Gentlemen:

Please accept my belated thanks for your thoughtful Christmas remembrance.

During the past six weeks, I have been moving around quite a bit and, as a result, have fallen far behind in correspondence.

At the present, I am an airplane commander of a B-29 taking phase training at this base. The only former Bryant student I have seen is Eddie White, whom I met in Smyrna, Tennessee where I was an instructor in B-24's.

Your tasty gift is certainly well appreciated.

Sincerely,
Lt. Bob Sherman '38
