Gentlemen,

I would just like to take a few lines to thank you for your Christmas remembrance to me of the packages of Camels.

Our outfit was out in the field when I received your gift and the smokers certainly come in very handy at this time. I shared them with several others in my group and they helped to make our evenings pleasant while sitting around our fire.

Sincerely,
George P. Tyler, Jr.
