The Brothers of Beta Iota Beta Most Proudly Present May Queen '67

By J. Conaty

Well, it's that time of year again and to the Bryant Campus comes BIB's twenty-first annual May Queen. Realizing the few weeks remaining to this school year and the thoughts of finals, nothing but nothing will be a better remedy for this tension than the festivities planned for the week of the 2nd.

The curtain rises on Tuesday, May 2, with the annual carnival, which will be held in the Bryant Gym from 6:00 to 10:00 p.m. The carnival will consist of each fraternity's ingenuity in sponsoring a booth containing games of skill or chance in which some lucky person may walk away rich—or at least pleased! At approximately 8:30 p.m. a judging of each booth will take place. Last year it was very close among the sponsoring frats, and this year promises to be even closer. SO, COME TO THE CARNIVAL!! (Admission only 25¢).

Wednesday follows with one-year-old Tug-of-War, which will be held at Gano Field at 3:15 p.m. This contest consists of each fraternity and sorority matching its strength against fellow frats and sororities, respectively. In case you're wondering, TE, the defending champions, say they're ready and confident of another win, but it'll be hard to say. So, let's have a lot of support for your favorites and get out there. Admission will be a mere 25¢, and it goes without saying, "Well worth it!" (By the way if you have boots, you'd best wear them.)

Next comes Thursday and at 7:00 p.m. the judging of this year's candidates will take place in the gymnasium. At this time, the trophies will be distributed to the winners of the Tug-of-War. A panel of very distinguished judges will have a 100% vote on the candidates this year, and they will be more than capable of the honor. Each candidate will be given a series of questions, including one of the situation and each will also be judged on her beauty and poise. Music will be provided by the fabulous "Stardusters." Come early and support your candidate.

This brings Friday, on which day will occur the biggest event yet. A dance will be held at the Sheraton-Biltmore from 8:00 to 1:00 a.m. featuring the "too much" sound of "The Others", a fivesome who have played on numerous occasions in and around the area. Such songs as "Lonely Street" and "Can't Stand This Love, Good-Bye," which were made famous by this group will be heard along with many other current sounds. The Coronation of May Queen '67 will occur at this time by our most lovely Sno' Queen '67, Fran Valati. Don't miss this beautiful ceremony. Tickets will be sold at $3.75 per couple by all of the brothers during the week.

To wind up the week's festivities, BIB and SIB proudly present "A New Musical Sound"—Coming From Where? . . . "THE LEFT BANKE!" Yes, you heard it and it's gonna be like something else when these "free thinking" individuals hit the stage and groove to their hits, "Walk Away Rennee," "Pretty Ballerina," and "Ivy, Ivy." The show these five youths put on has to be seen to be believed, and Mike Brown, leader of the group, promises not to disillusion anyone. So if you want to witness something pleasing to a lover of long locks, bell-bottoms, boots and the works, you're going to be missing your cue if you miss this show. As an added attraction, WICE's "good guy" Bob DeCarlo will be on hand to keep it rollin'.

Well, that's it! If I haven't convinced you now, I guess I'll go into another field. So, be a regular collegiate and let yourself enjoy what "all the others" are already planning on . . . MAY QUEEN '67!

Senior Women and Parents To Be Entertained At President's Tea

Sunday afternoon, April 30, President and Mrs. Jacobs will greet the senior women and their parents at a reception and tea in the College Dining Hall following a program of entertainment presented by the women dorm students. At the tea, the following ladies of the faculty will pour: Miss Bolas, Mrs. Cote, Miss Cronk, Miss Gallant, Mrs. Garber, Miss Glidden, Mrs. Marsella, Mrs. McLaughlin, Mrs. O'Connell, Mrs. Patterson, Miss Pelkey, and Mrs. Phillips. Members of the Junior and Senior Classes are working on committees for this event.

The reception committee is headed by Kathleen B. Abert and includes Lois P. Catterall, Kathryn S. Borogen, Barbara M. Marek, Mary L. Dupont, and Louise D. Dutkiewicz. Maureen Fitzgerald is chairman of the flower committee consisting of Judith M. Allen, Dianne L. Luoma, Alicia M. Frett, and Carrie R. Riva. The Junior Hostesses for the tea are Maida L. Fishman, Patricia M. Gisleson, Judith E. Hart, Eileen P. Maher, Margaret Maxmean, and Kathleen M. Rowan.

The program of entertainment presented by the women dorm students will begin at one-thirty o'clock in the Auditorium of the Student Activities Building.

Lynda Sjoblad and Marilyn Thayer of Dyer Hall will present "Two-Ten, Six Eighteen" by Rod McKoen and "Pack Up Your Sorrows" by Richard Farina.

Gloria Hodgdon from Jeanette Carroll Hall will sing "More" by Ortolani and Oliviero, and "I Believe" by Ervin Drake.

Next, "Last Movement from the String Quartet" by Franz Schubert will be presented by Catherine Elliott from Salisbury Hall.

A traditional Thai Dance, the "Faun-Leb" or "Fingernail Dance" will be performed by Suchada Soonthornmark, one of our foreign students.

Following the dance, Judith Gage from Bryant Hall will sing "The Impossible Dream" by Mitch Leigh and "A Wonderful Day Like Today" by Bricusse and Newley.

Student's Check Sheet of
End-of-Semester
Responsibilities

1. Have you filed your renewal application blank indicating your plans for September? This applies to every student whether he plans to return, graduate or dropout.

2. Do you have your I.D. card? It must be shown in each examination. If you have lost your photo I.D. card, you must get a signature I.D. card from the Records Office. Please do this before the last minute.

3. Have you made out your own final exam schedule and checked it for accuracy? Failure to take an examination when scheduled involves a special final exam and a five-dollar late examination fee.

4. Do you have a conflict between examinations? If so, arrangements for a special examination must be made with the Deans' Office between May 1 and May 8.

5. Do you know where your exams will be given? Most classes are divided between two rooms. Make a note of the room on your exam schedule when the instructor makes the announcement.

6. Do you plan to change your major? If so you must report the change to one of the deans or the registrar before the end of the examination period.

7. Are you planning to attend the Summer Sessions? If so have you filed your application therefor? Regulations governing Summer School are available in the Deans' Office. Book lists are available at the College Book Store.

tune, "There Is a Ship" will be presented by Linda Gomes and Andrea Mullen of Stowell Hall.

Finally, an original parody, "The Graduation Address," will be performed by Ghita Borenstein, Susan Heinemann, Carla-Jeanne Hyde, and Laurie Levine from Rita Hoey Hall.

Professor Richard F. Alberg directs this entertainment and the accompanist for Miss Hodgdon and Miss Gage will be Alan M. Fellner.

Members of the program committee, headed by Judith A. Morton, include Jane M. Gershko, Patricia L. Colvin, Diane I. Verdolotti, and Carol M. Westgate.

Bill Doherty To Lead World Affairs Forum

By Roy Dempsey

On Thursday afternoon, April 20, the World Affairs Forum of Bryant College conducted its next-to-last meeting of the year with the installation of new offices, and an informal discussion on Tito's Yugoslavia. The discussion was led by a former diplomat to that country and now a diplomat in residence at Brown University, Mr. Walter Roberts.

The new offices for next year are:

President—Bill Doherty
Vice-President—Tom Brassil
Secretary—James Gibney
Treasurer—John Angelone
Publicity Director—

Roy Dempsey

The members would also like to thank Dr. Sol Lebovitz for his help in obtaining such a knowledgeable speaker for this informal meeting.

The W. A. F. will hold its last meeting on Tuesday, May 2, and at that time will begin making preparations for next year's trips to New York and Washington.

All interested in joining the W. A. F. should show up at this meeting. Look for flyers as to the time and place of this important discussion.

Library Notes

The librarians have been surprised at the bleak reaction of some students to checking routines newly adopted at the library. Books of course have been a storm center since time out of mind, because books are not only universally but individually loved and desired.

As far back in time as the days of the Old Testament, Ecclesiastes observed that "Of the making of many books there is no end." And in the 6th century there was a famous law case in Ireland in which St. Columba was sued by St. Finnen because St. Columba made off with St. Finnen's book, a Bible Psalter. St. Columba's defence was that he only wanted it to make a copy for himself. But the Court ruled that "To every cow its calf" and both the original book and the copy had to go back to St. Finnen.

What Is the Bryant Interfaith Council?

By Steven Lander, Chairman

The Bryant Interfaith Council is the co-ordinating body of the three religious organizations: Hillel, Newman Apostolate, and Bryant Christian Association. Two representatives from each of the three organizations sit on the council along with a chairman and a secretary-treasurer.

The council sponsors events during the year that would be of interest to all students on campus such as the Civil Rights Lecture held this past year.

In addition to this, Bryant Interfaith hears out problems of the individual clubs and tries to help whenever possible.

If you join a religious organization on campus, you too will have representation on Interfaith.

As for our modern college libraries — well — there is that well known campus saw, so old it has whiskers, still repeated dead pan in all college libraries: it seems there was a very old and venerable alumnus who died, and when his will was read it was found he had willed his private library to his Alma Mater. Joyfully the books were sent for, but when they arrived in a four-ton truck at the college library, the huge bequest was discovered to consist of books vanished from the college library over the years.

Human nature has not changed since the days of Ecclesiastes, the 6th century, and medieval times. And today, though we open our shelves freely to all, the defenceless books must be protected since the great love of men for books has not changed, either. Bryant has been the most reluctant of the major Rhode Island colleges to adopt book inspection. But great libraries are treasure houses, and Bryant College's Jacobs Library is on its way to becoming one of the great libraries.

Well, we had a few surprises this past week. I hear Judy really had a fine time with the pledges last Wednesday, as they took her for a little ride. Well, Judy, you can look at it this way — at least it was a free meal. Also this past week, we had a shower for Ruth Ann who is getting married this coming August. She received some very nice gifts and we are all very happy for her. Probably some of us wish we were in her shoes.

On the sports scene: In bowling there is one game left, and it will be tense. We hold a very slim margin on first place. Girls, all we want you to do is try your hardest. We're proud of you. Softball will be starting soon and our new Athletic Director, Jill, will soon be picking her team. Good luck in the coming season.

Fran: All of the sisters want to wish you the best of luck in the Miss Rhode Island Universe Pageant this Sunday. We will all be out to support you; so keep that THETA smile. We are all very proud of you, and know that you will do a fine job.

This coming Tuesday, May 2, our pledge class will be inducted to be sisters. The new officers will be installed, and it shall be an event for all that will not soon be forgotten.

Kathy: They'll be keeping you pretty busy this week. All the sisters will be out to support you in all the events. We all know that you will do a fine job, and we are very proud of you.

At this time the sisters would like to wish BJB success with their upcoming May Queen Weekend. It should be well enjoyed by everyone.

Practicing for the past two weeks shows that the brothers are getting in shape for the softball games. The coach and captain for AO is Al Potter. The guys couldn't have made a better choice??? Again this year Bobby will be our pitcher and will be leading the fraternity to the victories. For the past two week ends Crash has had two parties at his apartment in the Blue Moon Hotel and the people who have come have had a great time (been really wild). Keep up the good work, Crash! It is kind of late, but I forgot to announce that Stan and Jennie got pinned, CONGRATULATIONS! There goes another true AO brother — there goes another true Zeta sister. May Queen is just a week away, and we are getting everything ready. The brothers would like to wish Rosemary the best of luck for the pageant. Rosemary, we are with you all the way. Brucey, I hear you are having some trouble with the house mother—can't keep her in line?? B. M. I also heard you snuck out of your dorm at 1:30 in the morning last week; what were you doing out so late and where were you going (just curious)? Well, till next week—OODIM AKGIG.

Also, congratulations to Bill Doherty for becoming President of the World Affairs Forum and to Tom Brassil as Vice President.

A great time was had by all at the SLP pledge formal and the wards were given to the following brothers: Our new president Jon Kaplan received the best-brother award, and most athletic for the past year are Mike Erasmus and Howie Paskow. The pledge brothers decided that Barry Zimmerman was the back breaker during pledging while "mother" Ron Reuter was the biggest candy. Al Fellner was honored with the best pledge award.

Congratulations to Steve Cowen on his recent pinning to Nancy Cohen.

Bob Ellems thanks Ron R. for the phone call, while we all appreciate the cocktail party that Jeff and Howie had. Chuck's hospitality is also appreciated for all the parties.

Larry — Learn to satisfy??
 Rat — How's your SHELL??

Dave — Great planning — Even the food!!!

By Jack Gulur

The Brothers of Tau Epsilon would like to congratulate the Big Five of our 1967 basketball team: Fred Palm, Bill Scambato, Doug Wilkinson, John Doherty, and Jack Fagan. You did a fine job, men.

Softball season is rolling right in, and our boys look as if they are ready for it. Bill Cheetham is doing a fine job as captain. Don't work them too hard, Bill and make them live up to that motto, "No smoking. No drinking. Early to bed." Right?

Our thanks to Gene LaComte for a fabulous party at his house Saturday night. We all had a terrific time, especially around the pool table.

Tau Epsilon's Annual Pledge Formal will be held tonight for the Pledge Class of 1967. It will be at the Hearthstone Motor Inn in Seekonk, Mass. Good luck for a successful night.

The brothers of Beta Sigma Chi would like to thank our basketball coach Bill Russell for leading us to a winning season. Our final record was 6 wins and 3 losses. We would like to thank Duck, Gordie, Chris, Mike and the rest of the team for the fine job they did all season.

We would like to wish BIB and SIB the best of luck in their upcoming May Queen week end. We would also like to wish our candidate Kathy McCarthy the best of luck.

Would you believe: J. B. gone mondo; Toy with a mind of his own; Ain't with good grades; Brian marching; Dom not eating; and Swinger sober.

Dom, take good care of Yogi; you don't want anything to happen to him.

We would like to congratulate Anthony "Duck" DeCrecenzo on being named outstanding athlete at last Friday's Pledge Banquet. And also, Barry Liebowitz who was named outstanding brother.

Well, last weekend was BSG's Pledge formal. Unfortunately, our "hay" ride scheduled for Friday night was cancelled, because of "would you believe—snow!" But, all in all Friday turned out real well—a real Yankee doodle doodle day!

Riley, you don't usually watch television and play cards, do you? Gershkoff, you get out of bed feet first! Diane, don't worry, the spinning bottle wasn't avoiding you. Ciosek, how'd you like "moonlight bowling?" Sorry about that!

Then there was Saturday! What a night to remember. Remind me next Pledge Formal that I don't like lobster! Bacardi, congratulations Pres. Maida, exactly what size dress do you wear? George, you deserved every bit of it. Lynn, glad to see you held out! Micki, bet you have the N.K.P.'s on all your dates! Smith, why didn't you have your I.D.? Gersh, tell Danny that a speed zone means to drive with caution!!!

Sunday was our annual beach party. What's the matter you chickens—I was the only one in swimming. Paul, I'm really not cold blooded! By the way, I thought we'd have to fish for lunch! Micki, Evy, Pat, Smith, we know you really love us; but next time we'll take the food! There really is an East Beach! Oh yeah! rah, rah, rah, Bob Bean's!

At this time I would like to announce Chi Gam's candidate for May Queen — Ginger Richard. Good luck to you, Ginger. We all know you will do an excellent job.

PHI U was able to win two games before the basketball season closed, and I'd like to congratulate the team for the hard work and effort they put into each game. Also, many thanks to our coach, Frank Reis, for his great patience and assistance. We finally saw that big "V." The team consisted of Barb Fiore, Jan DeCarlo, Lil Ritchie, Phyllis Wolford, Sara Mason, Fran Yurman, and Lois Catterall. Baseball starts soon and PHI U should show a great improvement this year.

Good luck to the brothers in the basketball playoffs.

I really don't know how we all managed to keep our mouths shut for a whole week! (By the way, Barb and Marilyn, your gifts passed the test!)

We're all prepared for the upcoming baseball competition. Our team really looks promising and to our Athletic Director, Roach, we wish good luck for a successful season.

Well, basketball has come to an end. Although we didn't exactly make the playoffs, the season was much more successful than last year's. We're pleased with the fine job you did, team. Thanks for the time and effort you put into it.

Beta is very proud to announce that our candidate for May Queen is Claire Arel. Claire, we have all the confidence in the world in you. Good luck!

Chi Gam threw a little party last Friday night for brothers and dates, and it was a fantastic time. The Temptations(?), Rascals(?), Kingsmen(?), and a few other groups make special appearances. It was a real fine intoxicating evening.

The brothers wish Andy Blanchard the best of luck in the future.

Ginger Richard has been chosen as our candidate for May Queen. Good Luck, Ginger; we know you will do a fine job.

Congratulations to Paul DeLude on being elected Student Senate President. We know you will do a fine job, Brother.

Chi Gam was well represented at Brown's Spring Weekend by a group of sober(?) gentlemen(?). Ron Cioe brought his harem to the party Friday night. Judging from the way Ronnie bounced Tony's date on the floor, he must have thought she was a basketball. "Isms" is learning the real words to "Hang on Sloopy" for the next party. Frank Kiernan has misplaced his jacket. Sticks, how is the food at Louie's? "Happy Hearts" had a great time this weekend. Do you always hang out of third story windows? Tony D'Uva's wedding reception will be held at Manny Almeda's Ringside Lounge. Gee, I wish I could have a date with a high school Queen! Rumors are going around that Kenny Silvio likes older women. Yeah sure! Did you make a good impression, Keny? Jim, Artie, and Jerry have adopted Boston as their home town. Vinnie, does she have radar? "It was certainly nice to see so many sisters at the party Friday night." — anonymous. Tony, you were good, but the organ wasn't. Once again, Paul "Dance Step" Loureco led the way on the dance floor Friday night. A certain brother is singing "Bang Bang." I didn't mention your name, brother.

Kenny Silvia will be filling in for Ed Sullivan when the latter goes on vacation. Have you heard from Cheri, Ken? Presidents Frank Houlihan and Tony D'Uva had a fine time Saturday afternoon. It is certain that both fraternities are proud of their "images." Jack Baker has lost his yellow socks. It seems that they escaped from his shoes last week.

Congratulations to our outstanding SIB All-Star basketball team for winning the sorority championship—the star performers include Julie “Cousy” Lambert, Debbie “The Still” Busher, Sharon “Walk” Kay, and Kathy “Meadowlark” Mollo. They accounted for most of the points scored. Of course, we musn't forget our guards—Nancy Grzyb and Pam Grenman. Also congrats to Stowell Hall for winning the dorm trophy.

We are looking forward to a successful season of softball. We're hoping to win the championship as we did last year. Our thanks to Joe Zimmer for volunteering his services as coach for our softball team. You don't know what you're getting yourself into, Joe. Our bowling team is still rolling along the alleys. Keep it up, girls.

Iggie DeLorenzo is taking etiquette lessons from Goody. Let's hope some of her fine points wear off on Iggie. Sandy, only 30 more days. Our D.O.W. for this week is Pam Grenman. She really deserves it after proving herself worthy last night.

We hope everyone is stashing away his money in order to attend our annual May Queen. As you know, it is sponsored by SIB and BIB. The Sibbies performed some charity work at the Boys' Club last Thursday nite. They helped out behind game booths. It turned out to be a lot of fun.
