

Saturday

My Darling,

How are you, honey. I'm so lonesome-

Gee. Every single day I miss you more and more. Well in fifteen more days, we'll be married, honey-

Golly, two weeks from tomorrow-

Times getting closer-

Well, honey it's about two hours since I began writing this-

Since then I've washed my hair and just wasted time in general-

Just think 15 more days!

Golly, it isn't very long but it seems years-

Tomorrow Gilly + I are getting to the ice show ~~before~~ oh before I

Forget - I really found a refugee - It's white & half sorta see throughish - Hope you like it, honey.

Gee, I haven't done a thing.
Should be rushing around getting things all ready so that I can take it easy the last few days but I just can't do that - Have to leave almost everything till the last minute and then rush madly around - That's a very bad habit of mine -

One of many -

You should be very thankful that you're not a girl, honey - Every thing happens to us -

Oh honey, every place I go they try to sell me nightgowns - It's very discouraging. I keep telling them I want pajamas + they smile or rather smirk knowingly and say you'll change your mind. Just wait and see - I'll show 'em.

Everytime I go to New York + plan to get loads of things I come home with one small purchase - How many more trips can I make -

Let's see, what was there I meant to tell you. Oh, yes - Got two letters from you today. You're so sweet, darling. Where are they, oh, yes - just a sec -

I'll answer the first one first.

Oh, you reminded me - The Sunny South - Must forget my rain coat.

Must also remember to see "Tonight and Every Night". Haven't heard anything about it but if you say it's hot, it sure must be!

I like it to rain because then you can write - Golly probably and after we've married I'll turn into a regular rain worshipper - Pray for it every day.

I say old top, some British jokes could get away with that technique but it's not your type.

What kind of results are you trying to get? huh? I kinda like the old way better.

I'm half asleep, too, honey so if this sounds extra chippy that's why.

When did this "twenty-mission" crush come in? I always thought it was "fifty-mission" crush. Why don't you try jumping on them. honey?
Oh, you saw "Thirty seconds over Tokyo," didn't you? Well, do you wear those leather jackets often?
I like them. Gaid look real sharp in one -

Geer honey, I love you -

Only 15 more days. That sounds so long in a way but not long at all in another way.

I hope that you finish playing soon, darling. What will happen if you finish soon? Will they give you Friday and Saturday off?

you think? I hope we can be together for a while before we're married.

Mother said to send her love! Golly, Bobbie is probably in Texas now. I wish I were down in Maultie now with you.

How are instruments, honey?

Hope they're not too hard. They sound awful! You have 10:15 now hours, don't you - I'll be glad when you're through - You should be calling me any day now - It's about five more days to let me know what you'll be -

See, Oh - I almost forgot, honey - Hilda is going to bring a movie camera down and take movies of the wedding - wait that be wonderful!
I'm so happy - I've always wanted to have movies taken of my wedding. You'll look marvelous in movies - I love you so much -

How did you ever get so handsome, darling? You're too good looking for one man - (not for one woman, though) -

See, it will be marvelous to see you again -

well, darling, This was a very long but I've been interrupted more times. It's taken six hours to write this -

I'll write again tomorrow, honey.
I love you more than anything else in the world -

Can hardly wait to see you again -
I love you so -

Always,
Dottie
