LETTER SEVENTY THREE--EDITH TO VIC

Thursday Midnight

11/9/44

My dearest one,

This will have to be rather brief as I spent a rather full evening & it is late!

Rec'd your V-Mail of the 27th that you were returning to your old Bn. & I'm sure You'll find "loads" of Mail from me. Also, I'm glad to know you'll be back among our nutual friends.

Sanf called me today & told me your folks heard from you, too. Oh yes--I told your Mom I would bring over a cake for Sanf wednesday neighbor a surprise.

Today, we rec'd mail from Camelle Marcus---but knowing I have an eligible brother I don't blame her for writing me. Heard from Fred Grail who's still at westover field. Also, rec'd a letter from Mont. Well send you all this mail eventually.

Went to the doctor tonight--I lost 7 lbs. He examined me (took my blood pressure, pulse & heart beat, etc.) & said I was just fine, & to continue with the same pills. He assures me I'll slowly lose weight from my thighs. I feel lots better than I used to. I really was getting too heavy.

Went to visit Alice P--& her father again & met some interesting people there---a Miss Huey from Cleve. Club; & Cleve. Pub, Lib.

etc. & a man who's a "boss" at Dem, Headq. in Cleve---can't remember the name. The conversation was both interesting & stimulating. By the way, remember Howard Netgenbaum--he got in on the Dem. ticket!

Came home & Uk & I got into a "bull session." She's a grand kid---I don't think I'd continue to live here if it wasn'tn for her! The folks & their petty quarrels (that they won't admit as petty) are rather naseating!---But, oh well, shouldn't be long before we're together, with a good man at the head of our gov't it'll be "full speed ahead."

I adore you, sweetheart, & live only for your return.

Ever & Ever yours,

Edith
