Dear Folks,

I wrote a letter to you last evening and hope you got it. I lost it before I got it mailed and am hoping some kind soul found it and stuck it in a mail box. It had the proof to my pictures in it!
Let me know if you get it.

This letter will be repetitious

-2-if you do, but in case you don't get it, I'll repeat here what I wrote.

(1) The pictures - I am having the following

1 large - for home (a free gift)

2 small - for home or whatever use desired by you

1 small - for Aunt Ruth (for Ymas)

1 small - " Uncle Ted " "

1 small - " Garland " "

1 " - " Marjorie Crockett

(2) - Sis - if the material is good enough to sell sell it. If not, give away any thing, they can use - Keep - all erinoid + amberol -

Keep at least a dozen snaps for our own use - Keep all tools!

Anything else you may have - I'll be glad to have it used. Maybe they'd even like some of those scraps we've been saving.

I doubt now that I'll want any of it here anyway, and if I do it will be the pendants etc.

I am sitting under the dryer at the beauty parlor clad in my new G.I. slacks + blouse, a very comfortable green shirtings twill suit. We wear them to breakfast, and evenings + Sundays around the area or when we go for walks in the woods.

Before having my hair done tonight I attended the first meeting of our new glee club - About 25 present - I think it's going to be lots of fun. We will meet each Thursday from 7 to 8.30 - Tommie Wasserman is going to conduct it. She was a music teacher before she came in the army. I'm going to try to sing alto. I'll enjoy it much more than the soprano if I can just be near someone who can really sing so I can carry the alto tune!

Last night, some of us went to the Georgia State Fair. An enjoyable and different evening. The same as any fair - Exhibits - (though not as many as at home) - a big Midway - many eating concessions + many gambling concessions. I'm not lucky - I never win anything. Wigton won a stuffed elephant!

Going backwards - Tuesday evening - I played tennis - 3 sets - I won only 2 games but I had lots of fun -

Monday was basketball night -

Sunday - primarily washing, sewing, reading, talking - with a long 3 hr walk through the woods in the afternoon -

Mudstop now -

Love to all of you.

Ray -

P.S - Mother thanks for reminding me about the insurance. I sent a money order right off.

By the way, how many 10 bonds have you received so far?
