PHI SIGMA NU AND SIGMA IOTA CHI TAKE AWARDS AT STUNT NIGHT

Despite the inclement weather an audience of approximately 650 applauded the efforts of the Bryant-Stratton Fraternities and Sororities last Friday night at the Plantations auditorium.

Phi Sigma Nu with its clever presentation of "Nertz" was the winner of the cup awarded the Fraternities while Sigma Iota Chi with its presentation of "One Arabian Night" a play that must have taken a great deal of time and thought won the cup awarded the sororities. The picking of the winners was very hard for the judges as each fraternity and sorority put on an exceedingly good stunt and the committee deserves plenty of praise.

The committee in charge was Pauline Chase, Sydney Hedrich, Evelyn Burr, Horace Smith, Stanley Bamforth, Ruth Liverant, Philip Bush and Audrey Whitman.

The judges were John L. Allen, E. Gardner Jacobs, G. A. Richards, Edna Bvram, Hannie Pierce and Mrs. G. Lamoureux.

HEAR YE! HEAR YE!

Two new members have been added to our faculty—both to be connected with Secretarial Department. We are glad to greet them, and hope they will feel at home. Miss Gladys Standly is to replace Miss Elizabeth Sherman, and Miss Eleanor Brewin to take the place of Miss Mary Marshall.

Miss Standly is a native of Beverly, Massachusetts, and attended Salem Normal School, after which, she taught in Troy, New York, and then in New York City.

Miss Brewin comes from "The Bean Town" and attended the college of Practical Arts and Letters at Boston University, after which, she taught in Boston.

Advice From Henry Lee

As Interpreted
By JERRY FORMAN

If in class you're dull and slow,
Study.

If exams are causing woe,
Study.

For if here your marks are low,
When you die, the place you'll go
Will be very warm, I know,
So study.

If your life is sad and blue,
Study.

If your uncle gets the "Flu"
Study.

If you cannot find your shoe,
Or your sweetheart isn't true,
There's but one thing you can do,—
Study.

If it's bright you wish to look,
Study.

If you want to learn to cook,
Study.

If you're in a lonely nook
When assaulted by a crook,
Nonchalantly take a book,
And study.

When you've sinned you should atone,
Study.

When the bill collectors phone,
Study.

When you're with your girl, alone,
On the sofa in her home,—
Take a textbook that you own,
And study (?)

When you're weak and need repose,
Study.

When your creditors foreclose,
Study.

EVENING STUDENTS DANCE AT FROEBEL HALL

Tuesday night, December 19, the students of the various departments of the Evening Division had their Christmas party and dance.

With strains of soft music, the cares and studies of a strenuous semester were forgotten as the party got under way.

The dance was voted one of the most successful staged by the school, and will go down in the class files as another successful Bryant-Stratton activity.

The members of the dance committee were John Heflin, John Pendlebury and Eileen Sullivan.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Bryant-Stratton News Staff announces four new appointments made during the past month. James Coogan and "Red" Wilson are our new Freshman B. A. reporters. Joseph Wolstencroft and Nils Carlson have taken over the advertising replacing Boris Srogi and Bernard Hebb. The News takes this opportunity to express its thanks to Messrs. Srogi and Hebb and looks forward to able assistance from those ambitious lads, Coogan, Wilson, Wolstencroft, and Carlson.

EDITORIAL

The merry bustling season of Christmas is with us again, with pleasant thoughts of happy homecomings, skating, surprises, and New Years celebration. 1933 hasn't been such a bad year for most of us. It has brought us new friendships, a thorough knowledge of many subjects, and a host of banner social affairs. May we all enjoy the jolly Yuletide, and come back next year with stout resolutions to make the honor roll, attend every class, support the basketball team, appear at every college function, and make 1934 the brightest, happiest, most successful year in our school life.

The Bryant-Stratton News extends its heartiest Season Greetings to the Students, Faculty, and Administration Department.

THAT'LL BE THE DAY:

When Peg Barrett stops cutting-up in class.

When Mr. Russell stops keeping a certain group after school.

When Mr. Canty fails to give us an assignment in Mathematics.

When the students follow Dean Stickney's advice about starting for school ten minutes earlier.

When "Dot" Kelleher learns that little girls should be seen but not heard.

When the missing pens, rulers, and erasers are returned to their rightful owners. (Ruth Couch, please note.—We're waiting.)

When Mr. Naylor comes late for economics class.

When Ruth Abrams makes a mistake in class.

When Mr. Handy loses his temper again as he did on that memorable day three weeks ago!

When Winnie Myers forgets to ask questions in every class.

When Mr. Gulski "goes sarcastic" as he has so often promised (or threatened) to do.

When we will all enjoy getting out our penmanship lesson.

WHEN 8 D HAS A DECENT WRITE-UP!!!

Advice From Henry Lee

When you're ambushed by your foes,
 And they shower you with blows,
 Just politely thumb your nose,
 And study.

Now take heed to what I tell,—
 Study!

If you're keen on staying well,—
 Study!

And unless you wish to dwell
 In a hot and fiendish cell
 Down the fiery haunts of Hell!—
 Study!!

"Lowdown"

Greetings Everybody! This is the Lowdown speaking. Fred Stone has driven down to Riverview three times this week from Attleboro! Why? Ask "Peg" she should know.—Frank Mazura seems very anxious to meet the new teacher! Why doesn't someone help him out?—"Kay Hanley" is quite a girl! Mr. Jacobs calls it an Honor to help her eat ice cream!—I have been informed that Barbara King is an alias! Is this right?—"Gil" Weller was seen recently, teaching spelling to "Phil" Maroney!—Two of our vivacious co-eds have reminiscences of a certain phrase! "GET OUT"!! Do you remember?—Evelyn Vigeant is being accused of keeping our Paul out late nights! Toh! Toh! Is our captain in love? ATTENTION! "OPEN EYE" and Members of the Occult Klan! Mr. Canty is not married and that was not his wife at our recent dances!—Mr. Naylor is absent from most of our dances because he likes to sleep nights! He is not "girl shy"! Maybe he is sick of looking at them!!—Mr. Lee compares himself with "Little Bo Peep"! Does that mean we are "his" sheep??—"Peg" and "Phil" are on the outs again! "Peg" didn't see the "Point"—Space is limited so until the next issue "Merry Christmas".

 Notes

To the public we have nothing definite to report as yet.

The committee for the January formal has been chosen, and the members are as follows: Kay Hanley, chairman, Wanda Sadowski, Tillie Vine, Stella Slyofski, are the other members. Plan are being formed for the affair, which will be held in town, at a place as yet undecided upon. There will be an announcement of it when the time comes, and we hope to have a jolly time.

Gabbing About At Bryant Hall

We've two new inmates—and members of the faculty at that! Great scouts, they are—and here's a few personal notes about them: they both need a secretary, both are card sharks, would like the dorm moved a little nearer the school (lazy creatures!), would like some lamps, overdrapes, and above all some heat. And last, but not least, is there anybody going to Boston fairly regularly over week-ends who would like two young ladies to hold down a back seat? Now I ask you, who could resist that appeal?

You didn't know we had two nurses in the dorm, did you? Virginia and Pauline seem to be acquiring an education on how to soothe and cool the feverish brow, as well as how to make "pothooks" and pound a typewriter. Lord knows they're getting enough practice in both!

An epidemic of colds has invaded us—and how we sniffle! Sounds like an anvil chorus!

The Xmas spirit is upon us—next Thursday nite there is to be an Xmas party—and it is rumored that Estelle Garrett is to play the part of Santa Claus. Imagine that Mae West personality, with a long white beard, flowing in the wind!!

Well, it has been proven that they don't "do everything on the floor in Maine". Yours truly went to Maine with the purpose of verifying that statement which was made by a "Mainiac" not long ago—and found that things are done in the same manner as in Providence—and with just as pleasing tactics. Why don't you go up to Maine sometime, its great for the—er—health!!

There's too much bustle and bustle to write anything else—wait till after Xmas when we shall reveal what certain individuals did on vacation when they were supposed to have been true to "reople" in Providence!!! Oyez, Oyez!!

FRATERNITY and SORORITY NOTES

TAU EPSILON

On Friday evening, January 12, Beta Sigma Chapter, Tau Epsilon Fraternity, will hold its first annual convention. Plans are under way for an unusual and diverting program, and it is expected that the affair will be most pleasant for all who attend. Former members from far and near have promised to be on hand. John F. Foley, past-president of Beta Sigma Chapter, all the way from Arizona, will act as toastmaster following the banquet.

Plans are also under way for Tau Epsilon's first formal affair of the season. Perhaps it is a bit early to comment on this matter, but in the spirit of true optimism we go on record as saying that it will be THE affair of the season. The tentative date is Friday evening, February, when those mid-year exams will be behind us.

From all reports Paul Curry has refrained from all proposals to "ye faire ladies" since initiation time. And when he had made such a smash hit, too! Ask Lucile?

BETA SIGMA GAMMA

The Jewish Girls of Bryant-Stratton College are happy to announce that they are officially organized into a sorority known as the Beta Sigma Gamma. This Sorority was organized November 6, 1933, at the Jewish Community Center, where the pledges recently took their ritual.

The officers were elected as follows: President—Dorothy Richmond; Secretary—Evelyn Rich; Treasurer—Evelyn Adler.

It was decided that all meetings be held at the College every other Monday. Mr. Sydney S. Hedrich is the official advisor of the Sorority.

The members of the Sorority consist of: Tillie Vine, Ruth Liverant, Evelyn Weinstein, Ruth Molasky, and Lillian Hershkovitz.

BETA SIGMA CHI

Beta Sigma Chi Fraternity completed the initiation of new pledges on the evening of December 7, at the home of Mr. R. Lucien Appleby. The following men became members: Wallace Brahmer, Charles G. Munson, Guy H. Dewey Jr., Earle Graham, Joseph E. Chiwalek, Charles S. Luniewicz, Murray Hutchinson, Arthur J. Cadorette, and Donald Patterson.

After the ceremony, a short meeting was held where officers for the coming year were elected. They were as follows: President—Karl Miller, Vice-President—Phil Bush, Secretary—Wallace Brahmer, Treasurer—Charles G. Munson.

A smoker with refreshments was held following the meeting. The Faculty members attending besides the host, were Mr. Lee, and Mr. Gulski.

PHI SIGMA NU

On Wednesday evening, November 22, Iota Chapter held an informal dinner dance at Chin Lees' Restaurant. The honorary members, Mr. Vinal and Mr. Handy were present and reported a very enjoyable evening. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Allan and Mr. and Mrs. Richards.

The Phi Sigma Nu Tigers are still on their way to the top and it is expected that they will annex first place before very long.

Although it has been known by a few persons around the school, Iota Chapter takes great pleasure in announcing the marriage of their Past-President, William Skoneski to Miss Elizabeth Sherman.

The Phi Sigma Nu banner has been misplaced. Information as to the whereabouts of said banner will be greatly appreciated. NO QUESTIONS ASKED.

The third and last degree is to be conferred upon the pledges on Thursday evening, December 21.

Frank Mazura returned from Thanksgiving vacation, spent at Greenfield, looking rather pale, but filled with new energy. Had a good time, hey, Frank?

Gil Weller is missing a great many good times, because of having to stay home to take care of the baby. Don't misunderstand me, it's his brother's.

Stan Bamforth, of the Three Musketeers, is off on his own, now that the other two are working. Bill in the role of iceman, and Gil as a nursemaid.

FRESHMEN B. A.

Some class to "Hebie" Gulliver dining at the OLD FRANCE with that Pembroke Student.

The freshies have adopted as their favorite song, "Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolfenden!"

Not mentioning any names Cadorette, but why the loudness?

Murry Hutchinson is still monopolizing the feminine quarters of the Freshie B. A.

Wonder if Dewey and Mr. Handy will ever agree on anything?

The draft in 4th period Math. is always caused by much loud talking by Bill Hakeem.

We're wondering what attracts Miss Hefferty to the eight floor so much. Maybe it's the Romeo who calls for her every day at 3 o'clock.

We notice that Perroni spends lots of time on the eighth floor. Maybe it's a Perroni-Maroney affair.

Ask Joe Chwalek why he doesn't give the rest of the fellows a knock down to Cecelia.

All the freshmen in 8A are complaining about Bill Pavlicek's baloney on rye sandwiches.

What makes Hearn giggle so much in Economics?

Bowling Race Tightens

With the bowlers on each team showing marked improvement as the league battles goes merrily on, the Seniors perched on top on the heap as we go to press, with the Phi Sigma Nu Tigers a close second and Tau Epsilon in their heels.

The contests this year are the hottest in years and each team is fighting tooth and nail for each point.

Tau Epsilon, leading team for two weeks, was severely jolted by the fast Senior outfit pushing them into third place.

The Freshies, the meantime were administering a sound lacing to the bolstered "Schoolmarms", who despite the record breaking three strings of the Prodigal Son Gardner Jacobs were forced to bow their heads.

Phi Sigma Nu, plodding ahead have surprised even themselves and should make the Senior fur fly when the two teams meet.

Beta Sigma Chi seems to be about to set up a new record of not winning a point. But they are to be complimented in their determination and fine sportmanship.

Tue to our promise we have after much deliberation and figuring picked the winner of the league. As you know it takes a good statistician and what not to be able to pick a winner so far in advance. However, having studied the merits of all the teams we pick the Freshmen to win the cup.

Capt. Thomas, of the Freshies has turned out to be a hard man to beat. He is hitting over 300 consistently and is a sure shot on single pins.

Curry of Tau Epsilon is a peculiar bowler. He will bowl at noon recess and nonchalantly hit 110 then fall down to 70 in a match.

Prof. Lee has developed a new system of bowling. Try it. He stands on his left leg, throws the ball, at the same time crossing his legs at the knee and eventually landing on both feet.

8B Highlights

Another romance is going on up here in 8-D. The two turtle doves are cute little Dottie Sloan and our good-looking President Walter Grant. My, my, Dottie sure makes the hearts of the opposite sex beat fast.

Ollie Trainor was all smiles the other morning. The reason "Charlie's home".

We want to know what has happened to the great romance between "Iggy" Hebb, and "Jake" Winslow. Their "hello" is simply covered with ICE!

Evelyn Vigent sure is in love this time, boys, she even forgets to do her homework now.

Is Kay Malone all flustered, the reason, her little Sweetie comes home this coming Saturday. You should see him girls, he's darling.

"Sunshine" Hicks was seen making those "come hither" looks at Earl Midwood. Watch out, Pete.

Wanted: A number of good looking boys; must be good dancers. Apply to "Pat".

SENIOR NOTES

We start off by being serious. Isn't it about time that the Senior Class of July had a little activity in the social line? The year is fast slipping by, and we have yet to hold an affair of any kind. It seems as if the class could hold a dance and serve a buffet lunch, or something of the kind without depleting too greatly the finances of the respective members. How about, officers? We promise you plenty of publicity on any affair that you may sponsor.

We have recently discovered that H. J. O'Neil is not the innocent young man with the opposite sex. He is reported, on good authority, to be quite a man with the opposite sex. Was you dere, Herbie?

Did you know that Karl Miller doesn't visit Attleboro any more, because a certain Miss Lynch just hates to go home (even at 3:30 A. M.)? And pay-as-you-drive cars don't help the bankroll, under such conditions.

It is rumored that Asst.—Dean Farrington and Olga have renewed a romance of long standing.

Frank, Jack, and Bud's most recent distillation was a bit too potent for even the most agile stomachs. Better revise the recipe, boys!

My favorite persons: Don McIntyre, for his becoming eccentricity.

Asst.—Dean Farrington, for his Vermontese twang when speaking.

George Richards, for his gift of gab and ready answer.

Varsity Loses To Providence College

In a hard fought game, which kept the enthusiastic capacity audience at a high pitch of excitement throughout the four periods, Bryant-Stratton College Varsity lost to the Friars by a 42-29 margin.

Bryant-Stratton was leading at the half by a small margin, but the lack of sufficient reserve power to cope with the large Friar Squad proved to be their downfall, for on losing Captain Has'ehurst by the foul route and Duckworth by a knee injury, the Indians were forced to retreat and the Friars to pile up points.

Haslehurst was a tower of strength on the defense and Duckworth led in scoring with 12 points. Kennedy and Wright gave the Friars plenty of trouble breaking up many plays. Swanson played a hard steady game.

For the Friars, Jack Smith and Captain Hagstrom starred.
