

[Transcription begins]

[Undated]

Received a letter from Jess Holmes to-day. Have not seen them since Thanksgiving however expect they may come here soon. Jess is not very well and I think he is afraid he might be sick here.

Do you still write the Shaw girl? Seems years since you spent the Summer at Carver.

Going to let your ma write a good night note so will say good night.

Love

Dad

9:30 PM -- Daryl tucked away--Chip half covered by the pink blanket in front of the radiator--Bing on top of the radiator half hanging over and making Chip very nervous! I have been cleaning out the magazine rack. As Dad says, we are following the Pacific war news and feel you must be in it somehow. A small write-up telling of the loss of several navy planes on a routine flight to the Ellice Islands makes us wonder if you had to do any of the hunting for survivors. We think of you many times during the day--hope life is not too intense and that you are safe and well.

Ever so much love

Mother [Transcription ends]