Over 100 Accounting Society Members Hear Ralph Connor '40

Mr. Ralph Connor, Providence C.P.A., a graduate of Bryant College in 1940, spoke to over 100 members and guests of the Accounting Society of Bryant College, Tuesday night, October 23, in the College Auditorium.

Mr. Connor told those present of the exacting requirements necessary to obtain a certified Public Accountant's Certificate. He also stressed the personal and technical standards required to be maintained by members of the profession. According to Mr. Connor, one of the greatest functions of accountants today is the aid to management in the formulation of policy and the selection of personnel.

The A. and F. Society hopes to obtain for its November meeting an agent from the Department of Internal Revenue to speak on the detection of fraud or errors in income tax returns.

Membership in the society is open until November 15 to all those interested in any phase of accounting. Those interested in joining the Society are urged to contact one of the following advisory board members:

Division 1-1 Mr. Brunt
1-2 Mr. Doolittle

Morimura Wins Victory For Phi Sigma Nu

Mamoru Morimura, a freshman student hailing from far away Japan and a pledgee of Phi Sigma Nu, brought victory to his new fraternity in the first competitive activity in which he has had a chance to take part since entering Bryant College to study American ideas about business administration.

The event was a pie-eating contest held in the Gym during Hell Week. Representatives from different fraternities faced a table full of cherry pies, while many amused upper classmen looked on and cheered.

With their hands tide behind them, the pledgees on a given signal dived in. In no time flat every contestant was covered with gore—but no cries of pain were heard. Morimura, exhibiting a technic that was nothing short of astounding, soon brought victory to the frat of his choice—Phi Sigma Nu.

Jack Winters New Tau Ep Officer

The recent induction of Rodney Miller into the U. S. Air Corps caused an officer vacancy in Kappa Tau Fraternity. A special election, held on October 8 for a new vice president, saw Jack Winters nominated and elected to the office.

Bill Connors, Released from Service, Resumes Directing Student Activities; Bob Belanger Going to McGraw-Hill

Bob Belanger, acting Student Activities Director, is leaving Bryant College to take up a position in public relations with the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company of New York City.

While a student at Bryant, Bob was a member of Chi Gamma Iota. He was elected president of the fraternity and held that position for three consecutive semesters, a feat which has never been equaled by any other student in any fraternity. He also held the office of President of the Student Senate for two semesters. He was graduated in August 1950 with the degree of B.S. in B.A. Immediately after graduation Bob became acting Student Activities Director in the absence of Bill Connors. Bob worked in this position from October, 1950 to October 31, 1951. During that time he was elected to the position of adviser for Phi Sigma Nu. He was also made an honorary member of Tau Epsilon and Alpha Theta Chi.

Bob will be missed by his many friends who wish him the best of luck in his new position.

ATTENTION!

November 1 is the date. The place is Room G1A. The subject is Varsity track. Bill Connors has announced that all candidates for the Bryant College Varsity Track team are to report to supply necessary data for track coach Tom Russell.

Miss Younis Attends Boston Convention

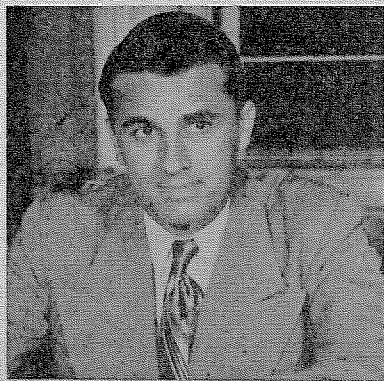

On October 6, Miss Adele L. Younis, Professor of English in the secretarial school and in the teacher-training division, was a representative at the State Convention of the American Association of University Women, which was held at the College Club, on Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts.

Keynote speaker for the meeting was Dr. Helen Bragdon, National President, who spoke on problems of education. The theme for the panel discussions was "Radio and Television in Education."

Miss Younis is Corresponding Secretary of the Fall River Chapter and also Chairman of the Local Chapter of International Relations and Education Association.

Pledgee's Services Sold for Cigarettes!

Hear ye, hear ye! Bryant's newest business is slave auctions! Don't deny the fact. On Tuesday, October 23, one certain Tau Epsilon pledgee offered for cigarettes the services of any Kappa Delta Kappa pledgee for 10 minutes.

Prospective Teachers Have Lively Meeting

On Tuesday, October 23, faculty members and prospective teachers met in Alumni Hall for a lively social gathering sponsored by the Teacher-training organization.

Dean Elmer Wilbur, guest speaker, gave an inspiring talk on teachers' ethics. He particularly stressed the importance of the Golden Rule for teachers; for as he pointed out, if one treats his students fairly and with respect, they will treat the teacher in the same way. He also noted that to be an effective and successful teacher, one must know the pupil's ability; one must know the child's physical and mental equipment, and his economic and social background.

The evening was further highlighted by a spelling bee featuring faculty members against trainees. Holding up the teachers' side of the bee were Mr. Pascale, Miss Prentice, Miss Moulton, Mr. Harris, Mrs. Brosseau, Miss Gottsell, Miss Gamble, and Mr. Meek. The opposing team consisted of Lee Martini, Mary Shea, Joe Wakum, Terry Fico, Charlie Danz, Mimi Mari-onetti, Joan Jackson, and Joe Beck.

In a battle to the finish, Joe Beck and Mr. Meek were the victors, each receiving lollipops as rewards.

Refreshments and music topped off a most pleasant evening.

The auction started: "How much am I offered for this gracious bit of femininity? Gaze upon these beautiful features . . . have you ever seen anything so gorgeous?"

So the auction went, and girls were sold for as many as eight packages of cigarettes.

Fellows were so enthused, they offered two dollars for one girl, but money had no place in this auction. Cigarettes were the price, and KDK and Tau Ep certainly fared well—they now have enough cigarettes to last them for the remainder of the year!

"Harvest Festival" Theme of Dance Given by Kappa Tau

The spirit of "Harvest Festival" truly came to life at Kappa Tau's dance Saturday evening, October 20, in the Bryant College Gymnasium.

Lilting music filled the air as dancing couples glided across the floor to the melodious strains of Lou Carle's band.

Winner of the Westinghouse Clock-Radio was Miss Pat Mons of Harriet Hall, Bryant College.

WHAT NEXT? This seems to be the question that is puzzling Maureen O'Hara and Joan Thompson as "Hell Week" raged on campus. Doubtful pledgees in background are Pat Hullet and Barbara Gilardi with Paul Lanier and Tom Thompson.

EDITORIAL

Since much has been said both pro and con on the subject of the news printed in the Archway as of late, we of the staff would like to make a statement concerning our views and policies. The first policy that we shall discuss is concerned with the news content of our campus newspaper. We hear that a few students have been complaining that there is a definite lack of news concerning the student body itself. This claim may or may not be true. If it is true, pardon, please, the alacrity with which we pass the buck right back to the groups who make most of the news that allegedly we have been omitting from the Archway.

We should be only too happy to print any news that is of genuine interest, if only we could get the news. And in our interest to publish in the Archway a complete coverage of college activities, we have stopped at only one kind of news, that one exception being our extreme reluctance and downright refusal to print anything derogatory in nature that would hurt anyone's feelings. We feel that no one can seriously object to such a policy. That leaves you . . . the student body with an almost inexhaustible source of interesting news stories. You submit this material—we will print it.

Perhaps some of our readers noticed in the last edition that on the editor's mast at the top of Page 2 there were a great many clubs named that had failed to appoint Archway representatives. At two Student Senate meetings this year it was requested that all Bryant clubs and organizations name representatives, whose duty it would be to report activities of their clubs. That long list of question marks after the names of clubs shows how much cooperation was extended to the staff of the Archway. Here is the real reason for lack of student activity news.

In order to have a newspaper that is to be enjoyed by everyone, we need the interest of everyone.
The time is now . . . It's up to you.

Dear Bob:

Your brothers in Phi Sigma Nu wish to express their deep gratitude for the services that you have rendered the fraternity while acting as one of their advisers. You have displayed an excellent example of brotherly spirit and co-operation. Through your tireless efforts you have brought us into a closer relationship with our own brothers and also our sister sorority, Sigma Iota Chi.

It is with deep regret that we must bid you farewell, but we realize that our loss is someone else's gain. We are confident that you will be equally successful in your new position with the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company.

GOOD LUCK, BOB, and please remember that you are always a BROTHER of Phi Sigma Nu.

Fraternally yours,

Tau Epsilon's Holiday Hop a Huge Success

Over four hundred fun-loving people spent an enjoyable evening dancing to the music of Tommy Masso and his orchestra at Tau Epsilon's Holiday Hop.

The brothers of the fraternity and its sister sorority, KDK, worked together to make the dance a successful event.

The intermission at 10:30 was highlighted by the drawing for the two gift certificates of $30 and $20. Pretty Norma Slocum, President of KDK Sorority, picked the lucky winners, Mr. J. B. Gordon and Mrs. Rose Smith.

HELL WEEK is finished, and so are the pledgees! Sweeping up leaves, cleaning up bottles, singing songs, washing cars, sliding down banisters, and dancing around—these are just a few of the things that kept pledgees busy. Senior members had plenty of jobs to hand out, and the pledgees just couldn't seem to get enough to keep them busy. The more they had to do, the better they liked it! "Hell Week" was certainly different this year, and there are plenty of memories (nightmares) to be stored away for future reference!

Along the Side Lines

By DICK HORNBY

Soon, in fact very soon, old man winter will make his presence felt. To many of us the thought of winter makes us start to think about putting on our heaviest clothes and wishing, wherever we were, that we were warmer. However, to those who for some mysterious reason relish the snow and cold, and even know how to have a good time in the great outdoors, something is being arranged. Something, we admit, that has been thought of in the past, but something we hope will really materialize into something this time, if you get what I mean!

In 1949 Bryant's first Ski Club was formed by Dick Nyborg. Unfortunately that year the snowfall was extremely light, making skiing completely impossible. The turnout for this club was very promising as more than seventy enthusiasts paid their respects. Recently from the Student Activities' Office, information has been received that inquiries have been pouring in about plans for the coming winter sports season. Possibilities for a ski club are unlimited. Trips to New Hampshire and Vermont can be arranged very easily. Prominent skiers can be brought in to speak on the finer points of skiing. A good time can be yours by your making a visit to the Student Activities Office for the purpose of letting it be known that you are interested.

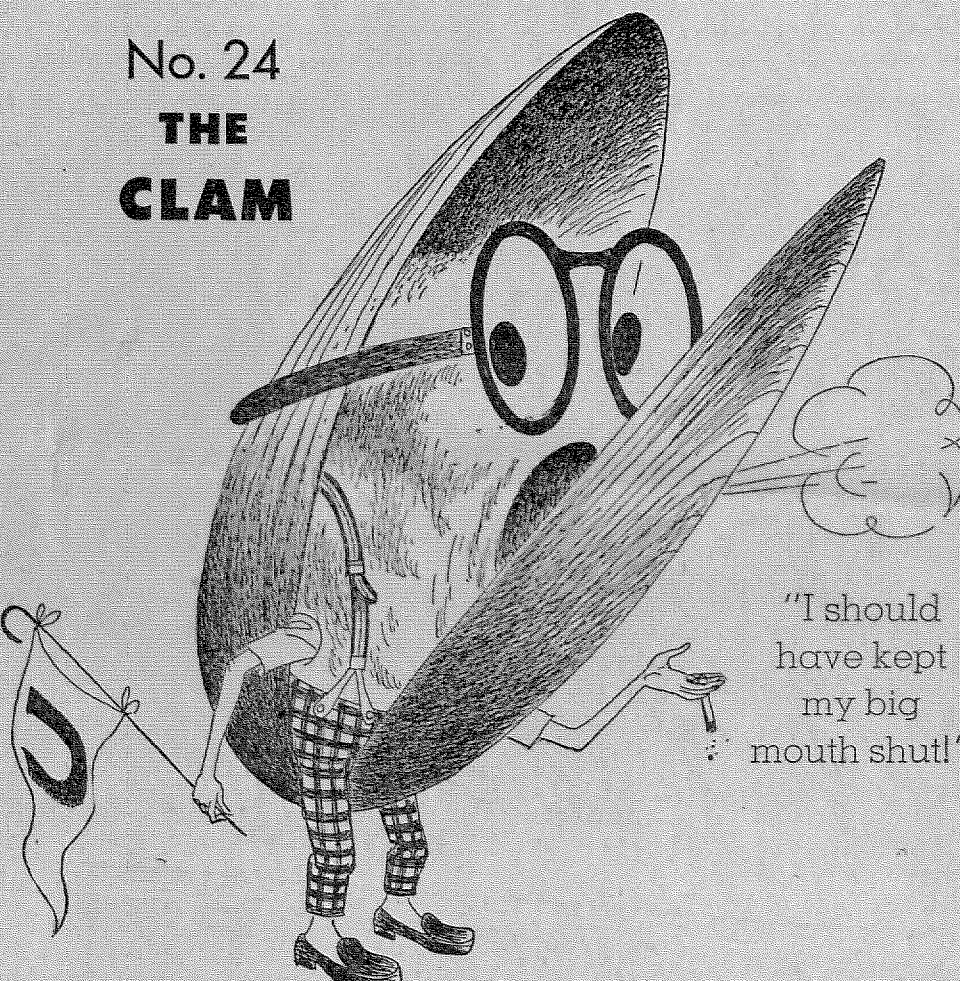

As a point of interest those of you who have intentions of going out for the track team might take a lesson in perseverance from Bryant's veteran track star, Adrian Laroche.

Don't faint folks, Adrian does the high and broad jump with his shoes off. Don't laugh at this shoeless wonder as he was undefeated in the broad jump last year. Adrian also kept an unblemished record in Port Au Prince High School in his native land of Haiti, never once biting the dust in defeat. Besides being a top notch broadjumper, Laroche puts forth his effort in the 100-yard dash and the high jump.

While we are on the subject of SHOELESSNESS we might move from Haiti to Hawaii. Eddie Ikawa, a popular lad on the Bryant campus, informed me that in his home town of St. Milo, Hawaii, barefooted football players are quite the fad. Seems that the city has regular leagues for the youngsters split up into a 110 and 120 pound limit. Eddie is quite an athlete himself being very active in such intramural sports as basketball, softball, and tennis. Phi Sigma Nu fraternity will have a leader and will offer fine competition when they take the floor against the other frats in the Intramural Basketball League.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 24
THE CLAM

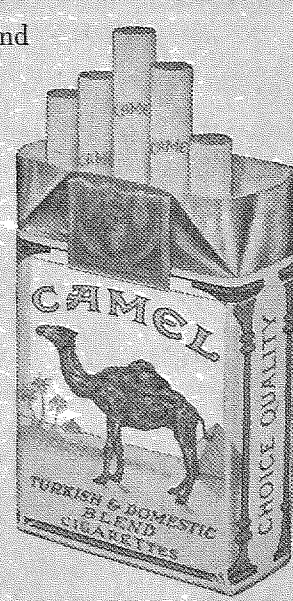

"I should have kept my big mouth shut!"

Fresh out of Bivalve, N. J., he arrived on the campus all bug-eyed and his big mouth hanging open. He was immediately sucked into a "shell game" and found himself making all the quick-trick cigarette tests. But his native instinct told him that such an important item as cigarette mildness couldn't be tossed off lightly. Millions of smokers everywhere have discovered, too, that there's but one true test of mildness.

It's the sensible test...the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke...on a pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests—

Phi U Ends Hell Week With Formal Initiation

On Wednesday night, October 24, a candle-lighted room, shadowed by figures of sisters of Phi Upsilon in white, reading the secretive orders to lowly pledges, ended the harum-scarum antics of "Hell Week" and made pledges full-fledged sisters.

The Phi U. girls were distinguished during "Hell Week" by their glorious voices raised in song with such favorites as, "I've Been Working on the Railroad," or by their remarkable memories in reciting the Greek alphabet backwards.

On Monday a Phi U girl was unmistakable with her twenty-five pigtailed tied in grey and green ribbons. On Tuesday her trademark was an all-day-sucker, also the rope which bound her with sisterly love to other Phi U girls. On Wednesday the hobble identified her, as she wore one high and one low heel, and the motherly look, as she dragged her doll around by the leg.

The President of Phi U has issued the following statement: "I'm glad Hell Week is over; I'm tired." Nothing about the poor pledges.

Bouquets to - - -

Al Nelson, as President of the Student Senate and President of Tau Epsilon, has demonstrated outstanding leadership qualities. The T. B. Campaign, the Red Feather Drive and the Clothing Drive all have been successfully completed with his able assistance.

Bob Belanger, who on November 1, starts work in the Public Relations Department of the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company in New York City.

Gary Cooper, Tau Ep; Al Mintz, Phi Sig; Patti Higgins, Phi U; and Pat Hullett, S. I. C., who have really been ideal pledges. They have obediently performed all tasks from shining shoes to carrying dolls.

Paul Lanier, who has brought new life to the International Relations Club. The I. R. C. is sponsoring many affairs this year, one of the most important being United Nations Week.

Frank Reynolds, who is teaching while he is learning. Frank is a day student at Bryant and a night teacher at Providence College where he is teaching photography.

Beta Sigma Chi Breaks Twenty-Six Year Tradition

Beta Sigma Chi, the oldest fraternity on the campus has broken its more than a quarter of a century tradition in the initiation of its pledges.

The pledges, besides having to go through an informal initiation, were taken for a ride out to Lincoln Woods. There were three groups of pledges, each with specific instructions as to where and how to proceed in the finding of various, previously placed, letters.

Each group, before making their way back to Providence, had to find all their letters which had to be returned to the brothers the following night. Finding those letters was not so easy in view of the darkness, the rain, and the cold weather. A count taken just as the ARCHWAY was going to press revealed that Beta Sigma was minus two members, who, it must be assumed, are either lost or still looking for their letters.

If they have not returned or been found by the time the next Archway comes out, the Brothers of Beta Sigma Chi intend to pay tribute to their bravery.

Sigma Lambda Theta Holds First Tea

On Monday, October 8, Sigma Lambda Theta sorority held its first freshmen tea in Eldridge Hall. The purpose of the tea was to get the pledges acquainted with the sorority and its activities.

After the introduction of Theta's officers and its advisers, Miss Glidden and Miss Gotsell, refreshments were served.

Nan Smith entertained with various piano selections and was joined by her sorority sisters and pledges in the singing of popular songs.

Inter-Faith Council Changes Date of Meeting

The date of the next Inter-Faith Council affair has been changed from October 24 to November 7.

The Bryant Christian Association, the Canterbury Club, the Newman Club, and Hillel have planned another meeting, and anticipate as large a crowd as last time.

The Newman Club is sponsoring the speaker, Father Corneely, a Columbian missionary.

Dancing and refreshments will follow the speech.

KDK and TE Hold Joint Rush Party

KDK sorority and Tau Epsilon fraternity held a successful joint rush party on Wednesday, October 17.

The fellows met in Alumni Hall; and Al Nelson, President, discussed fraternity precedents with the prospective pledges.

Norma Slocum, President, presided over the meeting of girls in the auditorium, where the girls introduced themselves and group singing formed an important part of the entertainment.

Later the two groups met for refreshments and dancing, the final touches for a memorable evening.

Brown Newman Club To Play Host

On November 1 the Brown University Newman Club will be host to the Bryant and University of Rhode Island Newman Clubs.

This is the first of a series of meetings that will be sponsored by each of the clubs in turn to acquaint the members of the Rhode Island Newman Clubs with each other.

A large attendance is expected and all members of the Bryant Newman Club are invited.
