

Bryant Vice President to Receive Honorary Degree

R. LUCIEN APPLEBY

THE WHITE HOUSE WASHINGTON, D. C.

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS BRYANT COLLEGE, 1967

It is a pleasure for me to extend my best wishes as you complete your college education.

You are graduating into a society in which you will be warmly welcomed. Our country has never had so great a need for highly educated men and women. Never have young Americans moved from the college campus into a world offering so broad a range of opportunities for individual fulfillment and contribution to the welfare of humanity.

Your generation of students has been distinguished by its fresh and vigorous concern for the quality of American life and its commitment to American democracy. Perhaps the greatest opportunity awaiting you is the challenge to make this a life-long commitment.

Today, Americans from every walk of life are striving together to shape a society that can offer a meaningful and rewarding life to all its members. Never have so many of our countrymen been so deeply dedicated to eradicating the old evils of ignorance, poverty, and bigotry from every corner of the land.

Through your years of study, you have prepared yourselves for positions of leadership in this quest for a better America.

I congratulate you, and urge you to take full advantage of that opportunity.

Sincerely,

Lyndon B. Johnson

The Archway

Published by the Undergraduate Body of Bryant College, Providence, R. I.

Vol. XXVII, No. 30

Wednesday, July 19, 1967

Dr. Ray L. Heffner, President of Brown University and Bryant Honorary Degree Recipient, will Address Graduates at 1967 Commencement Exercises

Dr. Ray L. Heffner, President of Brown University, will deliver the Commencement Address at the 104th Commencement Exercises of Bryant College to be held at 10:00 a.m. in the Meehan Auditorium, Hope Street, at the corner of Lloyd Avenue in Providence. The Commencement Celebration begins with Class Day held on the previous day, Friday, July 28 at 2 p.m.

Dr. Heffner and two other college presidents will receive the honorary degrees of Doctor of Science in Business Administration. The other college presidents are Dr. Howard W. Johnson, President of Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Boston, Massachusetts, and Dr. Robert E. L. Strider, president of Colby College in Waterville, Maine. The honorary degree of Doctor of Science in Business Education will be conferred upon Dr. Asa S. Knowles, President of Northeastern University in Boston, Massachusetts.

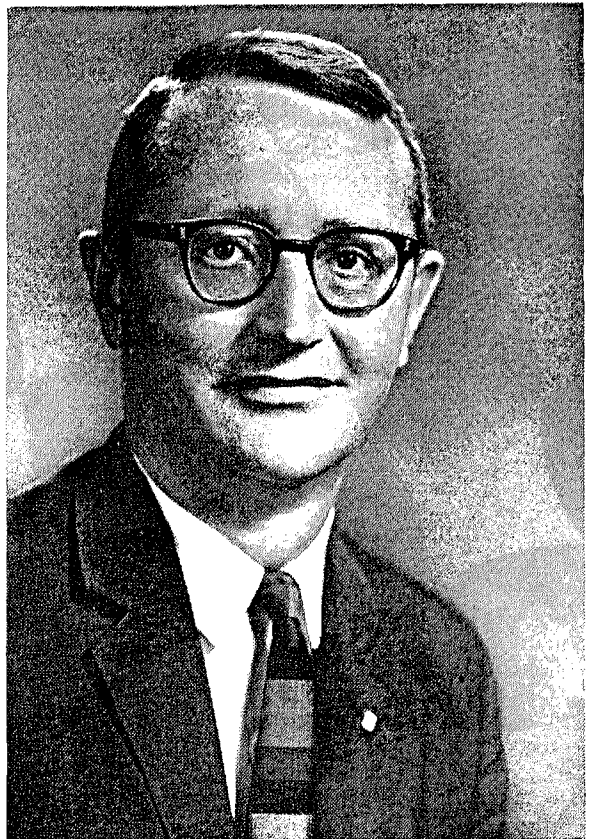

The honorary degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration will be conferred upon Dr. Ernest W. Veigel, Jr., Chairman of the Board of Directors of Rochester Business Institute in Rochester, New York; R. Lucien Appleby, Vice-President and Treasurer of Bryant College; and Clarence H. Gifford, Jr., President of the Rhode Island Hospital Trust Company.

The Archdeacon of the Episcopal Diocese of Rhode Island, the Venerable Canon William I.

Kite will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.

Preceding the conferring of the honorary degrees, Dr. E. Gardner Jacobs will present bachelor's degrees to more than 400 graduates. Dr. William P. Robinson, Jr., Rhode Island Commissioner of Education, will present Teachers' Statements of Eligibility to graduates of the Business Teacher Education program.

RAY L. HEFFNER

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS FOR CLASS DAY OF THE 104th COMMENCEMENT

The two-day graduation program of Bryant College will begin on Friday, July 28, 1967 at 2 p.m. on the South Hall green. Anthony De Quattro, president of the class of 1967 will be the Chairman of the Class Day Program. Following the academic procession in which the bearer of the Harriet E. Jacobs Memorial Mace will be Dr. Lionel H. Mercier, Dean of the Schools of Business Teacher Education and Secretarial Science, the invocation will be given by Rabbi Nathan N. Rosen, Director of the Hillel Foundation for Brown University and Bryant College.

Following the invocation Miss

Kathleen M. McCarthy, degree candidate of the School of Secretarial Science of the class of 1967 and Carmine F. Marabello, Jr., degree candidate of the School of Business Administration, will be the class day speakers.

The greetings from the National Alumni Council will be offered by Anna Bozaro, Bryant '31, First Vice-President of the National Alumni Council.

President E. Gardner Jacobs will address the graduates on the subject of "Student Unrest and Social Responsibility" and will present the annual awards to those seniors who have attained high scholastic standing and who have distinguished themselves as outstanding college citizens.

The singing of the Bryant College Alma Mater and the benediction delivered by Rabbi Rosen will bring the Class Day program of 1967 to a close. Immediately following the close of the program, the 1967 graduates will proceed to the main steps of South Hall for the class picture.

The Class Day Flag Bearers, all members of the Lettermen's Club, are Richard B. Pettee, James R. Squadrito, and Peter F. Sullivan.

Nancy Edith Finegan of Delta Sigma Chi Sorority, Lillian Helen Shewchuk of Phi Upsilon Sorority, Andrew D. Sundberg of the Lettermen's Club, and Thomas Smile, also of the Lettermen's Club will be the Class Day Student Marshals.

The ushers for the Class Day Program will be Thomas A. Brassil and Robert L. Danforth from Alpha Omicron. Lawrence P. Bean and Bruce C. Sawyer will represent Alpha Theta Chi. Beta Iota Beta will be represented by Charles E. Bradley and Travis Doering. The ushers representing Zeta Sigma Chi will be Jon Gilluly and Robert A. Hankin. Anthony D. D'Uva and Kenneth A. Silvia will represent Chi Gamma Iota. Sigma Lambda Pi will be represented by Anthony Colella and Steven Cowen. Richard A. Boulds and James H. Rabb will represent Kappa Tau. Ushers from Phi Sigma Nu will be James J. McNamara and George R. Ruggiero. Tau Epsilon's representatives will be Frank A. Pontarelli, Donald R. Rita, and Douglas E. Wilkinson. Sidney B. Tinson will represent Delta Omega and the Lettermen's Club will be represented by Jose M. Alvarez, Gordon G. Balme, David T. Hansen, William C. Kingsford, and Kevin W. Lahey.

Eight Honorary Degrees To Be

Dr. Howard Johnson

HOWARD W. JOHNSON
President, Massachusetts
Institute of Technology
Honorary Degree: Doctor of Science in Business Administration

The twelfth President of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Mr. Johnson first came to this school as Associate Professor of Industrial Management and Director of the Sloan Fellowship Program. In 1958 he became Associate Dean and then Dean in 1959.

Mr. Johnson had agreed to become Executive Vice President at Federated Department Stores, Inc., in Cincinnati in December of 1965, when he was recalled to be M.I.T.'s President.

Born in Chicago, Mr. Johnson received his undergraduate degree from Central College in Chicago in 1943 and then served in the Infantry and in military government in Europe and Africa.

After study at the University of Glasgow, Scotland, he became a graduate student at the University of Chicago where he received the M.A. in Economics. He conducted research in the Industrial Relations Center and was Director of Management Programs and Assistant Professor of Industrial Relations and Business Administration in the School of Business and the Division of Social Sciences, a position he held until he went to M.I.T.

Mr. Johnson is the author of a number of professional papers on management and education. He is a former editor for Harper & Row. He is a member of the President's Advisory Committee on Labor-Management Policy.

A fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the American Association for the Advancement of Science, Mr. Johnson is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, the Academy of Management and the American Economic Association.

Mr. Johnson and his wife, the former Elizabeth Weed, of Wilmette, Illinois, have three children.

CITATION

Yours has been a distinguished career in the advancement of knowledge in the field of business administration. As an associate professor of industrial management and later as Dean; as director of the Sloan Fellowship Program, and now as President of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, you have brought renown to yourself and this great educational institution through imaginative development of advanced management programs, not only in this country, but also abroad. You have been personally responsible for expansion of the scope and depth in education and research at M.I.T. You also give your time to serve as a member of the President's Advisory Committee on Labor-Management Policy, as a member of the board of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, and several corporate boards. You are a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the American Association for the Advancement of Science; and you serve as a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, the Academy of Management, the American Economic Association and the Industrial Relations Research Association. Bryant College is pleased to honor your accomplishments by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

The Venerable Archdeacon
William L. Kite

WILLIAM L. KITE
Archdeacon of the Episcopal
Diocese of Rhode Island
Honorary Degree: Doctor of
Humane Letters

Educated in the schools of Providence, the Venerable Canon William L. Kite was graduated from Nashotah College, joined the Richfield Oil Corporation and rose to Superintendent before he entered the ministry.

He was ordained Deacon at the Cathedral of St. John in 1948 and the same Year was ordained a Priest at St. Mary's Church, Warwick Neck, where he served as Deacon-in-Charge. He was Rector of this church and also of Christ Church in Westerly.

In 1958, he was appointed Archdeacon of Rhode Island by the Rt. Reverend John S. Higgins, Bishop of Rhode Island.

Elected five times as Deputy to the National Church's General Convention, he served as Chairman of the Committee on the Admission of New Dioceses and was a member of the Committee on the State of the Church.

Archdeacon Kite is a trustee of the Lenox School in Lenox, Massachusetts, and represented the Diocese of Rhode Island in 1963 as Delegate to the Anglican Congress in Toronto, Canada. He was President of the Standing Committee of the Diocese and Supervisor of the Missionary Program.

As a member of the Building Committee he was responsible for the new Cathedral House, the renovation of the Cathedral, the restoration of the colonial houses on Benefit Street, and the fifty-one-bed Nursing Home still to be erected.

Archdeacon Kite was awarded the Carnegie Medal for life-saving.

He is married to the former Marjorie Thompson Crowther. They have three children, a son and two daughters.

CITATION

Educator, administrator, civic leader, your accomplishments in the field of religion as well as in the community you serve have brought you distinction. You have been chairman or a member of numerous committees in this country and Canada dealing with finance and general extension of the Church you represent. Within your Diocese of Rhode Island you have been responsible for administering and arranging financing for a new nursing home, and for planning the new Cathedral House and for renovation of the Cathedral of St. John, and you have held high office in other work of the Diocese. You have served in these posts well, finding time also to add to the culture of Providence by assuming the responsibility for restoring six colonial houses on Benefit Street. Among your many distinctions you also have been awarded the Carnegie Medal for life-saving. Bryant College is proud to recognize your service to Rhode Island by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

Clarence H. Gifford, Jr.

CLARENCE HAMILTON
GIFFORD, JR.
President, Rhode Island
Hospital Trust Company
Honorary Degree: Doctor of Science in Business Administration

Born in Kentucky, Mr. Gifford attended the Peckskill Military Academy of New York State and received his college degree at Brown University.

He began his career in business in New York City, leaving his first position with the C. H. Gifford Real Estate Company to go into the Navy where he became a Lieutenant and did staff personnel work. Returning to the business world, he became associated with G. H. Walker Investments. Following this, Mr. Gifford was appointed Vice President of the Phenix National Bank which was purchased by the Rhode Island Hospital Trust Company, Rising from the position of Vice President he became President of the bank in 1963.

Mr. Gifford's business affiliations include that of member of the Executive Council of the American Banker's Association; Chairman of the Stockholders Advisory Committee of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston; Director of the Pacific National Bank of Nantucket, Massachusetts; Technical Systems Ltd. of London, England, Trustee of the Providence Preservation Society, and many others.

He is a corporation member of the Butler Hospital, a life member of the Miriam Hospital and holds memberships in the Rhode Island Hospital, the Providence Child Guidance Clinic and the Rhode Island Association for the Blind among many others.

A former Director of the American Cancer Society, Rhode Island Division, he also served as 1964 Chairman of the Episcopal Charities of Rhode Island, and Fund Drive Chairman of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. Mr. Gifford is a Director and Member of the Executive Committee of the Rhode Island Association for Retarded Children and is the 1967 General Chairman of the United Fund, Inc.

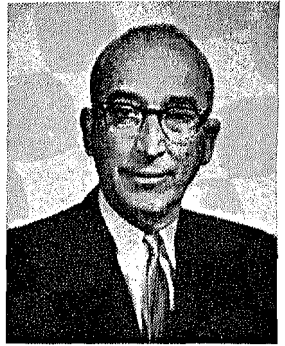

His other affiliations include a Directorship in the Audubon Society; Chairman of the Banking and Finance Committee of the New England Council; member of the NROTC Selection Committee for Rhode Island. Mr. Gifford is a past President of the Rhode Island Banker's Association and the Providence Society of Financial Analysts.

He is married to the former Priscilla Marshall Kilvert. The Giffords have four children.

CITATION

Yours has been a distinguished career, not only in banking, but also in business, finance and civic and humanitarian fields of responsibility. You have risen to become President of one of the State's leading banking institutions, the Rhode Island Hospital Trust Company, and your abilities have been called upon in service to numerous other financial organizations. You are a member of the executive council and of the advisory committee on Federal legislation of the American Bankers Association. You have served as chairman of the Stockholders Advisory Committee of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston. You are trustee, board member, or officer of numerous corporate businesses. Yet you have found time, also, to give your knowledge to numerous civic and charitable organizations both in Rhode Island and nationally. Bryant College is pleased to recognize your abilities by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

R. Lucien Appleby

R. LUCIEN APPLEBY
Vice President and Treasurer of Bryant College
Honorary Degree: Doctor of Science in Business Administration

A Professor of Accounting at Bryant for more than thirty years, R. Lucien Appleby interrupted his teaching career when he was appointed Assistant to the Budget Director and Comptroller of Rhode Island, and in 1937-40 served as a State Auditor. He became Secretary and Assistant Treasurer of Bryant College in 1956. In that same year he was elected a member of the College Board of Trustees.

A member of the Scholarship Committee for the National Office Managers Association of Providence, Mr. Appleby is a former Director of the National Association of Cost Accountants.

He served as Chairman of the Red Cross Campaign of West Warwick and was recently a member of the Executive Budget Committee of the United Fund.

For the past two years, Bryant College has lent its efforts to the Dominican Republic in Santo Domingo in establishing a Junior College of Business Administration, the first in that country. Mr. Appleby is the College Coordinator for this project.

Mr. Appleby lectures to civic and religious organizations and for radio and television. He is a member of the Eastern Business Teachers Association, the Rhode Island Teachers Institute, and the Administrative Management Society.

He resides with his wife, the former Mary Thornton, who was head of the Music Department of the Rhode Island College of Education, in Warwick, Rhode Island.

Awarded at 104th Commencement

CITATION

Your professional career, extending over many years, has been one of devoted service to Bryant College, successively as teacher of accounting, as Secretary and Assistant Treasurer as a member of the College Board of Trustees, as College Coordinator of a Junior College of Business Administration in the Dominican Republic, and as Vice President and Treasurer, the offices you now fill. You have also given personal time to civic responsibilities as chairman of the Red Cross campaign in Kent County, where you live, and as a member of the Executive Budget Committee of the United Fund. You have met the call on your professional abilities by serving as a director of the National Association of Cost Accountants, Providence Chapter, and as a member of the Scholarship Committee of the National Office Managers Association of Providence. Yours has been a virtual lifetime of dedicated service to Bryant College, and Bryant is particularly pleased to honor your accomplishments by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

Ernest W. Veigel, Jr.

ERNEST WILLIAM VEIGEL, JR.
Chairman of the Board of Trustees

Rochester Business Institute
Honorary Degree: Doctor of Science in Business Administration

Dr. Veigel is also the Educational Consultant of the Rochester Business Institute, Rochester, New York. He is President of RBI Enterprises, a member of the Board of Trustees of Community Savings Bank of Rochester, and Chairman of the Board of Trustees at Drake College, Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Born in Lancaster, New York, he received his A.B. degree from the University of Rochester and his advanced degree from the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration. He served in the U. S. Army during World War I.

He began his career in teaching at Jefferson Junior High School and after holding several positions in business administration, including that of accountant for the Eastman, Kodak Company, Manager of Radio Station WHEC, Announcer Manager, Rochester Chamber of Commerce, he joined the Rochester Business Institute in 1928 as General Manager and became President in 1934.

Dr. Veigel has remained a teacher throughout his administrative years and still teaches a class in "Investments."

He is a member of the Business Education Research Association, the Rochester Philharmonic Association and contributes to the Balance Sheet and Journal of Business Education.

Having retired as President of RBI, Dr. and Mrs. Veigel live at 1600 East Avenue in Rochester. His son, Robert, now serves as President of the Institute.

CITATION

Yours has been a lifetime of dedicated service to education. A graduate of the University of Rochester and the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration, you have been responsible since 1928 for bringing the Rochester Business Institute to its present high level as a school of business administration. Although demands on your time are heavy as Chairman of the Board of Trustees and educational consultant to the Institute, you give the benefit of your knowledge also to Drake College where you are Chairman of the Board of Trustees, and to your own students as a teacher of investments. Within your student body you are known not only for service and leadership, but also for your qualities of quiet kindness, understanding and consideration. Indeed, this is an enviable distinction. Bryant College is proud to recognize your leadership in the field of business education by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

Robert E. L. Strider

ROBERT E. L. STRIDER
President of Colby College
Honorary Degree: Doctor of Science in Business Administration

In 1960, Dr. Strider became the seventeenth President of Colby College, Waterville, Maine. He was formerly on the faculty of Connecticut College, New London, Connecticut, where he was a member of the English Department until 1957 when he was appointed Dean of the Faculty at Colby. He was graduated from Harvard in 1939, received his A.M. in 1940, and his Ph.D. from the University in 1950.

A native of Wheeling, West Virginia, Dr. Strider served as a lieutenant in Naval Communications. Prior to military service, he was assistant in undergraduate courses at Harvard. His academic specialty is the seventeenth century. He is the author of Robert Greville, Lord Brooke, a seventeenth century writer and public figure, published by the Harvard University Press.

Dr. Strider is a Fellow, American Academy of Arts and Sciences; immediate past President, New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools; Chairman, Commission on Liberal Learning, Association of American Colleges; member, Council of the Federation of Regional Accrediting Commissions on Higher Education; Vice Chairman, Maine Advisory Committee, U. S. Commission on Civil Rights; former member of the Advisory Council of the Danforth Foundation and the New England Colleges Fund; Trustee of the General Theological Seminary in New York, and a Director of the Maine Citizen's Association for Cooperative Planning.

He is married to the former Helen Ball. The Striders have two sons and two daughters.

CITATION

President of one of New England's leading colleges, accomplished educator, academic authority on the Seventeenth Century, author and civic leader, you are renowned in the field of education. You have served as assistant in undergraduate courses at Radcliffe and at Harvard University, your alma mater, as a member of the faculty of Connecticut College, as Dean of the Faculty at Colby College, and since 1960 as President of that institution. You are a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and you have filled leading offices in numerous commissions on higher education nationally and in New England. Recognizing your abilities as an educator and administrator, Concord College, Nasson College and the University of Maine have conferred upon you honorary doctorates. Bryant College is pleased to add to these honors by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

Asa S. Knowles

ASA SMALLIDGE KNOWLES
President of Northeastern University

Honorary Degree: Doctor of Science in Business Education

President of Northeastern University since 1959, Dr. Knowles began his career there as Assistant Professor of Industrial Management in 1931, becoming in turn Associate Professor of Industrial Engineering and Dean of the College of Business Administration.

In 1942 he was appointed Dean of the School of Business Administration and Director of General College Extension at the University of Rhode Island where he was recently awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Business Administration.

Dr. Knowles was President of the Associated Colleges of Upper New York until 1948 when he accepted the position of Vice President of University Development at Cornell University. He left the presidency of the University of Toledo in 1958 to head Northeastern University.

Born in Northeast Harbor, Maine, Dr. Knowles was educated at Thayer Academy, Bowdoin, and did his graduate studies at the Harvard Business School and Boston University.

A former member of the Board of the Regional Community Colleges, he serves on the Board of Directors of the National Shawmut Bank of Boston and as Corporator of the Provident Institution for Savings. He is a member of the Higher Education Facilities Commission of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; Chairman of the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education of the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, Inc., and of their Council of Federation of Regional Accreditation.

Dr. Knowles holds the Taylor Key for Contribution to Management by the Society for Advancement of Management. He was awarded the U. S. Army Distinguished Civilian Service Medal and Citation and is a member of many scholastic and fraternal honor associations.

CITATION

Rare, indeed, are accomplishments such as yours in the field of education. Not only have you served as a professor or Dean of colleges of business administration in leading universities, but you also have given the benefit of your knowledge and administrative abilities to numerous institutions including Associated Colleges of Upper New York, Cornell University where you were Vice President, the University of Toledo, where you were President, and now to Northeastern University where you serve as President. In addition you have helped to formulate the course of education through your leadership positions in many educational commissions or boards, both in Massachusetts and other parts of the country. You are a director of private business organizations, numerous professional societies and many civic organizations. For these accomplishments you have received many awards, citations and fellowships as well as membership in a number of professional honor societies. Yours has been a distinguished career in education, and Bryant College is honored to recognize your accomplishments by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Education, honoris causa.

RAY L. HEFFNER

President, Brown University
Doctor of Science in Business Administration, Honoris Causa

CITATION

Your career in education has been one of extraordinary accomplishment. As Vice President and Dean of Faculties at Indiana University, where you were responsible for the entire academic program, your development of foreign language and international study programs brought you wide acclaim. You are a distinguished scholar of the Elizabethan period, and you have received a number of Fellowships including the Yale College and Sterling Fellowships and the Guggenheim Fellowship to study Shakespearean tragedy at the British Museum. Your abilities as an administrator, moreover, brought you renown at Indiana University, and are continuing to do so at Brown University in the relatively short period in which you have served as President. Bryant College is honored, indeed, to recognize your accomplishments as an educator, scholar and administrator by conferring upon you the degree of Doctor of Science in Business Administration, honoris causa.

TWELVE SENIORS TO RECEIVE CLASS DAY AWARDS

Fred M. Lowery

THE GEORGE M. PARKS AWARD, $50., is awarded to the senior in the School of Business Administration who, by his intelligent use of leadership qualities, has done the most to enhance the reputation of Bryant College. This year's recipient is Fred Lowery, who while at Bryant was on the Dean's List and Key Society. He received the John L. Allan In-Course Scholarship and the New England Paper Merchants Award. Fred was President of the Student Senate, a member of the Board of Directors of the Delta Omega Professional Society, Bryant representative to College Night and the College-Business Symposium, and President of the Young Republicans. He was also a member of the Current Events Club, the International Club, and the Bryant Collegiate Chapter of the American Marketing Association.

Carmine F. Marabello, Jr.

Carmine F. Marabello, Jr. will receive two awards: THE ROGER W. BABSON AWARD, a gold medal suitably inscribed to the senior in the School of Business Administration who has distinguished himself because of character, and orderly mind, sound judgment, and systematic business habits, and also THE PELL MEDAL FOR UNITED STATES HISTORY presented annually to a member of the graduating class who is selected by the Commencement Award Committee who displays excellency in the study of United States History. Rhode Island's Junior Senator, the Honorable Claiborne deBorda Pell, presents this medal to honor the memory of his father, the late Herbert C. Pell, statesman and diplomat who served our country as Ambassador to Hungary and Minister to Portugal. Carmine was on the Dean's List and Key Society. He was a recipient of the Alumni Scholarship Award, President of his sophomore class, member of the Student Senate, Alpha Pi Investments Club, and the College-Business Symposium.

M. Ronald Morneault

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL AWARD, a silver medal suitably inscribed and a year's subscription to the Wall Street Journal, is awarded to Morris Morneault who as a senior in the School of Business Administration has distinguished himself in the fields of economics, finance, and investments. Morris was on the Dean's List and Key Society. He was the recipient of a New England Regional Scholarship; and represented Bryant at the Inside Advertising and Marketing Week, and the College-Business Symposium. As a brother of Tau Epsilon fraternity he served as Secretary to that organization.

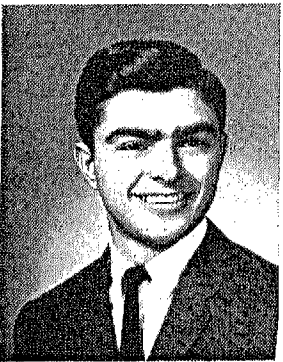

Carole O'Brien

THE BRYANT TYPEWRITING AWARD a gold medal suitably inscribed to Carole O'Brien as the graduating student in the School of Secretarial Science who throughout the course has maintained the highest level of achievement in typewriting. Carole was on the Dean's List and has received awards for Advanced Shorthand and Typing. She was Vice President and Athletic Director of Delta Sigma Chi Sorority, and a member of the Choralaires and Senior Class Gift Committee.

Diane L. Malchiodi

THE JOHN ROBERT GREGG AWARD will be presented to Diane Malchiodi. Diane was on the Dean's List and Key Society; she also received Certificates for Advanced Shorthand and Office Style Dictation. In addition she was Treasurer of Phi Upsilon Sorority, representative to the College-Business Symposium, Candidate for Miss Bryant and Best Dressed Girl, member of Youth Guidance and the Newman Club. The Gregg Award is a gold medal suitably inscribed to the graduating student in the School of Secretarial Science who has maintained the highest level of achievement in shorthand.

Samuel L. Di Sano

THE POLITICAL SCIENCE AWARD, $25., is awarded to the senior who has achieved a distinguished record in the field of political, science studies. Samuel DiSano who was Secretary and a member of the Executive Board of Alpha Theta Chi fraternity will receive the award.

Allan H. Tufankjian

THE BRYANT COLLEGE AWARD will be presented to William Souza who was on the Dean's List and Key Society. William was also a representative to the College-Business Symposium, and a member of the Delta Omega Professional Society. The Bryant Award is a selected set of books on business subjects suitably inscribed to the senior in the School of Business Administration who has shown the greatest improvement in methods of thinking and research and who displays thoroughness in analyzing facts and figures.

Martena L. Grove

THE JEREMIAH CLARK BARBER AWARD, $50., will be presented to Allan Tufankjian who while at Bryant was on the Dean's List and Key Society. He also served as Secretary, Treasurer, and President of Comery House. Allan is a brother of Beta Iota Beta fraternity, and a representative of Bryant to the College-Business Symposium. The Barber Award is presented to the graduate completing a bachelor's degree curriculum in the School of Business Administration who has made the most effective use of his native ability in mastering the subject matter of his College program.

Joanne Waz

Muriel M. LaFazia

THE ALUMNI AWARD, $50., is awarded to the graduating student in the School of Secretarial Science whose personality and scholastic ability demonstrate the greatest potential for a successful career in her chosen field. This year's award goes to Muriel LaFazia who while at Bryant was on the Dean's List and Key Society. Muriel received an Advanced Shorthand Certificate, and she was also a member of the Archway staff.

Barbara Murphy

THE HENRY L. JACOBS ENGLISH AWARD, a selected set of books on literary subjects, suitably inscribed, is presented to the graduating student in the School of Secretarial Science who attains the highest standing in English throughout the curriculum. This year's award goes to Barbara Murphy who was on the Dean's List and Key Society. Barbara was also publicity chairman and President of the Choralaires, member of the Bryant Christian Association Dance Committee, Student Senate Secretary, Archway Executive Secretary and Editor-in-Chief.

William E. Souza