The Henry L. Jacobs Library

A Major Addition to Bryant

Part of the Bryant College expansion program, the Henry L. Jacobs Library building, is now a smoothly-functioning reality. Its four large classrooms, teachers' lounge, and spacious library are in constant use. The walls and ceilings are painted in soft pastel shades with blond woodwork completing the decorative scheme throughout the building.

Our new librarian, Miss Dorothy E. Keith is hard at work cataloging and shelving new books. Miss Keith, following faculty and administration recommendations, is purchasing basic business-reference books and periodicals as fast as they can be catalogued.

Initial contributions of $2,200 for the purchase of books were received from the Student Senate Library Fund; $5,000 was received from Bryant College Board of Trustees and from appropriated college funds.

JOHN L. ALLAN ELECTED A BRYANT VICE PRESIDENT

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the College held Thursday, October 6, in the Director's Room of the Rhode Island Hospital Trust Company, Mr. John Logan Allan, for many years Secretary and Assistant Treasurer of Bryant College, was elected a Vice President. Mr. Allan is a Bryant graduate, class of 1918.

BRYANT COUNCIL MEETS

A meeting of the Bryant Alumni Council was held on September 20. The revised Constitution and By-Laws were approved with minor changes pending (a limited number of copies are available on request).

The resignation of Mrs. Thomas Hoey was accepted with regret. It was decided to give every assistance to the Providence Bryant Club in organizing their dance on December 3.

Under the new Constitution, elections will take place in October. The present officers have agreed to serve one more term.

DON'T BE A LOST ALUMNUS!

Let us know when you move.

THE HENRY L. JACOBS LIBRARY—This epoch-making addition to Bryant facilities marks the final realization of an ambition long held by Dr. Jacobs.

BOOKS NEEDED FOR LIBRARY

The College welcomes donations from alumni of books on all phases of business, commerce and industry for use in the new library. It is desired that these, for the most part, be of fairly recent publication. Books may be left in the library at 88 Benevolent St. on weekdays from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. or they may be mailed to the college.

Each book donated will bear a bookmark listing the donors name. It is expected that the library will eventually contain at least 10,000 volumes before the end of the school year.

Know Your Faculty

PROF. GEORGE A. RICHARDS

George A. Richards, Professor of Salesmanship and Advertising, is celebrating his 25th Anniversary as a Teacher and Administrator at Bryant College. Professor Richards has been associated with the College in a variety of capacities. In its early days, in addition to teaching, he combined in his person the offices of Director of Public Relations, Registrar and Director of Student Activities not to mention Alumni Secretary. He organized the first Alumni Reunion in the fall of 1936 in the Bryant gym.

Nowadays and for the past twenty years he has been teaching Sales and Advertising. He estimates that he has contributed substantially to the training of 3,000 potential salesmen. Enough of these former students drop in to see Professor Richards to confirm his belief that he has been instrumental in making a good many successful salesmen and also confirm his favorite statement that "the greatest opportunities for making money today are in the field of selling".

Professor Richards' faith in the efficacy of a Bryant education is demonstrated by the fact that two of his children, Virginia and James are both graduates of Bryant. His daughter Virginia graduated in 1946. She lives in Dunellen, New Jersey and has two children. His son James graduated in 1950, is with General Motors and has one child.

Professor Richards has been advisor to Tau Epsilon for twenty-five years and also advisor to the former BA Society—now the Delta Omega fraternity—since it was founded. In the early days he used to take an active part in College athletics both as a player and as a referee.

On weekends the Professor usually heads for Beverly, Mass., the North Shore above Boston, or for Cape Cod where he indulges in beachcombing and fishing. He lives at 101 Leroy Drive in Riverside with his wife Rose and their daughter Donna who is nine years old and in the

FROM THE MAILBAG

Dear Mr. Drew-Bear:

The Harvard Business School may be only some 40 miles away from Providence but it might just as well be 3000 miles away. I haven't been to bed before one o'clock in the morning since the first day of school. The first day they loaded our arms with case material, mimeographed and printed. Included were several books. Well—we assumed that this material would last us the first term. How mistaken we were! A day hasn't passed but what they have greeted us at the classroom door with something additional to look over for the next session. A real work house. And I thought Bryant was rough.

Very truly yours,

JOHN R. BUCKELEW

John R. Buckelew, on his graduation from Bryant in August 1955, entered the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration. He received this year's Genie Fund award of $600 donated by undergraduates for graduate study. John is married and has three children. He worked his way through Bryant as a linotype operator on the night shift at the Providence Journal-Bulletin. Good luck to John!

fourth grade of Bay View Academy. The latest addition to his family is a puppy—a dachshund named "Heidi".

George is still available to play a good game of cards or go fishing at the drop of a hat and still has a fondness for big fat cigars. Lately he is, as he says, "streamlined" having lost forty pounds being down to 210. You may remember those stories he used to tell in Sales and Advertising. His reputation in this department remains untarnished!

NEW LIBRARIAN APPOINTED

Miss Dorothy E. Keith of Fall River, newly-appointed Bryant College Librarian. Miss Keith is a graduate of Simmons College Library School and a member of the Massachusetts Library Association. She was formerly Regional Librarian for Fall River under the Massachusetts Department of Education.
