Dear Miss Blaney -
 Your beautiful card and note came today, and a better surprise could hardly have been expected but such a letter we are awfully lucky. We work night and day - our grandpa came to our hospital yesterday, the fruits of fleshly work bring them to us, and when they leave they are well happy and healthy men. Our part is their what may seem just a small one, but we are trying to the best of our ability - we have been given a job and we are over here doing it. Here you see medical advancement and actual miracles before your very eyes, my wish has a fact of law of life, and by being nervous and properly taken care of - are almost repaired.
 Surgery is making silent history here, no news of our heart in that regard, yet we are trying - we are doing a job.
 Good health to you always, God bless you and lets hope you will be at Bryant and come all her days that when this news is in the paper
