New Bedford, Mass
Feb-1-1943

To Bryant Service Club.

In answer to your letter of Jan 23 in regards to Lt Lionel J. Cormier I am pleased to advise you that he has received your package and he has requested me to thank you for him, as his address has changed.
From Dover, Del. I would like to mention here that he is now in foreign country and that no packages can be sent to him at present, only letters and those have to be by air mail I receive letters from him every week and he is well, and still flying a Bomber somewhere. I will give you his address on other side of this page

1st Lieut L. J. Cormier
80th Bomb Sq (M) air Echelon
A.P.O. 687.

To Postmaster New York.
N.Y.

at any time you want any information I will gladly give you all I can in regard to Lionel please note that my new address is now 146 Cottage St
New Bedford Mass.

Thanking you again and wishing you success in the good work your club is doing for the boys in the service

I Remain Yours Truly
J. J. Cormier
(Lionel's Father)
