Dearest Mom:

I'm going tomorrow morning, hon. You probably have received my telegram by now, if I can get one off.

Yesterday I turned in my helmet and liner and canteen. I also had my dog tags, pay book, and immunization records checked. Today I had a short run and dental inspection and a clothing check. I have to fall out at 0645 tomorrow with my bags packed to go to the station. I still have no idea where I'm going, angel, but I will try to notify you immediately upon my arrival at college.

Because I had to go to the range Friday, I have to ship tomorrow all the P.M.C.'s in my barracks went today, so I'm in with a group of boys I don't know.

It will be nice to make new friends again, though.

Edwin Bull, the fellow from New Rochelle that represented Westchester at Mitchel Field washed out. So did Bernie Farnell, that fellow I went to town with last Sunday. They're nailing 'em fast.

Well honey, this is my last piece of stationery, so I'll sign off now. Take care of yourself and Biggie. Give my love to Aunt. I love you sweetheart.

As ever
Fred
