Dear Chairman:

I haven't written very much lately but there has been a change in my duties and my address. As you will notice I am writing from Cambridge, Mass, the home of Harvard University which is the place I am attending. We start classes the 13th of this month and then it will be a rushed or rather a very much accelerated affair for three months and then, seven enjoyable days for a furlough. I am about to undertake and pursue a course in basic engineering, which will be a great deal different from the type and nature of the work I had formerly been doing. We now have the opportunity to enjoy Boston and its recreational facilities for a week and tomorrow we are looking forward to seeing the Red Sox play the Yanks at Fenway park tomorrow afternoon. I am wondering if there was a chance to obtain a copy of the 1942-43 yearbook as I would like to have one for my own?

Yours sincerely,
