December 10, 1942

Dear Friends,

It certainly was a grand treat of you to surprise me with your Xmas gift of coated cherries and a double-header, at that. If you could have been here a few moments ago and have seen how quickly they disappeared among our shipmates, there would ^{have} been no doubt in your minds as to how sweet they were. Orobids to you and many, many, thanks.

My present address varies slightly from that shown on the package. In order that

Address:

U.S.N.C.T.C. Brks J-3
Station Force
Camp Endicott
Davisville, P.F.

your records may be brought up to date I am listing it elsewhere on this page.

Thanks again, and you all have my very best wishes for the holiday season.

Sincerely

Richard W. Monroe
