Fri A.M.

Dear Folks,

The week is almost over again. They certainly do go by quickly.

Monday ^{evening} I went to the library for the walk,

Tuesday evening I went to the dentist (I had lost a filling) and then in town and had a very nice waffle with syrup at a small waffle shop.

Wednesday evening I went to the movies to see Katherine Hepburn in "Dragon Seed". It is one of the great movies I believe. She played her finest role. but even so was eclipsed by the acting of Walter Houston + Aline Macken who played the father + mother.

It is, of course, a war picture and is not pleasant but it is full of Chinese life + reactions which seem to be very true.

The photography is exceptionally fine.

Last night we had our company meeting
then I washed + ironed + sewed + wrote 10.30.

We have moved our file unit out into the back room with the 201 files. I don't know how we will like it but it seems all right so far.

I am snatching a moment to write this first thing at the office but do know whether I can find an envelope so as to mail it before noon or not.

Hastily

Kay.
