Bryant College Alma Mater

(Tune—"Annie Lisle")

Where brave Narragansett warriors
Once pursued their game,
And where Roger Williams settled,
Later on there came
To the hillside famed in story
Bryant College; so
Now we sing to her our praises
With our hearts aglow.

REFRAIN
Join the chorus, swell the music,
Sound the glad refrain,
Bryant College,—alma mater,
Hail to thee again.

In a proud New England city—
Providence, her name—
Widely known throughout creation,
City of fair fame,
Stands the College, loved by thousands,
One we all hold dear;
We'll unite and sound her praises,
With a song and cheer.

Friendships formed within thy portals
Ne'er shall broken be
And we'll always cherish mem'ries,
Bryant, fair, of thee.
Prexy, profs, and fellow students—
'Tis our final will—
In our mem'ries' sacred album
Each a place shall fill.
