My Darling,

Wouldn't cha know it!

Just the day we don't fly it's clear as a bell.
We couldn't fly today, all the enlisted men had to go to the main field to see some G. I. movie so now we're stuck with beautiful weather, and no planes. Ya can't win!

They're playing "ain't misbehavin'" over the radio.
Boy honey that's no lie, ah ain't - (ah cain't). Well anyhow they're letting their little boys have beer tonight since we've been good all week.

Gosh darling, the time is going so slow. I guess it's because I don't do anything all day ~~long~~ around here.
It seems like I haven't seen you in weeks. And it's only been four days.
Honey, I think I'll go nuts for the next 14.
I miss you more now than I ever did while I was at Spence.

Next weekend I'm going to try to get off if possible. I'm going to speak to the C.O.
(only a 1st LT.). And maybe honey, if I do, you could come down to Pensacola and I could meet you there.

There's no possible way you can even telegraph me so I can just you want to or can make it, darling.

So if I can I will telegraph you Thursday night, the 22nd you'll probably get it Friday morning. I'll send it in care of the Albert Hotel, O.K.

I you don't hear from me, don't come
down, but if you do,
try to get to Pensacola Friday night so you can get a room, it's very crowded, sticky with the Navy! Stay in the largest hotel in town, ask someone which is, then I can find you easily honey.
And if I can't find Saturday night you by 11 o'clock, call the
in Pensacola
U.S.O. and leave a message here. You'd better do that in the first place and I'll go right to there.

and if there's no U.S.O.
just stay in the hotel.
That's the only thing I can think of home, since there is no possible way for you to reach me here.
So if I can make it
I'll telegraph you Thursday.
Aah I hope I can darling I miss you so much. and love you much more.
It's so awful being away from you.

I love you darling with all my heart and soul.
I will be that way - always.

P.S. - I just found out that you can telegraph
me here, just send it to Craig and it will get to me here O.K.
I love you my darling.

Your devoted husband.
