Dear Member,

It seems that every letter you write reaches me at a different address. I just received my copy of all the going on at Ye Alte Alma Mater and although it was mailed to me on the 5th of Dec. it reached me today–somewhere in England. You can readily see from that one fact how much I have traveled and how far I keep moving. It is indeed a long way to the old country and throw it across the Atlantic from here but the distance seemed to be nothing after the first few sentences of the letter. All the news seemed quite encouraging and in your letter. All the news seemed quite encouraging and yet worse your hope that we can really have some real old reunions are another line which I hope will not be able to get together–thanks to so many of your friends and my friends who are making this possible.

Unless you thought the package was wrapped in advanced way I doubt it very much whether it ever stands out in the coustom room. I hope getting here. However, you know that it does and regardless of sending my deepest appreciation for your thoughtfulness and consideration in sending it.

An appreciation alumnus,

[Signature]