

Quarantine Adventures

BY SARAH RAGNAUTH

Part 1: The Middle East

Arabic Map of the World

Memory/Description Label

"When I first saw this piece in the Marketplace in Jordan. It immediately caught my eye. The map was one of the coolest things that I have ever seen in Jordan. That's when I knew I had to buy it to bring it back home with me"

Written By

Steven Ragnauth

Ragnauth: Quarantine Adventures

| Arabic Map of the World | 2018 | Piece is from Jordan | Wood & Paint

Aqua Bowl Set

Memory/Description Label:

"I loved the colors of this bowl set. These bowls are hand-made, so I try to not use them. I don't want to risk breaking it so they are just for show in my house. I love to collect hand-made items. It really brings character into my house."

Written By

Sarah Raquath

Turkish Tea Set

Memory/Description Label:

"I bought this tea set and tea in the Grand Bazaar in Turkey. When I got back to the airport and went through security, I got stopped. The security officer tried to open the tea to find out what it was. The tea ended up exploding everywhere because of his carelessness. Needless to say I never got to try that tea... but I still have the tea set.

Written By

Steven Ragnauth

| Turkish Tea Set | 2018 | Piece is from Grand Bazaar, Turkey | Glass & Silver |

Jordanian Marketplace

Memory/Description Label:

"This is a painting of a Jordanian Marketplace. It is a true representation of what a marketplace looks like over there. I liked this painting because of all the detail in it as well as how it captures the true essence of what a marketplace looks like in Jordan."

Written By

Steven Raquanth

| Jordanian Marketplace | 2012 | Piece is from Jordan | Paint |

Part 2: The Caribbean

Steel Band

Memory/Description Label

"This is an very unique piece. The instrument shown in this picture is an instrument used in Calypso & Soca music. The instrument is a steel drum. When I first saw this piece I thought it was so unique. I loved that it had a little man playing this steel drum. It was a perfect gift for my Dad who loves Soca Music"

Written By

Sarah Ragnauth

| Steel Band | 2020 | Piece is From Trinidad & Tobago | Copper, Screws, & Steel |

Traditional Guyanese House

Author: Quantise Adventures

Memory/Description Label

"A Traditional House in Guyana looks just like the one in this picture. The houses are all on stilts there. This house actually looks very similar to my Grandparent's house back home. This painting really captures the essence of the lifestyle in Guyana, South America."

Written By

Sarah Ragnauth

| Traditional Guyanese House | 2008 | Piece is from Guyana, South America | Acrylic Paint |

Jordanian Sand Bottles

Memory/Description Label

"For six consecutive summers my brother volunteered at a school in Amman, Jordan. Every time he came back from one of his trip's he would always bring back something. The first summer he brought back these sand bottles with all of our names on them. The unique thing about these sand bottles is that the sand is from the desert and they colored the sand in order to make the pictures."

Written By

Sarah Ragnauth

| Jordanian Sand Bottles | 2012 | Piece is from Jordan | Glass & Sand |

Coconut Mojito Man

Memory/Description Label:

" When I first saw this sculpture in Cuba, I thought it was so cool. Fun fact it is made from one coconut. It also has eyes that open and close. This is a very unique piece. It is one of the best sculptures that I own."

Written By

Steven Ragnauth

| Coconut Mojito Man | 2018 | Piece is from Cuba |
Coconuts |

Black & White Vase

Memory/Description Label:

"I try to bring back something from every trip that I go on. When I went to the Dominican Republic, I actually bought this vase while I was on the beach. On the beaches they have little shops set up. Which I thought was really cool."

Written By

Steven Ragnauth

| Black & White Vase | 2017 | Piece is from
Dominican Republic | Clay & Paint|