

11-17-1944

Letter Written by Edith Speert to Victor A. Speert Dated November 17, 1944

Edith Speert

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/edith>

Part of the Arts and Humanities Commons

Recommended Citation

Speert, Edith, "Letter Written by Edith Speert to Victor A. Speert Dated November 17, 1944" (1944). Speert, Edith and Victor A.. Paper 50.
<https://digitalcommons.bryant.edu/edith/50>

This Personal Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Letters by Women During World War II at DigitalCommons@Bryant University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Speert, Edith and Victor A. by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Bryant University. For more information, please contact dcommons@bryant.edu.

LETTER EIGHTY NINE-EDITH TO VIC

Friday, 11-17-44

10:15 p.m. in bed

Putzie pie darling

If you were here right now I don't think I'd be able to stop hugging you. I love you so very much---- I could eat you!

We had cleveland's usual rainy weather tonight (all day, too) I thank the Lord, the little car is running & therefore, although the car is a bigger expense than riding Rapid & bus & street car, I must admit it save's me doctor bills!

Mrs. Bennett says the $10.00 raise per 4 wk. pay period as shown on payroll (but not on contract) will be affective (as far as we now know) for 6 mos., so starting with my pay check (coming this wed.) I will get $140.00 per 4 wks. you will, also, be interested to know that we have $340.00 in our bank (savings) acc't. Of course, this will grow and grow as I usually deposit my entire pay check & just live off the checking acc't.

Started to learn the songs for the "Gay ninety

Revue" with my Dramatic Group. They seemed to go over quite well. One girl asked if we could do "I can't say no! Of course, I know the song, so I sang it (imagine that) & they thought it so cute that they want to use it in the revue. I can't see why not!!!

No mail at all today! I'm not complaining about not hearing from you cause I'm sure you write as often as you can; but honestly, darling, when I walked into the house & didn't find mail from you, I was terribly blue---all day long I look forwarded to your letter. Every moment that goes by is a moment of love sent to you. Got it?

Forever yours,

EDITH