President Announces Dean's List

For

Bryant-Stratton College
Providence, R. I.

Following the usual custom of Bryant-Stratton College, Providence, Rhode Island, President Harry L. Jacobs, with the advice of the Faculty, announced today that the following students have attained the highest scholastic standing during the past semester, and are so honored by being placed on the Dean's List, one of the School's highest honors. Selection of the students to earn this coveted honor is based on the scholastic ability, attendance, initiative and co-operation.

The following students have been selected: Kenneth Caie, Berlin, New Hampshire; Casimir Andryshak, Goshen, New York; Miss Ruth Abrams, Northville, New York; Miss Kathryn Bossert, West Lafayette, Indiana; Miss Helen Day, Johnstown, Pennsylvania; Rudolph Bigda, Holyoke, Mass.; Miss Irene Goodhue, New Bedford, Mass.; Miss Wanda Sadowski, Greenfield, Mass.; Kimball Sargent, North Attleboro, Mass.; Stanislaus, Chasse; Worcester, Mass.; Miss Annette Kettlety, Slatersville, R. I.; Miss Ethel Joynes, West Barrington, R. I.; Miss Alice Griswold and Miss Charlotte Long, both of Providence, R. I.

SECRETARIAL GROUP GIVEN SPEED DEMONSTRATION

Arthur Neuenhaus, Royal speed wizard and special demonstrator gave an exhibition of his ability before the Secretarial Department, March 30.

His brilliant speed and concentration exhibition held the audience spellbound. Just as he "stopped" the New York Business Show, he awed the surprised group that watched him type at a tremendous speed while he nonchalantly added four columns of figures given him by various students and answered questions at the same time.

Mr. Neuenhaus spoke of the essentials required to attain speed. These are absolute co-ordination between eye and finger; a sense of rhythm which makes for a steady stroke and flow of words and a thorough knowledge of the machine.

Very enthusiastic about his work and machine, Mr. Neuenhaus says, "The Royal seems to be alive. I can almost sense its eager response to my fingers. My first reaction to a Royal after using another machine for a number of years is the same reaction I get upon stepping on the accelerator of a new High-powered car after driving an old-style sluggish one"

PHI SIGMA NU CAPTURES BOWL- ING TITLE FOR SECOND CONSECUTIVE YEAR

After a season replete with thrills, the Phi Sigma Nu Tigers have retained their Championship won last season.

Compared to last year, when the Tigers had things very much their own way, this year's race was not decided until the second-last string had been bowled.

Directly behind the Tigers, too close for comfort most of the time, were the hard fighting Freshies, who were very much in the race until tripped up in the semi-final by the third place Tau Epsilon team.

The Seniors, Faculty and Beta Sigma Chi finished in the order named and each team proved a stumbling block to the leaders on many occasions.

Individual honors for the season go to Captain Edwin Thomas of the Freshies with a high single of 165. Charlie Swanson of the seniors captured the high three string total with a pinfall of 384, while Dunham, anchor for the league winning Tigers won high average with 109.

Predictions are that next years race will be another battle. Although Phi Sigma Nu is losing most of its squad by graduation they still have excellent material for the forming of a new team.

Beta Sigma Chi, however will receive the entire Freshman team, practically intact, and are confident they will win the championship.

Tau Epsilon is losing most of its veterans and will have to recruit a new lineup from the new pledges.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL NEWS

The dance at Meshanticut was a rip-roaring success. Dancing was enjoyed to Gene Sarazen's irresistible music.

Miss Rita Sullivan was the "belle of the ball", so Harold Johnson says, "Swell dancer," says Harold.

The girls basket ball season closed the latter part of March.

We think that the girls who have done such fine work this year should again be named: Dolly Faye, Captain, Evelyn Vigeant, Priscilla Chisholm, Rita Sullivan, Kay Gorry, Frances West, Lillian Hebb, Kula Annis, Kay Pelky, Louise Allen, Rosiland Rosa, Eleanor Kilguss, Evelyn Rich.

And their untiring, patient and excellent coach, Custy Grasso.

GIRLS VARSITY AWARDED LETTERS

The Bryant-Stratton numerals presented by the college to athletes on the Varsity team in 50% of the games throughout the season were awarded the following girls: Wanda Sadoski, Evelyn Rich, Evelyn Vigeant, Catherine Pelkey, Lillian Hebb, Rita Sullivan, Eleanor Kilguss, Francis West, Dorothy Fahey, Louise Allen and Kula Annis.

The girls are to be complimented for their work this year. Although losing a number of games the girls kept their spirit up and were in the game all the time. They lost many close battles and did their best although they were handicapped by not having many of last years squad to help them out.

EDITORIAL

Some people have the strange idea that being popular means having one's name inscribed on something or other as a member of this or that; or strolling about with a little pin or letter as reward for merit. Sometimes, perhaps, these people are correct in their belief. But far too often is that publicity or little pin a goal, not just an award. Too many times people work and play, not for the glory of their school, but for the glory of themselves. They will play if they are going to receive recognition or a more substantial reward. It is not to those persons that real success and promotion will come. Rather will it tend toward the individual who works willingly and cheerfully, regardless of "what he gets for it", who is always ready to lend a helping hand to those unfamiliar with the work.

May we, then, pay tribute to the unpopular ones - to the reporter who hands his news in one time, to the scholar who has every assignment ready to pass in and aids the procrastinating ones by lending it; to the basketball player who didn't receive a medal, but who played a hard game for the glory of sport and of school; and to all here at Bryant-Stratton who have learned to subordinate their own personalities and desires in the interest of any successful enterprise, to co-operate and co-ordinate their work with others for the accomplishment of a given purpose.

TAU EPSILON ANNUAL SPRING DINNER DANCE AT THE SCITUATE COUNTRY CLUB

The busy News reporter, hardly stopping for breath, dashed over to the Scituate Country Club to "cover" the big doin's put on by Tau Epsilon last Friday evening (April 20). Upon arriving on the scene of activities, he beheld a banner crowd engaged in having a banner time. The Club was prettily decorated for the occasion with the Fraternity colors, red and black, predominating.

The turnout was a typical college crowd, the girls charming in their evening apparel, the men smart after the fashion of college men.

We were received by genial George Richards, who flashed his famous smile, and offered to bet us that this was the smartest affair of the season. Having no penchant for losing our money, we decided that discretion was the better part of valor, and retired to the sidelines to witness the festivities.

Patrons and proteneesses for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gardner Jacobs, and Mr. and Mrs. John L. Foley. The committee in charge consisted of Creighton Jones, chairman, Thomas Mullen, Paul Curry, and Joseph Wolstencroft.

SNOOP AND PEEP

Well, here I am back again to give you the lowdown on well-known and lesser known personages about Bryant-Stratton-

Bill Grant reminds Prof. Lee about the song "This little piggie went to Market," because of the snort Bill let out one day in Taxes. . . Freddie Watson has been passing in review. He had to take a girl to lunch so she could see what he was like. Was the verdict favorable, Fred? . . . "Bunny" Cogswell thinks the men of Phi Sigma Nu are a bunch of pikers because they take cigarettes from their pledges. You should know the inside story "Bunny" before you form your opinion. . . Dick Threlfall gave an assumed name when asked who the cute little girl he had such a crush on, was. Tsk, tsk, Dick. Better be careful. . . Have you noticed that Jack Yeaton is wearing a Sigma Iota Chi pin? Nice going I call it. . . And Karl Miller seems to be "that way" about one Alma Keefe of Fall River. . . Was a certain young ladies face red when a young man made a crack about rodent, tsk, tsk, Ruthie. . . Bunny Cogswell again she gets her name in the paper, has a crush on our own "Ducky" Duckworth; nice going Elmer, here's wishing you luck. . . Milt Lapin and Kay Pelky seemed to be enjoying themselves in Childs one night not so long ago. . . Bill Grant has given up the harp lessons and is taking tap dancing. Woah Bill, take it easy. . . Joe R. seems to like the older ladies. Tsk, tsk, Joe, I thought you knew better than that. . . Bill Henson is still burning up the roads to Wrentham. Keep it up Bill, your doing great. . . Don Farrington, our ideal student, trying to pick a lock during the lecture the other day, my my Donald. . . Frank Mazura seems to have a crush on a certain little girl from W. Warwick. Does Helen know about this Frank? . . . And these little love episodes continue. Joe Murphy and Alice Palsey have fallen for each other in quite a big way. . . Does Etney Joynes know that Nils Carlson took a young lady home from a basket ball game the other night and does Nils know that Ethel went dancing with some fellow the other P. M.? . . And the "Great Lover" Bob Payne of the 8th has fallen for Agnes Giblin, tsk tsk, . . .

Well, this seems to be all for this month so I take my leave graciously before someone throws something. But just a second, here's something hot . . . "Rollie" Hoyle has consented to give boxing lessons. Those interested see Irving Budlong, his manager. . . Al Conners, claims that the pretty girl he drove away with the other afternoon was his sister. We have our doubts. See you next month.

HERE AND THERE

When you get around to it, ask the certain two male students about the two girls they took home from school. Imagine, two girls in the back seat, two boys in the front?

Everybody happy?

And then there's the flourishing romance between Mary and Warren. She says he writes the "sweetest" letters. They're simply adorable.

Certain young men seem to dote on typing errors. Of course they don't deny they like the attention it brings them from their typing teacher, Miss Krupa.

One on me

While nosing around looking for news, I asked one bright looking chap about his girl friend and if he would tell me her name. He looked me over rather queerly and finally sighed and whispered, "Sal Ammoniac."

Have you heard about the vast number of females who talk about "Mr. Handy's 'cute' sense of humor?"

Speaking of teachers, one of the students on the seventh floor remarked that he'd change his course and take shorthand if he was sure he'd have Miss Krueger.

7th FLOOR

Now that the Sunday Examiner has been barred from the newstands those 5 people in Semester E who wouldn't read such trash will have to get the towndoings otherwise.

I wonder how many men in Semester E Class have started on the thesis they have to turn in before getting their degree. Is this a thought or is it a thought?

BETA SIGMA GAMMA SORORITY

On March 27, the members of the Beta Sigma Gamma Sorority held a dinner and theater party at the Lotus Restaurant and Loew's Theater, respectively. Because the members greatly enjoyed themselves, it was decided at a meeting of the sorority to hold a similar party in the near future.

SIGMA LAMBDA THETA

The Sigma Lambda Theta Sorority held a gay affair Friday, April 13 at the Hotel Warren. The English Room, with its inviting booths and smooth orchestra, was thrown open to a happy group of S. L. T's and their escorts. It was our first real round-up since the mid-winter formal and we certainly welcomed the opportunity for decking out in our spring ensembles. The teasing, snappy tunes of the orchestra coaxed all couples on to the floor. Little dancing was done near the end of the evening, however, and it was a reluctant group that bade our hosts good-night. And so the night of April 13 is duly recorded in the annals of S. L. T. history as another successful brilliant evening - typical of Sigma Lambda Theta. Oh yes, the committee in charge was Dorothy Hague, ex-officio; Pauline Chase, Stella Sylofski, and Betty Larkin.

PHI SIGMA NU

Phi Sigma Nu is proud to announce that it has taken four more potential members into its folds, namely, they are Edwards, Morse, Nickerson, and Payne. As fine a foursome as any fraternity could ask for.

We are also proud, and justly so, of our members who participate in the manly game of basketball. Especially our own Paul Haselhurst, whose playing is only excelled by his ability in the class room and his pleasing personality. Congratulations, boys, on your winning the championship.

Our bowling team is also on top, and I hope we stay there; at present writing we are also two points ahead of the fresh, freshman. The meeting with them is scheduled for the 26th of this month. Perhaps the results will be known when this is printed. Either way it turns out the winning team will know it was in a serap.

Well, nothing of any importance has happened to speak of, so I'll just sign off and wait until further notices come into view.

SIGMA IOTA CHI

Beta Theta Chapter has had some exciting times since the last column appeared in the paper. First of all we wish to announce our three new pledges: Margaret Thomas, Gladys Stevens, and Helen Kimber.

We had a great deal of excitement just before Easter vacation when our Grand Worthy Treasurer, Mrs. Mary Moye, of Bamberg, South Carolina, came on a tour of inspection. We entertained her with a party at the Y. W. C. A.

Shortly after the former Worthy Matron of Phi Chapter at Rider College, Mrs. Elizabeth Lindhardt called on us at the college and later entertained us with a tea in the Tower Room of the Wayland Manor.

We also had a bridge party at the College, March 23.

Plans are now in progress for a dance to be held at the Y. W. C. A. Sylvia Burr and Zona Lien are Co-chairmen for the dance.

KAPPA DELTA KAPPA

On March 22, Kappa Delta Kappa held a dance at the Scituate Country Club. The committee in charge of the dance were: Evelyn Vigeant, Chairman, Priscilla Chisholm, Kay Cunningham, Rita Sullivan, Grace McCargin, and Helen Jeffries.

It was one of the most successful dances of the year. The patronesses were Miss Krueger and Miss Krupa.

Dinner was served at 11:30 O'clock. An excellent floor show was given before dinner and dancing was enjoyed until 2:00 A. M.

Miss Helen Jeffries one of our sorority members is now employed in the Peoples Finance Company of Providence.

TAU EPSILON NEWS

Now that our Annual Spring Dinner Dance is behind, and what a success it was! !, we are planning a White Flannel dance, to take place early in May at the Chateau Dreyfus. The boys are also desirous of holding a moonlight sail, so it looks as if the busy social season is upon us.

We have had a very active winter, which opened with our dance at the Chateau Dreyfus just before the holidays. Next came the First Annual Convention, which was such a success that a "follow-up" dinner may be held late in June, when we bid the Seniors farewell. Then we ran a series of dances at the Scituate Country Club which were very well attended. It has been a banner year for Beta Sigma Chapter!

Joe Wolsteneroft, one of our most active members, is recuperating from his recent illness. Get well in a hurry Joe, because we are going to need you!

Congratulations to Paul Curry on his appointment as Auditor of the chapter. Paul is merely keeping up the good work, as he was very active in his high school days at Holy Family, New Bedford.

BETA SIGMA CHI

On Tuesday, April 10, the active members, with several of the alumni administered the first degree to a group of promising pledges. After going through the prescribed ritual the following men were admitted: C. F. Andryshak, Lionel Carron, Andre Desjarlars, Wilson Ford, Frank A. Hurley, Robert Sayward, Howard R. Smart Jr., Edwin Thomas, and Stanton White. The final degree was given on Friday, the twenty-seventh.

On May 4, an informal dance is being held by the fraternity. The dance is to be held at the Hotel Warren from nine to one, and from all indications the affair promises to be a pleasant success.

Watch the bulletin board for further announcements!

8-B HIGHLIGHTS!

Howard Baker sure seems to be enjoying himself these days. He seems to have a "yen" for the K. D. K. girls. But then variety is the spice of life they say, don't they "Howie?"

The members of this room are very sorry to learn that one of its members is moving to Los Angeles, Ruth Haenelt no less. And the departure of Keneath Briggs.

E. Vigeant has turned her attractions to Harvard University. Can't cheat now Ev. Better watch out!

Speaking of Evy, did you know that she was Carrol Bergendahl's "guardian angle?"

Miss Johnson seems to be quite sweet on two nice little young men from the seventh floor. Which one will be the winner, May?

HERE AND THERE IN 8E

Spring is here! The Normal-Secretarial Class is going to have a Semi-Formal Dance at the Warren Hotel on May 8. This affair promises to be one of the most prominent social affairs of the season, and the committee in charge are: Evelyn Burr, Kula Annis, Margaret DeRosier, and Kay Bossert and Dorothy Fealy.

Lois Beavan, one of our classmates, was recently married and is now living in Pennsylvania.

One of the masculine members of this famous class seems to have quite a "erush" on Mr. Canty. What is this about it, Mr. Handy?????

Kula Annis says she wasn't "on the march" for nothing. She now has Andrew. (It is said that he comes from Hollywood.)

Lawrence Yeaton and Genevieve Kowalski have decided to enter a contest to see who can talk the longest and say "the least". Lawrence has a head start!! (So I was told!)

Evelyn Burr was recently seen entering church when the service was all over. "Late agan, Miss Burr!" And was Milt mad?????

Rose Gentle and "Tony" have got the parental blessing, and so, we wait in expectation of those "Wedding Bells."

Betty Larkin and Mary Harrington go big for "Jack." What's all the sighing about, Betty? And did Mary lose her breath on a certain encounter????

Mary Ferri was in a very embarrassing situation in class. Was it the blouse, Mary????

Edith Cornell has started a column entitled "advice to the lovelorn." She says cutting out paper doll is the first step to any successful romance. How power, Mr. Canty????

8-D FLASHES

The classes 8-D and 8-B will combine and hold a dance on the evening of May 11th. Miss Winifred Myers is chairman of committee in charge of arrangements and will be assisted by: Peggy Barrett, Joseph Murphy, William Spink, Betty Sullivan, and Irene Goodhue.

Raoul La Belle certainly is giving Elyce Krauss a "grand rush" these days. We don't blame you one single bit, "Ra", Elyce certainly is a peach of a girl.

A new love affair has recently developed in our class with Alice Palsey and Joe Murphy. Just ask Mr. Handy if you want to get the low-down on the whole affair. Classrooms really aren't the most appropriate places in which to hold hands.

Gordon Lingley has at last discovered that the coeds at Bryant-Stratton are really much nicer than those you find elsewhere. Helen Day certainly has done things to this poor little boy's heart.

Irene Goodhue is never at a loss for boy friends, it seems. What is this power you have over the men, Irene? Paul certainly seems to love it.

Poor little Mildred Taylor was very down-hearted a few days ago when she had a little misunderstanding with her big moment. So glad to hear it's all patched up again Milly and everything is hunky dory again.

Creighton Jones would be doing everyone a favor if he forgot that little quarrel he and Winnie had. Come on Crayton let's forget it ever happened.

Mr. Naylor certainly did a good job when he introduced Tommy Lucitt to Peg Barrett. Not only does Peg go to all the R. I. C. E. dances but the Lotus to lunch, no less.

FRESHMAN B. B. A.
ON THE SPOT

Machon has a fatal attraction for "sweet Myrtle"!

We hear Brennan needs a mirror. Someone hand him one quick!

What professor asked Graham, "Who is she?"

It was rumored that Miss Myers put down a rival but we wonder. Ask him about the party he attended, Winnie.

What fashion will the senior B. A. Class take up next? We hear that several of their number go in for waved hair.

Haven't you a guilty conscience, Ellis?

The Beta Sigma Chi boys are thinking of investing in a shoe factory. The other night they walked and walked and walked! and they came home broke!

Threlfall certainly can entertain. The other day he had four lasses - no less - in hysterics.

Riley believes in serving the ladies with water when they are thirsty.

Cateret likes the office girls. We hear he tells his life history to them.

SENIOR NOTES

Plans are under way for a class dance to be held late in May, probably at the Hotel Warren. Our president, Kimball Sargent, has promised to name a committee to take charge of the affair. So hear ye, fellow students, and lend your support when the time comes.

A committee was named to select class rings by Kimball Sargent. Annette Kettley is chairman in charge. Other members are Louis Young and Iola Soillant.

It is reported by no less an authority than George Richards that Henry Lee has a girl. But the actual count, as taken by Louis Young, was no less than two females emerging from the office on that memorable occasion.

Mr. Lee put quite a bit of stress on "hennery" recently in class. For which he received a big hand from the dozing Seniors!

Mr. Vinal has expressed a desire that "Wimpy" Davis receive a little publicity. But Dave has refrained from occupying the limelight to an extent to merit it.

It would be only fitting to mention that Mr. Vinal sprung one of his most successful wisecracks the other day. When Mr. Barber called Fallon and company into the office for a brief but interesting session, the remark was, "Come up and free me sometime".

Louis Young reports that the nights are long in North Attleboro when Mat O'Neil takes his girl (Ethel Hunter to you) out.

Dame Kettley is conducting a class in Cost Accounting, from all appearances, but you never can tell! Apt pupils: Dick Rothmick, Don MacIntyre, Bill Hewson, and Earl Midwood. Tuition? I wonder!

Bill Grant wishes to deny once for all that he joined the circus. It seems that they had three clowns already.
