STUDENT COUNCIL SEEKS FOTO FANS

Photography was among the many subjects discussed at the recent Student Council meeting. During the past few terms, individuals who have been interested in photography have shown a desire to form a students' photographic organization. Thus far, nothing has materialized. The Student Council, whose interest lies with each and every student, wishes to initiate steps which would eventually bring to Bryant an active photography club. These steps will not be taken unless a number of students indicate a desire to have such an organization on the campus.

Students interested in photography and who wish to organize with others that possess a like interest are requested, by the Student Council, to drop their names into the small container that can be found tacked on the bulletin board of South Hall. Other announcements are forthcoming.

SECRETARIAL AWARDS PRESENTED

Lionel Mercier, Dean of the Secretarial Division, has announced the following students were recipients of Typewriting Awards: Roselyn Baskind, Victoria Dedrossian, Mary Cogswell, Bernice Connell, Dickey Colette, Marion Grant, Lucy Kevorkian, Myrna Marcus and Barbara Snow. ALL-COLLEGE DANCE

Friday evening, September 20, has been designated as Acquaintance-Eve. New students will have the opportunity to meet the upper-classmen of the entire college at the traditional All-College Dance. Tommy Maso and his orchestra have been engaged to fill the Bryant Auditorium with sweet music. A spokesman of the Administration has announced that in addition to dancing and refreshments in the Auditorium, there will be both dancing and refreshments in all dormitories. Identification tags will be available for everyone attending, and a reception committee composed chiefly of senior Student Council members is being formed.

A prediction has been made that this year's All-College Dance will break all attendance records.

Student Council Officers Installed

The Student Council, an organization representing the student body of Bryant, held its annual election in South Hall. President Charles J. Wielgus of Thompsonville, Connecticut succeeded Robert Birt who is now a member of the faculty. Dorothy Hill was elected Vice-president. Other officers elected and installed were: Secretary, Eileen Kingsley; Treasurer, Henry Zimmo; Recording Secretary, Jerome Goldberg.

The September term is now underway with an enrollment of more than 2,000 students, over 1,500 of which are day students.

Vice President E. Gardner Jacobs has announced that every division is completely filled and that a dual-shift class schedule is in use in an effort to satisfy some of the present generation's thirst for an education. The Administration's spokesman also stated that the college regrets not being able to accommodate well over 500 veterans who have applied for admission. He explained that Bryant is doing everything in its power to assist the veterans yet purposely not going too far so as not to endanger the usual high standards of the college.

Memorial Hall with its four modern, fluorescent-lighted classrooms was completed on schedule. The new building has an overall capacity of two hundred students. The Administration is formulating plans for an athletic field to be located directly in front of the building.

The young women's dormitories, all freshly painted, are completely filled. Young woman veterans are to reside in supervised buildings, one of which is located at 276 George (the building was formerly a dormitory for Bryant College men).

The men's housing situation is a serious one but thanks to the Bryant Housing program many students are located in approved homes, a majority of which are within a few minutes walking distance from the campus.

Ushers' Guild Formed

Miss Joy Grabfelder, Class of '47, has recently announced that an Ushers' Guild with a limited membership of twenty co-eds and five men has been formed. The members will be professionally trained and will be prepared to offer their services at all public functions sponsored by the organizations of Bryant.

Pioneer members are Joy Grabfelder, Susan Cummings, Irene Graham, Rose Marie Budka, Joan Murley, Mary Daviau, Priscilla Flood, Eleanor Jankura, Selma Rubin, Margaret O'Connell, Elaine Shapiro, Etta Haberman, Joy Randall, Mary Corey, Constance Lecznar, Ruth Woodland, Lorraine Weimann, Rose McDonald, and Alfred Duhan.

This newest of Bryant's organizations will hold its first elections in the very near future.

IT'S YOUR COUNCIL

The expression "Student Council" is of recent origin but the basic idea is centuries old. Perhaps the conception of participation in school administration did not originate with Plato, since there are references to the "Irenes," or pupil companies under the direction of the older boys, in accounts of Spartan boarding schools, but at least our first definite descriptions date from this brilliant Athenian educator.

Through the ages Student Councils in schools throughout the world have proved to be valuable assets not only to the students but also to the school administrations.

Here at Bryant, the Student Council has been an influential organization whose judgment has been respected by both the Administration and the students it has represented. But, here is a reminder to the old students and a bit of information to the new. A Student Council that receives no suggestions from the student body is as worthless as the proverbial ship without a sail.

Student Council meetings, as you know, are held monthly. Attendance is not restricted to the members of the Council alone. The doors of the meeting chambers are open to each and every student of Bryant College. It is a known fact that extracurricular activities do not ordinarily "just grow up," uninitiated, unencouraged, unguided, unsupervised, or even controlled by an institution's Administration or its student body. If you have any suggestions pertaining to "activities" do not hesitate to present them. If your suggested activity is a desirable one, a practicable one, if it will be interesting to the students, if it is within the comprehension of the group concerned, if it will encourage initiative and originality, enlarge the students' horizon, and lead to further interests, then certainly it is the kind of an idea the Council is eternally in search of.

COUNCIL REVIEWS APPLICATIONS

The Editor and Co-Editor of the Archway made the following appointments at a recent reorganization meeting: Editorial Staff, Eleanor Jankura, Barbara Bilknop, Barbara Niemiec, and Lorraine Lemay; Advertising Staff, Lorraine Atkin, and Delores Lourian; Circulation, Mary Kounas; Typewriting, Dorothy Hill and Blanche Arzoo; Cartoonist, Mike Dwyer; Exchange Editor, Breverly Bluedorn.

The names of those appointed have been submitted to the Student Council for approval. Each appointee's character, ability, and scholastic record has been reviewed and from all indications the Archway's high standards are to be maintained.

The Editor has announced that there are still a few openings. Freshmen who have had newspaper or literary experience are requested to apply.

CLAIRE MESSINGER RE-ELECTED

Claire Messinger was reelected president of Beta Theta Chapter of Sigma Iota Chi. Victorine Healy, past secretary, was elected vice-president to replace Dorothy Olter. The secretary's office was filled by Gloria DeAmicis and the treasurer's office by Mary Tirrocchi.

The long awaited "Mother and Daughter" banquet was held at Top Hill at which time a gardenia corsage was given to each mother. An impressive ritual, dedicated to the graduates took place by the candle light. A gift was presented to each graduate.

The Sigma Mothers joined their daughters in congratulating Collette Dickey, Helen Flynn, and Jay Cogswell for the honors bestowed upon them at commencement.

KATHLEEN

Our vacation month, August, saw Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Gulski become proud parents of a daughter, Kathleen. Is that a good explanation for the Dean's ear-to-ear smile?

Colleges Must Train Gentlemen As Well as Scholars

A new conception of the responsibilities of American higher education was given in Cincinnati, Ohio, by Dr. Frank W. Chandler, veteran of 47 years of college teaching, when he declared that a college must seek to train gentlemen as well as scholars.

In the University of Cincinnati's annual Phi Beta Kappa address, Dr. Chandler, Professor emeritus of English, recalled he has seen "hundreds of scholars, male and female, and some who could scarcely be regarded as gentlemen."

"The most effective teachers in any university are those with social grace and charm, men of the world, rich in personality, not merely walking encyclopedias or adding machines," Dr. Chandler said. "It is such scholars, human and humane, who exert the most influence.

"In a college where the faculty regards the making of men as equally important with the discov-

WHOSE RING?

Do you want to be a proud possessor of a Bryant College ring? If your answer is in the affirmative, this is all you have to do. Aim your dusty camera at South Hall's Archway, click, develop, and submit the picture to the editor of this publication. All photographs submitted will be examined by the Archway Staff and if yours is selected for use on the Archway's nameplate, the ring is yours.

Dorothy Hill Elected

Elections by the Kappa Delta Kappa Sorority were held at the Biltmore Hotel. The outgoing officers, President Catherine Coombs, Secretary Stasia Zurowski, and Treasurer Gloria Lemay were succeeded by President Dorothy Hill, Vice-President Priscilla Flood, Secretary Ruth Carty, and Treasurer Edith Liebler.

The sorority's bowling team has been organized and is prepared to enter the tournament.

Kappa Delta girls have invaded the Hodgman Pool each Monday in prior seasons, this activity is expected to continue this year.

At the annual election of the Student Council President Dottie Hill brought pride to the sorority by her election as vice-president of the Council.

The sorority's advisors will continue to be Miss Dorothy Hines and Miss Alice Hines.

Cathy Coombs, Marion McGuire, Edith McDeed, and Louise Martinnelli, all student teachers, are now in training at various Rhode Island High Schools.

SMILE AWHILE

"Are you positive that the defendant was drunk," asked the judge.

"No doubt," growled the officer. "Why are you so certain?" "Well," replied the officer, "I saw him put a penny in the patrol box on Fourth street, then look up at the clock on the church and shout: 'Good heavens, I've lost 14 pounds!'"

A woman got on a Madison Avenue bus in New York and, after a search through her purse, came out with a $10 bill.

"That's all right, lady," said the driver, "you'll have 199 of them in a minute."
