Dear Service Members:

Your package just arrived and I thank you very much for your kindness. It is an extreme pleasure to see any address in Southern New England and from is just a stones throw from my home town of Fall River.

I went to London on footpath and saw many historical sites. Some of them are Buckingham Palace, Westminster Abbey, House of Parliament, 10 Downing St., Big Ben, and St. Pauls Cathedral.

Big Ben is peeling forth on the radio just now. Every hour it does its duty. The play "This Is The Army" is playing in London now. It is the same cast and everything is the same as in the States except a few members have been added. The papers in this country are raving about this play. The King and Queen attended one of the performances and the papers showed them congratulating Irving Berlin on such a splendid production.

Thanksgiving is just around the corner and all of us have much to be thankful for this year.

Sincerely,
 Meyer
