LETTER SIXTY SIX-EDITH TO VIC

Friday Night 11-3-44

10:45 P.M.

My darling sweetheart,

Quite a hectic day today! Mrs. Keifer went home from work today. She felt so ill that she didn't say a word about ever returning. Of course, rumor has it that she is pregnant! Well, to make a long story short, once again we are short of teachers---- & I do mean "short"! Soo, little Edith is not having a $\frac{1}{4}$ day-off tomorrow, plus the fact, that her hour's will be very "screwed up" for next week, but--that's the way it goes! Luckily, I believe, in the good, old army rule-- "live from day-to-day! Just hope I can get a whole day off in the near future!

The car seems to be doing alright by me & I keep my fingers crossed.

Heard from Helen & Julie Edelsberg today. They have a house in (armel, Calif.----love Calif.----But don't have much time together! They should complain! I'd give anything for a day with you! Hon-- I'll send you their letter eventually. Also---rec's a card from the Ruebens-----" lease visit me" is their manin theme. Also, heard from Bulona Watch. They are going to try to trace your watch. Dad says not to worry cause if they can't trace it, they'll replace it.

Sanf's ring came today---it is lovely! -----Only, I can't figure out why it doesn't have the yr. & degree on it--- I'm positive !

I gave them those facts. Well, I'll give it, as is, to Sanf on his birthday, & then, if he would still like the date & degree, I'll return it!

The children must bring all their own costumes for our Dramatic Group. Also, I talked to the supervisor of the Center, & little or no scenery is available. So----if the kids can get costumes, we'll have a "gay Nineties Revue" (one costume a piece should do the trick). If there aren't costumes, we'll do "Sduc, of Hyman Kaplan." Tonight we did the short burlesque "Saga of Little Hell". Next week we will give it for anyone that cares to see it.

Your little girl could really use you around tonight! But---guess I'll settle for a dream of you.

Good night, my love--

Yours--

Edith
