hands-on opportunity for students of color who are juniors in high school to learn more about the key role accountants play in business and in society. Throughout the program, participants work directly with Bryant faculty, staff, and students, as well as professionals from PwC.

In 2006, Robert J. Calabro'88 (right), H. Kent Goetjen '77 P'11, and Michael P. Fahey '88 - all colleagues at PwC - established the PricewaterhouseCoopers Partners Scholarship at Bryant. The scholarship supports those students who participate in the Institute as high school juniors and go on to attend Bryant.

Parents for Bryant:
Helping the University achieve its goals

Jan and David Craine of Lutherville, Maryland, parents of David Craine '08, have been generous supporters of the Parents Fund through all four years of their son's time at Bryant. The Parents Fund supports important priorities of the University, including the Annual Fund, Athletics, and the Library Endowment. Last year, gifts from parents totaled more than $225,000.

Campus Campaign:
Staff and faculty support students

Last year, Bryant staff and faculty contributed more than $63,000, which helped fund scholarships for four deserving students. Scholarship recipient Erin Reilly '10 (Newington, Conn.), a finance concentrator and Dean's List member, says, "It means so much to me to be able to receive an excellent education at my first-choice university without having to worry about being able to afford the cost." Reilly is a member of Students in Free Enterprise, Big Sisters, Bryant Helps, and the Finance Association.

This year's goal of $70,000 for student scholarships is attainable because of the generosity of Bryant's faculty and staff.
These pages recognize those who made gifts to Bryant University between July 1, 2006 and June 30, 2007. Despite making every effort to list all donors correctly, errors and omissions might have inadvertently occurred. If your name appears incorrectly, or your name does not appear, please contact the Office of Development at (501) 333-6867 so we can correct our records for future recognition issues. Thank you.

REUNION at HOMECOMING 2007

Celebrating Reunion at Homecoming

Sherwin and Mildred (Sadlon) Haskell, both members of the Class of 1937, traveled from their home in Hilton Head, South Carolina, to enjoy Reunion at Homecoming festivities.

Psychology Professor Ron Deluga attends Homecoming every year with wife Celia and dogs Crispix (left) and Oatmeal. Deluga has been a favorite professor of Bryant students for 27 years and is well known for the unusual ties he wears in the classroom.

Now and then with fewer alumni are just as important, and Bryant will offer support for gatherings based on alumni interest or special opportunities. For instance, London alumni got together twice this past summer to meet with Bryant students who participated in an internship program.

Members of the National Alumni Council (NAC) collaborate with Bryant's Office of Alumni Relations to offer a variety of educational, cultural, social, and networking programs. "Though organizing a working steering committee is still an ongoing process, we need local alumni who are committed to making the events a success," reports Jim Magee '88, National Alumni Council 2nd Vice President. "Alumni also know the best venues for events," he adds, "and can make great suggestions for community service projects."

"Our role is to encourage alumni to remain connected with Bryant," says Alumni Relations Director Robin Warde. "In addition to planning events, alumni can stay involved by participating in the Alumni Admission Connection or through the Alumni Career Link with Career Services."

For many alumni, staying connected means paving the way for more recent Bryant graduates. Recently, a new alumnus stopped by the Office of Alumni Relations and announced that he was moving to San Diego. Warde made a quick call to Steven Cowen '69, who enthusiastically agreed to be a resource to help him get settled.

The bottom line is that Bryant connections can be vital to helping alumni feel welcome in their new communities. Making and keeping Bryant connections are the real value of the Regional Alumni Networks. If you want more information on how you can be involved or get things started in your area, e-mail Robin Warde at rwarde@bryant.edu.
