

January 24, 1942

Bryant College Service Club:

It seemed so nice to receive a letter from you. I cannot say where I am but this stationery will be of some help. Time here passes very quickly as there is always something to do. I cannot talk about the weather but flowers are still in bloom.

Please wish everyone a "Happy New Year" for me.

Sincerely,
Arnold Hallem