

Friday

My Darling.

I'm about going crazy waiting for you to call. Mom said you might call during the day. I'm afraid to go out or anything.
Hope you call soon. This waiting is awful.

Golly, darling, I hope you didn't mean it about wanting to get married home. I certainly don't + I sure hope you don't.

Well, honey, I'll write more later. The plane just rang + I almost broke my neck getting there + it was my Aunthord. I'm a nervous wreck my hands shaking so, I can hardly write.

well, anyway, here are the pictures honey. That's why I started to write this.
Just got a letter back that Daddy forgot to put stamps on. What a family. We're all crazy.

well, darling, Grandma's going out
