

December 20, 1942.

Dear Service Club Members,

Many, Many thanks for your yuletide remembrance. It was a very pleasing surprise and enjoyed to the very limit.

My address has changed to:
Corp. Marvin E. Banks, U.S. Army
476th Bomb Sq, 336th Bomb Sq.
Avon Park Bombing Range.
Avon Park, Florida.

Being located some fourteen miles from town, we do not get in very often to indulge in the delicacies and entertainment of the civilian population. This makes every remembrance received through the mail an extra special event and doubly enjoyable.

Wishing everyone of you a very Merry Christmas and a New Year filled with success and happiness, I remain,

Most sincerely yours,
Marvin E. Banks.
