Dear Miss Blaney,

as I start this little note I want to tell you that this is a personal letter to you. Please don't post it! I know who is really the backbone of the Service Club, and I want the thanks to go directly to that person, you Miss Blaney. I received the latest news letter from the club yesterday. It certainly was grand to hear that everything is still clicking at the school. I wonder if you could send me Mr. Ripley's address? Either home or business. I was very fond of him, and haven't been in touch with him for several months.

Thanking you again for all you're doing for us fellows,

Sincerely,

Winston O. Harris
