LETTER TWENTY NINE-EDITH TO VIC

Saturday

Darling,

I'm writing your Sat. letter (10/7/44) today Sun. morn, because when I got home last night I was so utterly exhausted, I went right to sleep.

This is going to be a short letter as Dad just got up & I want him to mail it, so that I won't break the record of having at least one letter in the mail for you every day.

We didn't get any mail yesterday-kind of slippin'-aren't you?

But an awful lot happened yesterday as I had lunch with Alice Pensner & dinner with Lt. Amy Embry & Cap't Davis. I'll write you a long letter today & tell you all about everything.

I adore you, my beloved. I dreamt early this morn that we were together and when I awoke I was hugging the covers. Boy, that was a bad habit? we got into-sleeping together. Huh?

Take it easy-longer letter follows.

All my love,

Edith
