

September 23, 1844

Dear Bryant,

After quite a few delays your package finally arrived here. It was quite a pleasure, naturally, to find that the Collage still remembered!

When you sent that muffler I was still en route so the address was still the same as back in the States where I could have used it to good advantage. You will undoubtedly agree with me as to the humor of receiving a heavy wool muffler here in the blazing heat in India.

Nevertheless, it is not so much the gift as the urge behind it that makes it so welcome to me; I'm really very very pleased!!

Sincerely,
Bob Bernstein

P.S. Regards to all the alumni and staff.