LETTER SEVEN-EDITH TO VIC

Sunday night

9/14/44

Dearest adorable darling:

I'm sending you Pres. Roosevelt's speech of last night just in case you didn't get to hear it! Hope the censor let's it through. Tell me what you think of it. Oh, yes, I've enclosed it in another envelope!

Yesterday I meant to tell you-got a bill for Sanf's ring ($36.90), but he's worth it. I got him the solid 14K gold ring. I only hope his comes out as nice as ours! It'll be ready by 11/1/44.

Today I finished painting my book cases, and in the room the bed-spread, curtains and dressing table are done. Now, I'll cover a stool and a chair, and do something for the hall and the bathroom. Sanf saw the place tonight, and he was amazed-of course, I sorta, kinda take this decorating business as a matter of course, but Sanf thought it exceptional! Well, when it's all done, I'll write you in minute detail about it, and also, send you a sample of the material.

Sanf came over for dinner, and the three of us (Uk, Sanf and I) had a deluxe meal. The folks were out all day. I bought steaks yesterday- 3 sirloins, Grade AA, at 50 pts-so you see, it was really deluxe. Here's the menu:

tomato juice (Ritz crackers)
steaks (mushroom sauce
French fries
tossed salad, bread, tea
fruit Jello, cookies

Of course, no one ate the way you can. Sanf made me a little angry, since he ate at 4 P.M., and therefore had to stuff the meal down in order to show me he enjoyed it. Honey-your the one I adore cooking for-you and you only'. I must admit you would have enjoyed this meal.

Try to write me every day even though you can't mail it-then, it won't be so difficult to recount everything.

--By the way, how was your last trip to N.Y? Write me about it.

Sanf is getting very enthused about USO due to my influence, and I shall go see about some volunteer work for both of us. It should be fun'.

I love you, Buzz-Buzz. In fact-I adore you-want you-miss you.

Edith
