

One Hundred and Forty-seventh

COMMENCEMENT CEREMONY

SATURDAY, MAY 22, 2010

WELCOME

A most cordial welcome is extended to relatives, friends, faculty members, alumni, administrators, and staff who gather here to celebrate the 147th Commencement of Bryant University.

PLEASE NOTE:

Standing in the aisles is not permitted under section 23-28. 19-9 of the R.I. Health and Safety Code.

PROGRAM

FLAG BEARERS

Bryant University Army ROTC Color Guard

CLASS FLAG

Bryant University extends its gratitude to the late, George J. Kelley '39, '69H, Honorary Trustee Emeritus, for his generosity in providing ongoing financial support for the purchase and display of a graduating class flag. The 2010 Class Flag was designed by seniors from the Student Alumni Association. Representing their class by carrying the Senior Class Flag today are Yuanjun (Cornelia) Li and Ledia Dulaj.

The Class of 2010 would like to give back as they feel fortunate to have received a Bryant education. The theme of the flag, "The Future Is in Our Hands," reflects the 2010 Legacy Endowed Scholarship that has been established through the Senior Class Gift. It will open the door to a Bryant education for future generations – forever.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

Senator Jack Reed

Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters

Jack Reed, United States Senator from Rhode Island, will deliver the keynote address to graduating seniors and guests at Undergraduate Commencement. Reed was elected to succeed Sen. Claiborne Pell in 1996 and has been a tireless advocate for working class families and a champion for higher education. Now the state's senior senator, he serves on four committees: Appropriations; Armed Services; Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs; and Health, Education, Labor and Pensions.

The honorary degree is being presented to the senator in recognition of his advocacy for education, especially affordable higher education. Reed authored several bipartisan bills to increase need-based financial aid for students, including the College Cost Reduction and Access Act, the Leveraging Educational Assistance Partnership Program, and a bill that simplified federal financial aid forms.

Before being elected to the U.S. Senate, Reed was a three-term member of the U.S. House of Representatives from Rhode Island's 2nd Congressional District, and he previously served three terms as a state senator.

Born and raised in Cranston, R.I., he graduated from West Point in 1971 and served in the U.S. Army through 1979. He received a master's degree from Harvard University in 1973 and graduated from Harvard Law School in 1982.

Dr. Diana G. Oblinger

Honorary Doctor of Business Administration

Diana Oblinger is president and CEO of EDUCAUSE, a non-profit association whose mission is to advance higher education through the judicious use of information technology. The membership comprises more than 2,300 colleges, universities, and education organizations, as well as 250 corporations. Previously, she was EDUCAUSE's vice president, responsible for its teaching and learning activities and the EDUCAUSE Learning Initiative.

Oblinger has been a faculty member of the University of Missouri-Columbia and Michigan State University, and was an associate dean at the University of Missouri. She currently serves on a variety of boards including the National Science Foundation's Advisory Committee on Cyberinfrastructure. She has testified before the U.S. Senate Committee on Employment, Safety, and Training, and the U.S. House of Representatives Subcommittee on Technology.

A frequent keynote speaker, Oblinger co-wrote the award-winning What Business Wants from Higher Education, served as co-editor of seven books, and has written or co-written dozens of monographs and articles. She earned three degrees from Iowa State University.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

Charles Gwathmey, FAIA

Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters (awarded posthumously)

Robert Siegel, FAIA

Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters

Gwathmey Siegel & Associates, founded in 1968, has earned an international reputation for architectural excellence confirmed by more than 100 design awards, including the American Institute of Architects' highest honor for "approaching every project with a fresh eye, a meticulous attention to detail, a keen appreciation for environmental and economic concerns, and a strong belief in collaborative effort." The firm is responsible for two of Bryant's most stunning buildings – the new Interfaith Center and the George E. Bello Center for Information and Technology – both of which have significantly enhanced the quality of campus life.

Charles Gwathmey, who died in August 2009, graduated with a master's degree in architecture in 1962 from Yale University, where he won both The William Wirt Winchester Fellowship as the outstanding graduate and a Fulbright Grant. His work earned him numerous awards and honors, including two Lifetime Achievement Awards – one from the New York State Society of Architects and the second from the Guild Hall Academy of Arts. In 1976, he was elected to the American Academy of Arts and Letters, from which he received the Brunner Prize in 1970. From 1965 through 1991, Gwathmey taught at a number of schools of architecture, including Pratt Institute, The Cooper Union, Princeton University, Yale, and Harvard. In 2005, he was the William A. Bernoudy Resident in Architecture at the American Academy in Rome, Italy.

Robert Siegel graduated from Pratt Institute with a bachelor's degree in architecture in 1962 and from Harvard University with a master's degree in architecture in 1963. In 1983, the New York Chapter of the American Institute of Architects recognized Siegel's skill and leadership as an architect with its Medal of Honor. He received the Pratt Institute Centennial Alumni Award in Architecture in 1988, and, in 1990, a Lifetime Achievement Award from the New York State Society of Architects. He was elected a Fellow of The American Institute of Architects in 1991. Throughout his professional career, Siegel has served as a design critic, juror, and lecturer at professional organizations and schools of architecture. In 1983, he organized the Pratt Institute Student Intern Program within the Gwathmey Siegel office – part of his continuing interest in nurturing the skills of talented young architects.

GRADUATION HONORS AND HONOR SOCIETIES

Students at Bryant University who have distinguished themselves through academic performance wear gold honor cords with their academic robes.

ACADEMIC HONORS

Special recognition is accorded those who show distinction in academic achievement. Honors may be awarded on the basis of cumulative averages, as follows: Cum Laude (with honors – GPA of 3.30), Magna Cum Laude (with high honors – GPA of 3.55), and Summa Cum Laude (with highest honors – GPA of 3.80). Students must have completed sixty (60) semester hours of course work at Bryant University to be eligible for honors.

HONOR SOCIETIES

Δ Alpha Kappa Delta – To be eligible for membership, students must have at least junior-year standing, an overall GPA and a sociology GPA of at least 3.0, be in the top 35 percent of their class, and have completed a minimum of four courses in sociology.

β Beta Gamma Sigma – This is the highest national recognition a student can receive in an undergraduate program in a business or management program accredited by AACSB International – The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. Members must have earned a cumulative GPA of 3.5 and rank in the upper 10 percent of the second-semester junior class, upper 10 percent of the senior class, or top 20 percent of the graduating master's class hp Honors Program – To be recognized as an Honors Program graduate, each member must have successfully completed a minimum of seven honors courses in addition to a capstone senior honors project.

Λ Lambda Pi Eta – To be eligible for membership, students must have completed at least 12 hours of communication courses, have a GPA of at least 3.25, and be in the upper 35 percent of the graduating class.

μ Mu Sigma Rho – To be eligible for membership, undergraduate students must have a 3.25 grade point average in all statistics courses and be in the top third of their class in all course work.

Ø Omicron Delta Epsilon – To be eligible for membership, a student must have completed a minimum of 12 semester hours of economics courses, have earned at least a “B” average in the economics courses, and have an overall scholastic average of “B” or better.

K Omicron Delta Kappa – To be eligible for membership, students must have at least junior-year standing, must be in the top 35 percent of their graduating class, and must show leadership in at least one of the five phases of campus life, including Scholarship; Athletics; Campus or Community Service, Social and Religious Activities, and Campus Government; Journalism, Speech, and the Mass Media; and Creative and Performing Arts.

π Pi Sigma Alpha – To be eligible for membership, a student must have completed a minimum of 12 semester hours of political science courses with a minimum GPA of 3.3, as well as an overall minimum GPA of 3.3.

Ψ Psi Chi – To be eligible for membership, students must have an overall GPA and a psychology GPA of at least 3.0, be in the top 35 percent of their graduating class, and have completed a minimum of 9 credit hours of psychology courses.

DEGREE INFORMATION

The 2010 Bryant University Commencement honors certified graduates and degree candidates who are scheduled to complete course work by July 31, 2010. Honors are tentatively calculated as of the completion of the 2009 fall semester.

THE HARRIET E. JACOBS MEMORIAL MACE

The University Mace is carried at Commencement exercises and at other University celebrations. Crowned in gold, the mace has two dominant emblems: the seal of the State of Rhode Island and the seal of Bryant University.

THE PRESIDENT'S CHAIR

The President's Chair, a gift to the University from Priscilla Angelo and her husband, John Eng-Wong, is used on ceremonial occasions. It is a Victorian-style gent's chair rendered in walnut and copied from an original French design from the period of the University's founding in 1863. The carved crest top includes the Bryant University bronze seal.

BRYANT MEDALLION

The Bryant Medallion is worn by the president during academic ceremonies such as Commencement, Convocation, and the bestowing of honorary degrees. One side of the medallion bears a likeness of the University seal, the other, the names of all Bryant University presidents. The formal installation of a president is marked by the presentation of the medallion to the president by the chair of the Board of Trustees.

THE BRYANT SEAL

The Bryant Seal represents the educational mission of the University and its worldwide implications. The central symbol is an ellipsoid globe with quills on each side to signify the traditional emblem of communication in business. In the center, behind the globe, is a torch symbolizing liberty, the spirit of free inquiry, academic freedom, and learning. The Archway, forming the background for the globe, torch, and quills, is a University landmark affectionately remembered by thousands of alumni. The Latin motto expresses the purpose of the University: "Cognitio. Virtus. Successus." – Knowledge. Character. Success.

ALUMNI CHARGE

Today, as you celebrate your graduation from Bryant University, you find yourself saying goodbye to the classmates, faculty, and staff with whom you have formed close friendships over these last few years. Graduation, however, is not so much an ending as a transition. It's true that you're about to begin a new stage of life, but as a Bryant University alumnus/a, you are never far from the community you've come to know as a home away from home.

In fact, one of the reasons you chose Bryant was for its close-knit community. Through the Bryant University Alumni Association, you will always be a member of this community. You can stay in touch with friends by attending class reunions, regional alumni network events, and by signing on to the alumni online directory. And just as Bryant provided you with a solid foundation for a successful career, our alumni networks continue to support your professional goals.

As a Bryant student, you participated in academic, athletic, and civic events that not only provided you with many skills but also gave you a sense of satisfaction as well. As a Bryant graduate, you can stay involved by serving on University committees, advisory councils, and even the Board of Trustees. You can advance Bryant's reputation by getting involved with admission, career services, educational, and fundraising initiatives. And, throughout the year, Bryant alumni gather together to reach out to their communities through a number of volunteer programs.

Just as the Bryant community shared in the celebration of your accomplishments as a student, we will always be interested to hear of your successes. Let us know when you've moved, and what milestones you've reached so we can share your good news with your Bryant classmates and friends.

Congratulations on your graduation, and welcome to the Bryant University Alumni Association!

ACADEMIC HERALDRY

The history of academic dress worn today dates back to the universities of the Middle Ages. A statute in 1321 required the wearing of gowns by all scholars and clerics. Probably, the warm gown and hood were practical in the unheated buildings.

Students at most American universities wore caps and gowns daily while in residence until after the Civil War. These varied in design until they were standardized by the American Intercollegiate Commission in 1895. While the academic costume code has been modified over the years, the general characteristics of the initial requirements still prevail. The uniform system of academic heraldry serves to indicate the level of degree, the field of study in which it was earned, and the institution by which it was granted. The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves and is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve and can be worn open or closed. The gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped sleeves with black velvet facing down the front and three bars of the same across the sleeves. However, these facings and crossbars may be in the color distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains. At Bryant University, the president and the honorary degree recipients wear gowns specially designed and trimmed in the University color of gold.

The academic hoods are lined with the color of the university granting the degree. The length of the hood varies slightly for bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees. It is often traditional for the candidates for degrees to wear the mortarboard tassel on the right front side before the degree is conferred and to shift it to the left when the degree is awarded.
