Latest Commencement Releases

Administration Reports That High United States Government Official to Speak

Governor Pastore to Be Chairman at Commencement Exercises

On August 9, Bryant College's 83rd Commencement Exercises will be held in the Auditorium of the Rhode Island School of Design.

His Excellency John O. Pastore, Governor of the State of Rhode Island and Chairman of Bryant's Commencement Program will get the program under way at 10:15 a. m.

Robert Gray and his orchestra have been selected to render professional music.

After the exercises, a luncheon in honor of the distinguished guests will be given by Dr. and Mrs. Jacobs at the Biltmore Hotel.

Seniors Note: Graduates are to assemble with caps and gowns at the stage door of the Rhode Island School of Design at 9 a. m. (The School of Design is located at Market Square and the stage door is near the side street which runs off North Main.) The Academic Procession will start promptly at 9:45.

Prom Committee Named

It has been announced that Philip Watson of Washington, R. I. is to be chairman of the Commencement Prom Committee. Watson will be assisted by Mary Rabbott, Henry DeAngelis, Ana Pino, Marilyn LaFrance, Benny David, Mildred Moore, Ray Gorman, Dorothy Gordon, Mitchell Solomon, Vivian Thurston, and Edward Caspar.

The Committee has announced that the Prom is to be held August 9 at the Biltmore Hotel. Music for this long awaited occasion will be furnished by Tommie Masso and his orchestra.

It is our relation to circumstances that determines their influence over us. The same wind that carries one vessel into port may blow another off shore.

Dean Hayes to Leave

Dean of Ex-Service Students, L. Newton Hayes, has been named Dean of Admissions of the Associated Colleges of Upper New York, which will operate the Sampson Naval Base at Geneva as a state-sponsored veterans' university.

The governing body of the Sampson project is made up of a board of presidents from ten New York institutions of higher learning. Represented are Clarkson, Colgate, Cornell, Hamilton, Hobart, Rensselaer, Polytechnic Institute, University of Rochester, St. Lawrence, Syracuse, and Union.

Dean Hayes was born in Soochow, China, a son of Dr. John Newton Hayes, who had gone to China to do literary work. Young Hayes studied in preparatory school and college in this country. In 1907, while he was taking post-graduate work at Princeton, he was offered an opportunity to return to China for a year as tutor to the four grandsons of the late Prime Minister, Li Hung Chang. He accepted.

The Chang family was widely considered to be fabulously rich, the wealthiest in China.

As tutor, Mr. Hayes spent six months in Peking and six in Nanking. When the year was up, Mr. Hayes decided to stay in China. He became Headmaster of a boys' school at Tientsin for three years, and then accepted a position as general secretary to organize a Y.M.C.A. in Nanking.

When Nanking was besieged by the revolutionists in October, 1911, Mr. Hayes offered himself as assistant to Dr. W. E. Macklin, physician in charge of the only hospital in the vicinity. Mr. Hayes and Dr. Macklin were later decorated for their work by the Chinese government.

While in China, Mr. Hayes visited 32 cities acting as traveling secretary for the Chinese National Y.M.C.A.

Among Mr. Hayes' accomplishments is a book written about the Great Wall of China.

Dr. Powers to Teach At Bryant

President Harry L. Jacobs announces the appointment of Dr. Charles E. Powers of Springfield, Massachusetts, as a member of the faculty of the School of Business Administration.

Dr. Powers will teach senior Accounting, including Federal Taxes and Cost Accounting.

Dr. Powers graduated from Dartmouth College in 1912 and was awarded an A.B. Degree. He received a Master of Arts Degree from Columbia Teachers College in 1931, and a Doctor of Commercial Science from American International College in 1933.

Dr. Powers has been the head of the School of Business Administration of the American International College from 1933 through the present scholastic year and comes to Bryant with a broad educational background and fine teaching experience in all phases of the business administration work. He will join our faculty on the opening of the College year starting September 9, 1946.

ATTEND ST. LOUIS CONVENTION

Sigma Iota Chi girls from all parts of the United States gathered in St. Louis for their national convention, the first convention since before the war.

Beta Theta Chapter of Bryant was represented by Victorine Healy, Shirley Martin, and Claire Messinger. At the formal dinner dance held at the De Soto Hotel in St. Louis. Claire Messinger accepted the award for Beta Theta girls for the improvement in their chapter during the past year. Beta Theta also received honorable mention for the scholastic standing of its girls.

All those attending the convention went aboard the Steamer Admiral for a moonlight excursion down the Mississippi. The Admiral, an all-steel structure, has five huge decks, two of which comprise a beautiful ballroom. Hal Mavird and his 14-piece orchestra furnished the music.

On Sunday evening, the last night of the convention, the girls attended the Municipal Opera at

Doctor Hanley To Speak

Robert Birt Class Day Chairman

Dr. James Lawrence Hanley, one of the foremost educators in Rhode Island, is to be the guest speaker at this year's Class Day Exercises to be held on August 8. Dr. Hanley, superintendent of Providence Public Schools, holds an honorary degree from Bryant.

Robert Birt, an Accountancy and Finance major, is to be the man behind the gavel; the chairmanship being in his hands. Student speakers will be Joan Todd, of the Business Administration group, Mildred Valenta, of the Secretarial group, Edmund J. Clegg, a student in the Division of Accountancy and Finance and Jennie Drosos, the Executive Secretarial Division.

The benediction will be rendered by Reverend Thomas J. Kelly, familiar church figure to the Bryant chapter of the Newman Club. Father Kelly is Assistant Pastor of St. Joseph's Church.

To lend harmony to the day's procession and exercises Bryant has once again engaged the services of Robert Gray and his orchestra. In the past Mr. Gray has usually played for commencement exercises but this will mark the second time he has ever played for Bryant's Class Day Exercises.

An unprecedented feature of this year's Class Day will be the presentation of all special awards during the assembly exercises. Previously, such awards have been carried over to Commencement.

Seniors note: The procession will leave South Hall at 10 o'clock and exercises will start in the Auditorium at 10:15 a. m.

The Class picture is to be taken on the front steps of South Hall immediately following the exercises in the auditorium. Those of you who desire to be in the picture be sure and assemble there promptly.

A buffet lunch will be served under the Maples to you, your family, and guests, after the assembly.

CONGRATULATIONS AND THANKS

As we near the end of another school year, we wish to extend our congratulations to the individuals who have by their efforts gained high scholastic achievements and to those individuals and groups who have participated in the promotion of Bryant's worthy extra curricular activities. Thanks are extended to the Administration for its most worthy efforts in the promotion of higher learning, to the many Professors who have done a splendid job in conveying priceless information, to the Glee Clubs and the Orchestra who under the able guidance of Professor Ralph S. Handy presented a most enjoyable Spring Festival, to Jennie Drosd and the Masquers for their fine presentation of "Here Comes Charlie," to Felix Amoroso for the organization of the Fraternity of Phi Kappa Tau, to Jerome Goldberg for his reorganization of Sigma Lambda Pi, to Miles Boothe for his donation of time, advice, and energy while serving as Chairman of the highly successful Greek Letter Formal, to Eileen Kingsley who has broken all records for the sale of tickets to social functions, to Eileen Moynihan for her many artistic contributions, to Mr. Dickerman and Nick Pintavalli for the promotion of sports, to Robert Birt for his able leadership of a student representative Student Council, to Vivian Thurston, Bernadine McCrudden, Lorraine Lemay, Rose Buschynski, Constance Lecznar, Patricia Saunders, Craig Edgar, and Louis Schiefler for their fine vocal offerings, to Joseph Roddy for his work in initiating the Student Fund, to the Newman Club for sponsoring many informative lec-

CHINESE STUDENTS

University students in huge, backward, illiterate China with its population of 450,000,000 persons, number 73,000 in 108 colleges and universities (an all-time high), and high school students total 1,100,000. In the United States in a population of 140,000,000 there are over 1,000,000 university students in 1200 colleges and universities, and nearly 20,000,000 high school students.

Nine-tenths of the colleges and universities in China have been in evacuation since the outbreak of war in 1937. The students in the luckier countries have been helping them in these years and continue to do so as they move back gradually to their permanent campuses, where great destruction has been wrought. This return will be delayed until 30,000,000 war-dislocated Chinese are relocated in their former localities. Director General F. H. LaGuardia of UNRRA estimated on April 15th that more than 30,000,000 men, women and children in nineteen provinces in China are at the point of starvation, and that several millions in Hunan Province are reduced to eating grass, roots, and even clay.

ST. LOUIS CONVENTION

Forest Park where "The Desert Song" was playing. With the wonderful music of Sigmund Romberg, and an excellent performance of the cast, the evening proved to be a memorable one.

During the various meetings, chapter reports were given, national sorority and fraternity problems were discussed, and the election of officers for the ensuing year was held. Mrs. Robert Clifford, formerly a member of Beta Theta Chapter, and a graduate of Bryant College, was installed Grand Worthy Secretary.

"Meet Me in St. Louis" will long bring back wonderful memories to the Sigma girls who attended the convention.

TOOTHsome BIT OF INFORMATION

The mistress had given the nursery-maid notice to leave.

"So I'm a flirt, am I?" said the nurse indignantly.

"You are—and more," answered the mistress.

"Well," replied the girl, "I just think you are jealous because I am better looking than you are—your husband told me so; And what's more, I can kiss better than you. Like to know who told me that?"

"Don't you dare to suggest that it was my husband!" stormed the mistress.

"I'm not suggesting anything," laughed the maid, "but if you must know, it was your dentist!"

tures, to the various Sororities and Fraternities for the promotion of many successful social affairs, to George Barlow for his efforts to organize Bryant's Golf Team, to Mr. L. Newton Hayes for his valuable guidance of veterans, to former editors Robert Dutton and Joseph Worth, Jr. and to the entire staff of the ARCHWAY for its worthy efforts.

Editor

Wielgus Assumes Editorship

Cleveland Becomes Co-Editor

The reigns of the ARCHWAY have been placed into the hands of former Co-Editor Charles J. Wielgus of Thompsonville, Conn.

Mr. Wielgus, Class of '47, gained most of his newspaper experience while with "The Enfield High Echo" in Enfield, Connecticut; "The Washroom Gazette" of the Division of Finance at Wake Forest College in Wake Forest, North Carolina; "The Lariat" at Baylor University; "The LaMarque Weekly" of LaMarque, Texas; and as club correspondent of "The Thompsonville Press."

Here at Bryant Mr. Wielgus is a member of the Business Administration Division, the treasurer of the Student Council, a member of the Greek Letter Council, a member of the Newman Club, and the President of the Fraternity of Beta Sigma Chi.

Riding along on the buckboard as co-editor is Arnold S. Cleveland.

Mr. Cleveland, class of '47, hails from Manchester, Connecticut, where he was first busted in with the High School World lariat dangle dangle participles and the like. While in the Service his moderate beginning in the newspaper world barely missed oblivion when he assumed editorship of "The Flying-Seabee Seance," a weekly originating on Guam and never reaching further than the squadron limits.

At Bryant, Mr. Cleveland is an enrollee in the Business Administration Division, a member of Tau Epsilon Fraternity, and a member of the Key Society.

Farewell Underclassmen!

This time last year we felt as you no doubt do—that vacation time would never arrive, that teachers take immense pleasure in handing out lengthy assignments that must be done or else, and that each day is just one more to endure until that last bell will ring, signaling the end of classes for a while.

To those who are about to graduate each day is released sadly. Although we anxiously await Commencement, we nevertheless realize that a very poignant chapter in our lives is nearing its close. Friends who have lived, worked, and played together may soon be parting never to meet again. No more cuts, no more cokes in the cafes, no more cigarettes between classes under the Archway, no more last minute cramming, no more french fries at Carroll's, no more dances in the gym, no more of those things which are so dear to Bryant students. Soon it will all be but a pleasant and lasting memory.

So, on behalf of my fellow graduates, let me admonish those of you who will be returning in September to treasure every day and every minute of every day, for only too soon you too will be nearing the goal—excited and proud, yet reminiscent and sad.

DECEPTION

Don't be fooled as others are
 A glitter may not mean a star
 A glimpse of a room all shir within Makes one wish that he could in.

It may have a lock to fasten

 But it's there to lead you on all more.

You shout and scream, and l
 on the door;
 Keep going, you fool, do it s
 more.

Now young man, you're get smart
 You're going to pry the lock a Keep working and toiling, that is a must,
 You can't give up in utter disg

You're tired out, admit defeat
 When the lock rolls off, and at your feet.

Pick it up and cast it from y hand
 You now can go in to your pr ised land.

Stop, young man, and linger v me
 And tell me of all the glory y see.

"Why ancient riches, and sc
 I'll find.
 With gold, and beauty the w
 will be lined."
 How foolish he was to take t

TO A FRIEND

You entered my life in a cas way

And saw at a glance what I need
 There were others who passed or met me each day
 But never a one of them heed
 Perhaps you were thinking other folks more
 Or chance simply seemed to dec
 it.

I know there were other s chances before
 But the others—well they di
 see it.

You said just the things tha wished you would say
 And you made me believe that meant it.

I held up my head in the old lant way
 And resolved that you sho never repent it.

There are times when encoura
 ment means such a lot
 And a word is enough to convey
 There were others that could h easy as not
 But just the same they di say it.

There may have been some who could have done more
 To help me along though I doubt
 What I needed was cheering :
 always before

They had let me plod onward wi out it.

You helped me to refreshen
 hope in my heart,
 And made me turn eagerly to
 There were others who might ha
 I question that part
 For after all they didn't do it.

Around the Campus

Beta Iota Beta

The Beta Iota Beta Fraternity continued its policy of sponsoring interesting and varied activities for its members by holding a bowling contest this month at the East Providence Bowling Academy. This activity will be continued not only as a social function but also as a preliminary training for the team to be entered in the school league in the Fall.

Under the sponsorship of BIB, a drawing for six pairs of nylon stockings was held between the acts of the excellently presented play, "Here Comes Charlie." The winners were: Miss Owanski, Mrs. Smith, and E. Goldenberg.

Sigma Iota Beta

The monthly meeting of Sigma was held at the Biltmore Hotel at which plans were made for coming events.

The sorority held a swimming party at Lake Mischnack. A large attendance helped to make a gala time for all. Alice Bourne and Eleanor Billoni were in charge of refreshments.

After a swim, Barbara Denardo and Molly Pezza showed that they would make excellent sailors by the way they handled the row-boats.

An award should be given to Eileen Moynihan and Phyllis O'Rourke for being the Roller Skating Champions. They actually stopped the show by performing excellent stunts.

The members of Sigma Iota Beta extend their thanks to those of their fold who are leaving in August. Their cooperation and spirit has been greatly appreciated.

Beta Sigma Chi

Highlighting Beta's activity list this month was an outing which was held at Lincoln Woods. Refreshments and swimming were enjoyed by all. John Colwell and John Glaze were in charge of arrangements.

Beta had the misfortune of losing Joseph Worth, Jr. of Groton, Connecticut. Before leaving Bryant to accept a position as Production Controller, Mr. Worth was the Editor-in-Chief of the ARCHWAY.

The fraternity, through George Barlow, is active in forming a Bryant College Golf Team. The team will be in full swing in September.

Beta's softball team has entered the tournament. The team is under the management of Mike Dwyer.

Sigma Lambda Theta

The balminess of Saturday evening, June 8, may have been interrupted by several terrific thunder-showers, but the girls of Sigma Lambda Theta along with several other dorm students and their escorts "had a wonderful time" at the Sigma Lambda semi-formal dance at the Cooke Street Mansion. Music was provided by Al Williams' orchestra with the sorority members of Stowell House lending

THE GRAPEVINE

Avis Schwartz and Shirley Shuster have become particular now that the hot weather is here. Instead of spending their free periods in just any car, they now insist on a convertible.

Soon we will know who Bryant's champion card player is. It'll be either Ann Almonte, Pat Flood, Eileen Bonner, Barbara Hargraves, or Beatrice Hurt. Rummy has given them their practice.

Tom, why is it that you're called Can't-break-a-date-Healy? Incidentally, how was the circus?

No, those aren't Indians you see flitting around the campus, they are gals who spend their leisure time in Bryant Hall's back yard or Lincoln Woods.

These rendezvous that Jean Murray and Miss Donnelly have at campus bench number X with their good looking friends are becoming more frequent.

Bryant girls have unofficially proclaimed Frank Merola "Dance King."

Pat Zinno and Ernie Ross are asked if they fell asleep in the barber's chair.

Bernard Vezina, William Bento and Frank Zorra have, to the pleasure of many a lass, broken out of a once believed unbreakable shell.

"Little Flower" Barsalou once again heads the list of Public Speakers.

After looking at the notice posted on the bulletin board (that is the one pertaining to vacant rooms at 276 George) the question is asked, "Is it a co-educational residence?"

The Greek Letter Dance brought forth the following conclusions: Bob Smith is a jitterbug; eight out of ten Bryant students like to have their pictures taken, three out of five people come to a dance at about ten o'clock, the fraternities and sororities are displaying proud of their banners, and that a good time was had by all.

A Bryant Hall lass wishes to know why Beefstew is so popular among the "Beta" boys.

John McGuigan, John Sullivan and Professor Kenza were those very helpful males who assisted the weaker sex in carrying those heavy trays at the Spring Festival Concert.

SMILE AWHILE

"I wish to marry your daughter, sir."

"Do you drink, young man?"

"Yes, thanks, but let's get this other matter cleared up first."

There once was a maid of Siam

Who said to her lover Kiam,

"If you kiss me of course

You will have to use force,

But you know you're stronger than I am."

A returned veteran got a job as a reporter on a midwestern daily. "BE Brief!" the city editor kept dinning at him. "Always be brief!" The cub sat down and wrote:

"James Gillingham looked up the shaft at the Union Hotel today to see if the elevator was coming down. It was. Age 33."

"I prescribe absolute quiet for your husband," said the doctor. "Here's a sleeping powder." "When do I give it to him?" asked the wife. "You don't give it to him," said the medico, "you take it yourself."

She was peeved and called him "Mr."

Not because he went and kr,

But because just before,

As she opened the door,

This same Mr. kr. sr.

Because of war curtailments, a man was carrying a grandfather's clock down a crowded main street to a repair shop. As the clock limited his vision, he unintentionally collided with a woman, knocking her down. After collecting her composure and packages, the woman struggled to her feet and scathingly inquired, "Why don't you carry a wrist watch like everybody else?"

Awards to Athletes

The Athletic Department of Bryant College this month presented awards to the members of the past season's victorious basketball teams.

The recipients were, Joseph Riella, Nick Pintivalli, Miles Boothe, Robert Arzooyan, Ed Hanna, Francis Sullivan, James Moynihan, and Joe Silvia of Tau Epsilon and Dottie Olter, Alice O'Day, Gloria Levine, Shirley Martin, Rose Marie Budka, Natalie Cohen, and Nancy McCarthy of Harriet Hall.

SOCIAL PATTTER

Elie Arzanowits, Del Burnham, Elie Johnson, Anna Pino, Sheila McCann, Lorraine Quagliaroli, Gloria Rigalli, and Charlotte Oleson spent the week-end at the shore. They were guests of the Olesons.

Recent Alumni visitors have been Leon Finkle, Richard DeCarolis, Ed Rosner, John Trench, Louis Stacohwitz, Donald Mullin, Donald Zarfos and his wife, the former Gloria Desousa.

Thanks to Susan Cummings and her mother who were driving to New York, Craig Edgar, Frances Sullivan, Doris Eliason and Neva Neri were able to ride home to spend an enjoyable week-end.

Sunny Onset on Cape Cod was made more pleasant by the visit of nine charming young ladies from Bryant Hall and Helen McGuigan of R. I. State. The young ladies were Eleanor Jankura, Kay Darak, Sonny Nissenbaum, Trudy Suckman, Eleanor Miller, Dottie Salamon, Lee Reservitz, Lucille Gotsell, and Irene Graham.

If the Bryant Campus becomes invaded by 28 little Indians on a July day, take a second look at the squaws, for they'll be Sigma Lambda Theta-ites just back from a week-end outing at the shore!

Phi Sigma Nu

The Fraternity of Phi Sigma Nu has entered a strong team in the Softball Tournament. The group is under the management of James P. Pestano. The players are: Joseph B. Damon, Robert Leblanc, Michael Sydoniak, Phil Watson, Joseph Mandato, Joseph Gentile, George Panasewich, Walter Brosseau, Henry P. Zinno, Anthony Famigletti, Bennie David and Al Blanchard.

An election meeting was held at the Sheratan Hotel. The arrangements were under the supervision of Henry P. Zinno who was assisted by James Sullivan, Michael Sydoniak, Arthur Cappola, and Edward Clegg.

Sigma Lambda Pi

Sigma Lambda Pi has just completed a very active month. Hats off to our Social Committee who planned a well-heralded social calendar. During the month Sigma and its sister, Beta Sigma Gamma, got together at an informal party in Gardner Hall. An evening of dancing, jokes, and singing by our crooner Mickey Stern, highlighted the merry event.

Sigma Lambda Pi held its first summer event, a novelty dance entitled the Fire-cracker Fun Festival. Tony Gregory and his orchestra provided the music for the large number of students who attended. The auditorium was lavishly decorated with red, white and blue streamers, presenting a real holiday atmosphere. The event was certainly different and fun and frolic prevailed throughout the entire evening.

Tau Epsilon

On July 17, the brothers of Tau Epsilon held a highly successful "Anticipation Dance" in the Auditorium. Arrangements for this colorful occasion were under the general chairmanship of Craig Edgar. His committees were as fol-

PRESENT CONCERT

In presenting the fine spring Festival Concert, Professor Ralph S. Handy and the musical clubs of Bryant furthered our cultural education in an enjoyable sort of way. The many long hours that were spent at rehearsals certainly were evident in the finished product.

After the concert the members of the Glee Clubs and the Orchestra presented Professor Handy with a pen and pencil set.

Program—Arthur Yelle, Chairman; Thomas Reilly and Clarence Hanna. Refreshments—Omer Brisson, Chairman; Roman Jaqiellowicz and Richard Pierce.

The Fraternity also sponsored a raffle for the prize of a Parker "51" pen. The lucky winner was announced at a public drawing on the evening of the dance. The committee which worked on the raffle consisted of George Barsalou, Chairman; Joseph Silvia and George Magan.

At the last meeting plans were made to hold a joint outing with our sister sorority, KDK, sometime in the near future.

Kappa Delta Kappa

Kappa Delta Kappa girls have been going swimming every Monday evening at the Providence Boys' Club. It's good practice, say the girls, for that week-end at the beach. KDK has formed a bowling team so that it will get a head start on that September competition.
