

Famous?

This is the most famous painting at Bryant?
Comparing it to the beautiful Haitian painting to my left fills me with frustration
Disappointment, curiosity, anxiousness
How am I so repulsed yet intrigued to make meaning?
Maybe because it is great art
Sitting in my art critique chair like I am qualified
I can't help but want to touch the piece
Noticing the scuffs on its black frame
Dried paint on the very top
Decay or Fame?
Donated.
Designated in the less-than-famous Bryant University
In a corner, observed by few if any
Frank Stella may even say
This is the most famous painting at Bryant?
