Well, Susan, as you can see I'm not much of a letter writer. Please try to write if you have a little time. That will make the week a little shorter—see you next week—end, honey

Lots of love—

Dottie

Sundays

Susan dear,

see how good I am!

I really meant to answer your letter last week as I've already told you—

Golly. I had such a wonderful time this weekend. It seems a shame that it had to end but as you said if it didn't we wouldn't appreciate good times—You're
How did you make out on that 10 hour clock?

There were millions of things that I wanted to write to you but now that I'm actually writing I can't think of any of them.

Hope that this week goes fast but it will undoubtedly still drag and drag.

So sweet. My family likes you a lot too.

I'm listening to another mystery now and trying to write at the same time. If this doesn't make sense that's my excuse.

Hope that you don't have to fly this weekend again and that it's nice next Saturday.

Is Sack's (was that his name?) girlfriend going to call me? What's her name anyway?
