Beta Sigma Omicron became the Gamma Chi colony of Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority on the Bryant Campus in January of 1969. It has been the major objective of ASA to promote activities that will reflect credit, merit, and honor to our sorority and Bryant College.

Alpha Sigma Alpha can boast of a very successful year. Sister Cindy Perillo represented our brother fraternity, Phi Epsilon Pi, in the Miss Bryant Pageant for 1968. After gaining the title she went on to represent Bryant in the Miss Rhode Island Pageant. Also in 1968 Alpha Sig was the recipient of the College Spirit Award, received the trophy for the annual Donor Blood Drive, and for the past two years came in first for bringing home the bacon in Phi Kappa Tau’s pig chase. Alpha Sigma Alpha and Phi Epsilon Pi placed third this year in the annual Personality Weekend, with Sue Masse and John Hanhauseur representing us.

Two of the biggest events for ASA are the annual smoker and Christmas Tea. Each year the smoker is centered around a Hawaiian theme. Both gatherings are for the purpose of introducing freshmen girls to the sorority.

Alpha Sigma Alpha is now looking forward to many more prosperous years on Bryant's campus.

Alpha Phi Kappa sorority was founded at Bryant College in 1945. Our colors are blue and gold; our motto is “The Hand of Friendship.” APK’s purpose, as a sorority, is to institute a creative interest in Bryant, to enact a feeling of sisterhood between our fellow members and associates without discrimination, and to combine our resources and social philosophy in the helping of others.

We actively participate in all sorority sports on Bryant’s campus. We’re proud to be volleyball champions this year. Our main events of the year are rushing, which consists of the Greek Letter Council Open House, smoker, happy hours, tea, interviews, and finally four weeks of pledging; Fall Weekend, of which we are co-sponsors with our brother fraternity Phi Kappa Tau, pledge formal, and various fund raising drives.

Delta Sigma Chi

Formed in 1954, Delta Sigma Chi is next to the youngest sorority on the Bryant Campus. It, like many others, was organized to promote social and charitable aims.

Fraternities and sororities give students to meet more people. Delta Sigma Chi places no restrictions on whom it will accept as a sister, except that she be of good character and willing to invest herself unselfishly into benefiting the sorority as well as herself.

The symbols of Delta Sigma Chi are the shield, representing dignity and strength, the out-stretched hand of friendship signifying sociability, and the lily indicating purity and chastity.

Each year we work at the children's ward at Rhode Island Hospital. It is really gratifying to know that you have made someone's day a little happier by giving a little of your time and effort.
Sigma Iota Beta

Sigma Iota Beta Sorority was founded in the fall semester of 1944, by Mr. George Kane, the President of Beta Iota Beta Fraternity.

Mr. Kane gathered a group of interested girls and helped to organize and write the SIB constitution. He handled the position of president for one semester to familiarize the girls with sorority procedures.

Since then, Sigma Iota Beta has been one of the leading sororities on the campus. The organization of Sigma Iota Beta is standardized by the constitution bylaws, and the leadership of its right officers.

Every year SIB has a basketball, softball, and volleyball team. Last year, (’67-’68) SIB won a first place trophy in basketball for the second consecutive year, and second place in softball.

SIB has always been active in the field of volunteer work. Included are the following: aiding in the Blood Bank, for which SIB won a trophy, helping at the Butler Health Center, visiting the Children at Mount Pleasant Children’s Center, and contributing time at the Boy’s Club for their annual bazaar.

Included in SIB’s other accomplishments are first place Campus Follies trophies in 1962, ’64, ’65, ’66, and third place in ’67. This year SIB took the winning trophy in the Mr. and Miss Personality contest.

Each May SIB sponsors a dance in the gym. Formerly called Coffee and Confusion, this has always been one of the most popular Saturday night dances.

Kappa Delta Kappa has entered its thirty-ninth year as a sorority on the Bryant Campus. KDK is composed of both dormitory students and commuters. Membership is open to any young women students who show interest in the object of the sorority, which is to perpetuate the social and educational interests of Bryant students.

Green and White are the sorority colors, and the Gardenia, which symbolizes purity, is the sorority flower. The KDK coat of arms consists of four symbols—the hand clasp representing friendship, the beehive representing industry, the open book representing knowledge, and the winged foot representing thrift and speed.

Kappa Delta Kappa takes part in all activities that are offered to sororities on campus. We have our annual candy sale which is always a success. Sports play an important part in our activities. Last year KDK participated in volleyball, basketball, and baseball. The sisters do not take part only to win, but also to have some fun and to work and play together as a team.

Sigma Iota Xi

On December 15, 1903, Sigma Iota Chi Sorority was founded by the graduates of two colleges in Louisiana—St. James and St. Xavia Academics. These two were incorporated, and the name changed to St. James-Xavia. The nearest name in Greek letters was S. I. X.

Captain Greer Duncan formulated the idea and promoted it. He wrote the rituals and other services of the Sorority, and the Alpha chapter was officially started. We are one of the chapters which are scattered throughout the United States.

The Colors of S. I. X. are purple and gold, and our open motto is Deus, Libertas, Lex—God, Liberty, and Law. Our official flower is the violet. In 1963 Sigma Iota Chi dropped its national affiliation and became Sigma Iota Xi.

S. I. X. is very active in sports. The sisters participate in basketball, bowling, softball, and volleyball.

Together with our Brothers Phi Sigma Nu we plan many activities such as a Christmas Dinner Dance and our Pledge Formal in honor of our new pledgees. Together with our brothers, we also provide an annual Christmas party for the children of Lakeside Home.
Sigma Lambda Theta Sorority was founded as a social sorority in 1928 and is one of Bryant College’s oldest sororities. She is represented in Bryant’s Greek Letter Council, which governs the general fraternal activities and policies on campus.

Theta has always tried to instill in each sister two basic qualities, a strong sense of responsibility and the ability to cultivate and expand interests throughout life. The sorority provides each sister with opportunities to become officers and work on various committees throughout her active sorority life.

Sigma Lambda Theta’s motto is “Esse Quam Videri,” which means “To be, rather than to appear.” The Greek letters—Sigma, standing for sisterhood; Lambda, standing for learning; and Theta for honor—are enclosed in the sorority shield worn on white blazers.

Theta’s colors, red and white, represent courage and purity. The red rose in Theta’s flower and carries further the quality of courage. The pin is in the form of a shield enclosing the Greek letters and containing eleven pearls emphasizing purity.
