Friday

My Darling,

I'm happy today. Got a letter from you. The mailman just came. Gee, honey, I love you so.

What a day! It's all cloudy and looks as though it were going to rain any second. Hope it doesn't.

Have to go shopping - straight window shopping - in New Rochelle and Mt. Vernon. Having more trouble trying to find a negligee that isn't Marquise, same way the kind that you can see through. They're all like a telephone ...) Maybe today I'll find one.

Shooting sheet must be hard. That's sounds good. I'd be annoyed.
to come close to one out of 25. That's something else you'll have to teach me.

How to shoot. Then when I catch you running 'round with other women, I can be real dramatic about it.

Giddy breezy, I wish you'd drink that night flying. It must be awful to fly so late & then get up at the same wretched hour in the morning. Any time you're too tired or don't feel like writing just don't. Not that you would but don't feel that you have to. I realize how hard it is for you to write so often.

I hope it doesn't rain on you too much.
March 11th, oh, that reminds me. I had the craziest dream last night. We got married and then you disappeared suddenly right after the ceremony and the next thing I remember you were flying around. It was so hard. You were buzzing all the houses and I was trying to get your attention. I can remember I had my wedding dress on and it looked very nice but you wouldn't come down.

Then this fellow from the Navy Air Corps came and we were talking (this must have been a hangover from Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo.) He looked like Bob, the one Van Johnson was
I was always told, "If you don't want to buy a ranch with me, I was complaining about how fresh the Marines were." I was telling him what had happened and he wanted to know what else could I expect from a Marine. After about five minutes, I'd convinced him that you weren't a Marine, that the best pilot in the Army air corps was you. Finally, it was a funny dream. It was much more complicated than that but it wouldn't make sense to you. You looked so cute. Though.
Woody and I are going to see "National Velvet" tonight. It's supposed to be good. As long as it's about a horse I'm sure I'll like it.

That reminds me, Dorothy, we should go riding sometime. Maybe when we're old and gray someday we'll go.

Oh, Harry, don't you want to send any announcements to Steve or any of the fellows in the Air Corps? We'll have loads of them so don't worry about that. Ashley, you only get married once on March 11th this-we're having a couple of hundred made - so we have to use them up -
What a wedding this is going to be! Nothing has gone the way we planned! 'Hope changed your best man! I've changed my attitude and the place has been changed. That's what I like - everything goes exactly the opposite from the way we planned. Wonder if that will happen to all our lives - Hope so - I love things to happen -
Are you going to be able to get the rings this weekend, Fran? Or are they giving you a refund?
Post? This week went real fast for me. The weekends always delayed away. Oh, honey, are you going to have our rings engraved there? I bet we knew about your ring so I can send for the money later.

Most certainly didn't answer my questions about Scotch!
(Not until this letter). Um didn't tell me how much to get. I'll get more than one bottle, honey. One bottle will never last you until we get out of the south.

Someone is playing, "I'm Beginning To See The Light." Hope I
I still look like a dream. The sun is too much. I miss you more than ever. I don't see you enough. With love, hang in there. Hope things improves.

You're always happy. I hope you know the difference. Good morning.

We're getting lights. This stuff is getting lights.

I'm not sure. Let me know.

Keep warm.

Love,
Poor Charlie Chaplin! I'd sure hate to be in his shoes. Besides the mess his in with Joan Barry, they're planning to start defamation charges against him. There are half a dozen other suits against him.

Someone asked Joan Davis if she liked the picture she was in. She said she be happy if they'd accept accriment the positive and burn up the negative.

The sun has retreated behind a particularly dark cloud. What a day! I suppose I'll be able to write to New Rochelle next morning, now and don't I

Well, anyway, I'll try to write after I get back from shopping.
Dearest,

I hope you're doing well.

We've been busy with the kids' school activities. I love seeing them grow and learn. I'm looking forward to the weekend when we can have some quality time together.

I've been working on that project you suggested, and I think it's turning out well. I'll show it to you soon.

I'm planning to have a picnic tomorrow at the park. Would you like to come? It's always nice to have some quiet time away from the house.

Please give my love to the kids.

Yours,

well honey it's pretty late. I guess I'd better get to bed. Ty mph 65 and you know mom and I'll write tomorrow. my darling, I miss you more and more and there'll never be words enough to tell you how very much I love you.

Do you know Carol's sister?
She had a baby boy the other day.
Her husband was killed in France the first day he went into action. The only thing that kept her going was the baby. She was praying so that it would be a boy. Carol is real busy now being an aunt.

Well honey as I said before
I'd better be getting of legs rested a bit
I love you and will love you and ever have ever any again Always,
Dottie

P.S. Just at your back, always and never
