

96 Paterson street
Jersey City 7, N.J.
April 15, 1944

Pfc. John A. Albanese
11th Inf. X-S Battery
c/o F. P. M. San Francisco, Calif.

Dearest Johnny: -

I received your V-mail and was very happy to hear from you again. Also, very glad you're in good health.

Gosh, it's too bad the U.S.O. couldn't arrange to have more women in their shows, thus you'd have no cause to say "no women ted ted" eh! Really I never imagined we girls were so important however perhaps I'm excluded for I guess I'm more a nuisance than a comfort. Please don't agree with me. Nothing new or startling has happened around this neighborhood. However perhaps you'd be interested in hearing this. My girlfriend's mother has recently ~~visited~~ ^{visited} ~~enjoyed~~ ^{enjoyed} Frank Sinatra mother and dad in Hoboken N.J.
Hoboken is the city next to Jersey City and is Frank's birth-

