LETTER THIRTY THREE-EDITH TO VIC

Wednesday-10/11/44

My most adorable darling,

Most of the time I'm busily occupied, but sweetheart, being without you is so terribly hard-no work or anything could substitute for you.

I stood in line this morning 30 min. & got your films-they are the "super XX" so you can use them in any weather or time of day except night. I sent them in your Xmas package. I went to the Kodak shop on 9th & Euclid (I heard they were going to have films today) & the line went halfway around the block. Please, darling, if you want more films, write me a request & then, after a couple of weeks, I'll get you some; but-I must have a request.

This letter will be kind of short as I'm very tired. People came to say "good bye" to Mort-especially people with eligible daughters, & I stayed & talked until 9 p.m. & then, good-night; but no, Mother had to tell folks to please come see my room. Nuts!

Mort has discouraged me in anything I want to buy you-that's why your Xmas package will be so rotten-in my estimation. Anything I want to get he says, "don't bother-it'll be issued, he doesn't need it or, he can get it himself". Perhaps he is right?-Huh?

I'm getting to meet some of the children's parents & as a whole they seem to be a very interested group. Some night when I have a little bit more time & not so tired, I'll write in detail. Dennis is adjusting beautifully, but Douglas - not so well. I adore you!

Forever your-

Edith
