Dear Member,

It seems that every letter you write reaches me at a different address, so just received my copy of all the going-on at Ye Alder Alma Mater, and although it was mailed to me on the 1st Dec. to Texas, it reached me today—somewhere in England. You can readily see from that one fact how much I have traveled and how far I keep moving. It is indeed a long way in this plane of existence from here to Providence from here, but the distance seems quite encouraging and your letter. All the news is quite interesting and after the few sentences to the end, I am able to get together—thanks to so many of your friends and my friends who are making this possible.

Unless your thoughtful package was wrapped in advance, I doubt very much whether it will arrive in the circumstances. Start looking here. Now I am hoping that it does, and regardless, am sending my deepest appreciation for your thoughtfulness and consideration in sending it.

An appreciative alumnus,
