MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

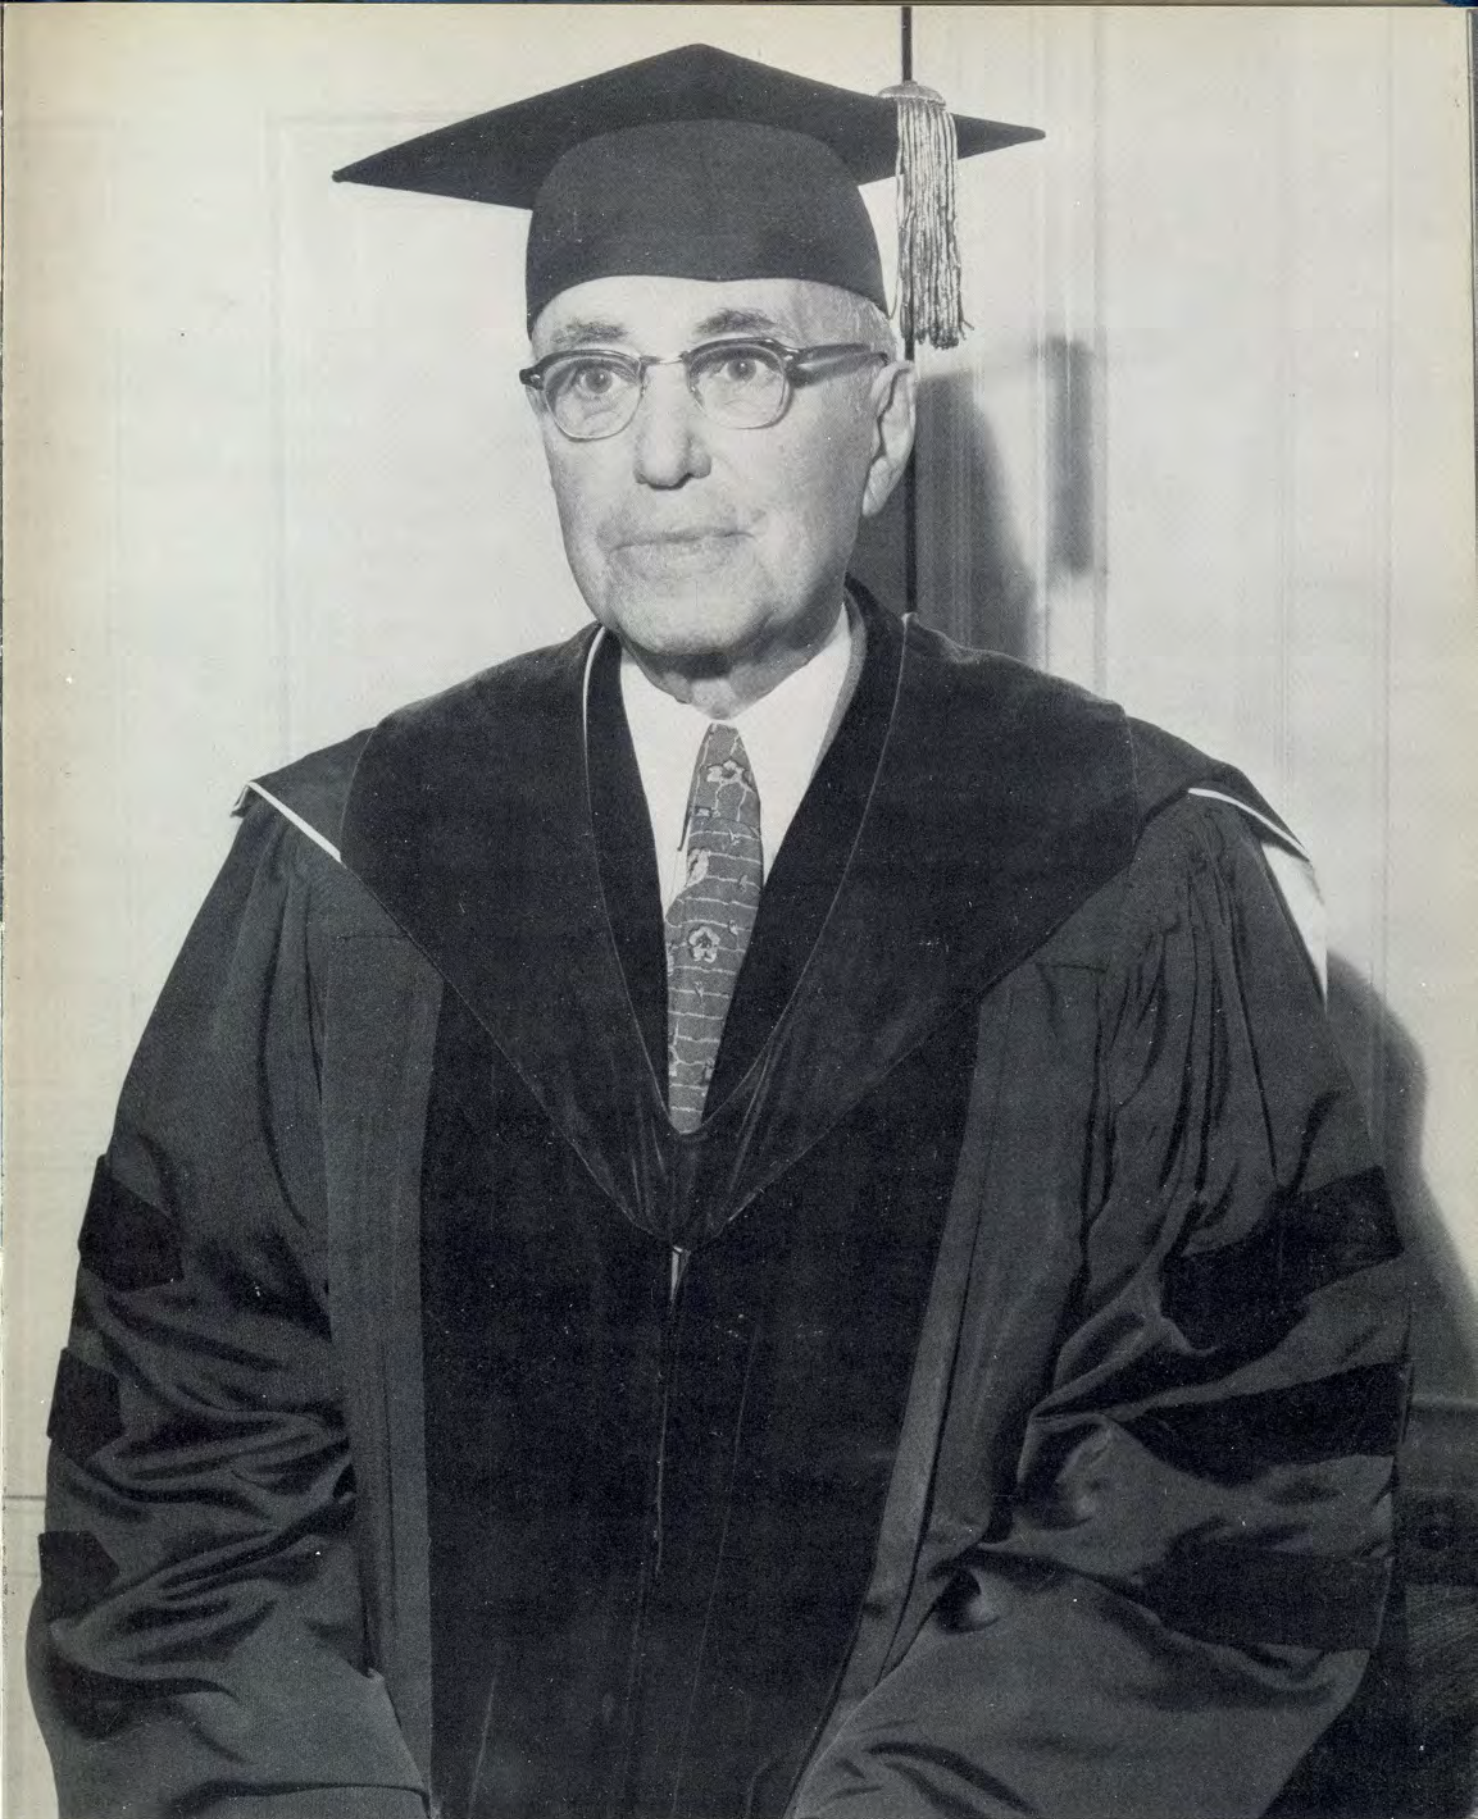

Man has covered the distance between the earth and the moon and seeks to reach distant planets, yet the distances within himself remain largely unexplored. Although you have completed your course of study by meeting the high standards of your instructors, your goals are still before you.

Commencement is but a beginning, and now you are committed to begin a life as well as to earn a living. This is a time to pause and view the horizon expanding before you. This is a time to dedicate yourself to enlarging your spirit in the faith of your fathers.

Once you have found fulfillment in the livelihood for which you have been so adequately prepared, look around you to the needs of others, to the betterment of the human condition in your city, state and country. Then, together with your family, you can congratulate yourself on achieving the noblest of human goals,—that of a USEFUL and HAPPY LIFE!

—President

DR. HENRY L. JACOBS, LL.D.

DE

DEAN JAMES P. BERLUTI

DIRECTOR OF ADMISSIONS
DEAN OF MEN

DICATION . . .

For his appreciation of our limitations and failings, as well as our inspirations and triumphs; for his patient endurance of our foolish whims and his ready praise for our worthier endeavors; and for his willing loan of priceless experience, kindness, and humor; we, the class of 1960, respectfully and proudly dedicate this yearbook.

When Dean Berluti came to Bryant in 1954, the college gained not only an excellent accounting professor but also a man who was deeply interested in students and enjoyed being among them. Although this was his first teaching assignment and he was unanimously accepted as one of the members of the Bryant Family, he left Bryant for a short period of time to gain practical experience as an auditor to better qualify him for his devotion to teaching.

His college days were spent at Boston University where he received his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration and this year, 1960, he received his Masters Degree in Business Education.

Shortly after his return to Bryant, he was appointed to the position of Dean of Men and Director of Admissions. Although he misses the daily routine of the classroom, he can now turn his fullest attentions to the students from the prospective freshmen to the graduating seniors. Bryant students realize this and wish to express their gratitude and indebtedness to Dean Berluti.

ADMINISTRATION

We, the graduating seniors, couldn't have gone through our college career without a few problems. The people on these two pages are those who have worked along with us and for us, and who have tried to help us with these problems.

We owe a debt of gratitude to these people for keeping the standards of Bryant College at a high level and for providing many services without which most of us would have been at a loss.

DELTA OMEGA PROFESSIONAL SOCIETY

Up until the year 1953, there were two business societies at Bryant. The societies were The Business Administration Society and the Bryant Accounting Society. In 1953 these two organizations merged and became the BA&A Society. The BA&A Society had their speaker meetings here on campus and one banquet a semester.

In February of 1955, the name of the organization was changed to "Delta Omega" and the society voted to have dinner-speaker meetings instead of the regular speaker meetings on campus. Under the present rules of the society, any BA or A&F student who has completed his first semester is eligible to join, providing the student meets the approval of the Board of Directors.

The Society now holds three dinner-speaker meetings, two field trips, and five general meetings each semester for members and guests.
