#3 Good Health and Well-being; #6 Clean Water and Sanitation; #11 Sustainable Cities and Communities; #15 Life on Land

The Embrace <https://www.embraceboston.org/> at the 1965 Freedom Plaza in the Boston Common <https://www.boston.gov/parks/boston-common> visited by #BryantUniversity students during the IMPACT Boston fieldtrip on March 2, 2023. Students learned about how Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr and Mrs. Coretta Scott King, met and married while graduate students in the city of Boston in the 1950's. In 1965 he returned to lead a civil rights march from Roxbury to the Common. We have the King holiday today and the King Center in Atlanta, GA due to the tireless efforts of Mrs. Coretta Scott King. [Site 2]

Core Investments CEO/Founder, David Pogorelc, and Architect, Art Campbell share a model of their work in South Boston with #BryantUniversity students on the IMPACT Boston fieldtrip March 2, 2023. Neighborhoods require a sense of community with parks, grocery stores, and spaces for children. Factoring in both low-income and middle-class housing is part and parcel of a community. Listening to what the existing neighbors need becomes part of the developer's plan. [Site 4]
