Sunday

my Darling,

Can't remember whether or not I wrote to you Friday night. If I did, where the letter is.

Anyway it probably said anything interesting. Couldn't have been very long just because Woody and I went to the movies. Saw "Sawdust and "The Jade Mask".

You wondered so far away. Today when you called. Golly, this morning seems so long ago. It seems at least a day away. I mean it.

This has been the longest day.

It was wonderful to
I can't get that wonderful line of your voice again...

...the I 91 right before your about how.

I love you so much, darling. It's just a month from today, and well be married. Gee-

Oh, honey, I'm glad that you're going to get the wedding ring--how much is yours going to be? What kind are you getting--be sure that nurse will go with my engagement ring. Honey, I'll either send you the money or give it to you when

I come down--whatever is best for you. So let me know.

God, honey, you're so organized and you've got everything so organized and all arranged and everything so you're just wonderful - I've got millions of things to do but just can't seem to get started -

Well, I did the most important to discuss wishes or was any of thing anyone - Bought my wedding dress - Hope that you'll like it

darling, it's more or less ivory satin but not the kind of ivory that looks dull - wish I could draw them I could give you an idea - Oh, well -

it will be better if you're

(attach envelope to my mail) completely surprised. I Hope please anything
I think the dress is beautiful.

Of course I'm probably prejudiced.

It has a train. Not too long.

Charlotte's definitely coming too.

Don't get too hung up.

If you can possibly avoid it,

shaving because we can have more fun all together.

If they can't bring in an extra bed, three of us can sleep together.

Oh, honey, is the graduation
dance going to be on Friday?

Can you get Charlotte a date?

I hope that all the fellows
Don't have their girls down. Do you think that you can?

Let's see. What else was there to talk about.

Honestly, honey. My mind is a complete blank I just can't concentrate on anything. Must be love.

I've been trying to get some sense back. I'm not to know. Maybe she's in Brooklyn or something. Wanted to tell her that you called.

See, honey, when I knew you called, I was completely surprised. Couldn't remembers a damned thing that I didn't want to ask you and still can't.

Besides that, my voice is or was going away. It was very helpful for a good intelligent conversation since I'm half asleep now. This will be a great letter.

Oh, I was looking for a sweater today and came across some pictures that we took between Saturday and Monday or a year ago Thanksgiving.

A girl I used to work with in the one with Mother and...
I. She was from Cleveland and was all alone so I invited her up for dinner. They're horrible pictures but what can you expect with me in front of the camera. That was when I used to eat Field's — my hair still out in bangs. Honey do you still lengthen coats? I'm trying to decide whether I do — saw a cute one last Saturday and maybe I'll get it next weekend.
Oh, honey, guess what. Mother gave me a can opener. Now we can eat! It's the kind that I can use, too! Well, at least we won't starve now. I hope.

Oh, golly, my darling. I miss you so much. Every day.

I miss you more and more.

Well, honey, things can't look too good for around the house. Honestly, every day was just as bad as I thing happens to us. I'm almost positive, but until then.

maybe the 11th can't be sure-I told you on the phone that two weeks wasn't correct. I got my dress, oh, I guess I wrote
you that in the letter, too— See what I mean— I'm really in a total mess a total befuddled
hopeless condition.
It really was an accident about my buying the dress. Charlotte and I were looking for a dress for her to wear at the wedding and I happened to see this store where they advertised
bridal dresses all the time.
We went in just to look and their dresses were all set ready and I was unable to get in my blot that night. Nothing to wear about but

How I despair! To wear my top I they were nice. They didn't they used as a window sample. That's smaller than a size 10. It fitted perfectly. So now I'm all happy and all the time I do is pay for it away and leave a little arm and leg and the dress will be mine. I've paid for it.

will it be down there in March?

Golly, that dress is probably going to be so hot. It's all satin. Golly, I'll probably die off the heat.
What else did I want to ask you? Something happened to this pen and it's scratching draft on the desk. Fine thing.

Red, honey, what a week I am. There are a million and one things to be done yet, but something always happens. You're really wonderful to be getting everything done so quickly.

Reason I'm not the efficient
Dear Honey, I hope these next few weeks go fast. I love you so much and it's been so long since we were together.

That Flight Officer Exam sounds quite odd, to say the least. How they can grade anything like that is really amazing. Under what the right answers were supposed to be on the exam anyway, did you find the Purple Flag yet? What kind of answers are Flight Officers anyway?
That must have been some test —
When do you protest? Do they give you an exam for hieredonti
Hope that's on a higher plane Isn't it strange that I've always called you Judas. Don't know why. Always did like your name though. Now I call you Jack almost all the time when I talk about you which is always.
Well, if the paper said it was all right to get married
when you could cook, guess it's all right. But, money will they send some one to from the paper.
down to cook for you when you're hungry? It would be such a waste of time to get married at home.

Everything is really much more complicated this way. If you only knew how much more.

Of course we really haven't any argument because it's costing no more to come down than any wedding and reception ever would.

Besides, oh, heck, I'm not on that side. I like this way better. Oh Honey, do you think that?
we'll have enough money for me to work all day when you're flying and I'd like to write as often as possible. I can't worry about that later, though.

Yes, honey, I wish I were flying
so that the time would pass quickly. It just drags so slow. I'm so glad that you have 40 hours in a week. It must help with all the flying. I was never aimed at those last thirty hours in-

Have you started instruments and night flying? How's that going? I'm sure I'll come back. I'll probably write with Daddy, and I am going to see "Winged Victory" I hope.
How did you like the shooting sled? Was it fun? I'd love to learn how to shoot. Maybe I can find a cowboy in Texas - on second thought, maybe you could teach me.

That's my little grounded goose tonight? I can just see you feeling like me when you don't fly.

Every day that we're apart just seems wasted. I hope things improve.

Darling, I'll never be able to tell you how much I love you. There are so many different ways, but I guess the only one I ever can think of is I love you and that's not much very expressive.
Dear honey, I'm so glad that you sent me those pictures. I just sit and look at them for hours. That's me

I mean it takes me so long to write a letter to you. They're wonderful just like you.

I love you so, my darling. Wish I could tell you how much. Heard "If You Are But a Dream" today.

I miss you so whenever I hear any of the songs that we heard together.

Oh, saw "Together Again." Was very good.

Well, him's late again. I love you so. Hope we won't be apart much longer.

I love you and miss you.
Dear William,

I'm so glad to find that you're building a house in Connecticut. I'm not sure what to say. I think I'll just say, "I love the way you live your life and your country."

I hope you find peace and joy in your new home. I'm sure it will be a wonderful place for you and your family.

Always,

Dottie

P.S. I'm going to write to you every day.
