Honors Faculty Research Talks

Cathy Zheng Ph.D.

Discovering Your Research Interests: CSR/ESG, Green Bonds, and Beyond

Join us for an exploration into the process of finding your research interests. In this session, we will discuss practical strategies and share personal anecdotes to help you discover the topics that align with your intellectual curiosity. Whether you're just beginning your research journey or navigating the vast landscape of academia, this talk aims to inspire and equip you to start on a rewarding research path.

Tuesday, April 2nd

4:00 PM - 5:00 PM

AIC Forum

This event is the third and final option of the second semester for First and Second Year Honors Students to fulfill their research talk requirements.

Raising Standards of Excellence and Scholarship

This event is open to the Bryant community & sponsored by the Bryant University Honors Program & the Office of the Provost
